MARVIN LEWIS — Head Coach

Marvin Lewis is in his ninth season as Bengals head coach, posting the longest tenure in franchise history. He breaks the record of eight seasons he had shared with club founder Paul Brown (1968-75) and Sam Wyche (1984-91).

Lewis was the consensus choice as NFL Coach of the Year in 2009, when the Bengals won the AFC North title while sweeping all six division games. And though 2010 proved a disappointment, with the club finishing 4-12, Lewis' Bengals are among a minority of NFL teams (14 of 32) to have captured more than one division title in the last six years. The Bengals also won the AFC North in 2005.

In announcing on Jan. 4 of this year that Lewis had signed a new contract, Bengals president Mike Brown said, "I believe that continuity with Marvin as head coach offers the best chance to bring us back to and beyond our division championship level of 2009."

The 2010 Bengals sustained eight of their losses by one-score margins.

"We were a team with the ability to win games, but we did not make the key plays on which the close games turn," Lewis said. "Our job is to fix that, and we have the nucleus of the right guys."

The Bengals were forced to place 17 players on the Reserve/Injured list in 2010, and nine were veteran defensive players who would have started or seen significant action if healthy. But an impressive list of young stars emerged. DE Carlos Dunlap set a Bengals rookie record with 9.5 sacks, WR Jordan Shipley and TE Jermaine Gresham tied for the AFC rookie lead in receptions (52), and Shipley also led AFC rookies in receiving yards (600). Also on offense, young WRs Jerome Simpson and Andre Caldwell had strong finishes.

The youth movement came together most notably in Game 15, when the Bengals eliminated a formerly surging San Diego team from playoff contention in a 34-20 win.

"I'm proud of the way our guys fought," said Lewis. "We relied on a lot of young players as the season wound down, and we found an identity I don't think we'll lose."

And the identity was?

"Just keep coming. Don't flinch. Don't ever quit on your buddies," Lewis said. "I believe this group figured out what it takes to win. We take it from this point and get smarter and better from there."

Lewis was named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003, becoming at the time the eighth African-American to become an NFL head coach. In recognition of the 8-8 Bengals being the NFL's most improved team in 2003, Lewis finished second behind Bill Belichick of Super Bowl champion New England in Associated Press Coach of the Year voting.

Lewis came to the Bengals with credentials as a record-setting NFL defensive coordinator who had earned a Super Bowl championship ring. His six seasons (1996-2001) as defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens included a Super Bowl victory in the 2000 season.

In the 2000 regular season, Lewis' defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165), clipping 22 points off the previous mark. The 2000 Ravens are always an entry in discussions regarding the best NFL defenses of all time.

In 2002, the season before he joined the Bengals, Lewis led the Washington Redskins to a No. 5 NFL defensive ranking, serving as assistant head coach as well as defensive coordinator.

He had his first NFL assignment from 1992-95, as linebackers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Lewis began his coaching career as linebackers coach at his alma mater, Idaho State, from 1981-84. ISU's team (also nicknamed the Bengals) finished 12-1 during Lewis' first season and won the NCAA Division 1-AA championship.

Lewis played LB at Idaho State, earning All-Big Sky

Conference honors for three consecutive years (1978-80). He also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburgh), where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus.

Marvin Lewis Community Fund is going strong

Head coach Marvin Lewis has reached out to strengthen the franchise's ties to the community, making more than 350 appearances in his first eight years while also encouraging the players to become engaged.

In 2003, he launched the highly successful Marvin Lewis Community Fund (MLCF). Since its inception, the MLCF has donated more than $6 million, touched the lives of over 350,000 individuals, and is proud to invest 93 cents of every dollar back into the community.

The Community Fund has eight outreach programs that seek to empower, educate and inspire young people in the region.

Its signature program, Learning Is Cool, was launched in 2008 and has seen great success in three years. This educational incentive program — in which the MLCF and the Bengals partner with Cincinnati Public Schools and Covington (Ky.)

Independent Public Schools — rewards students for strong academic performance. Since September 2008, the MLCF has seen the number of "A" honor roll achievements, in grades one through eight in CPS, increase by 85 percent. The program will expand in the fall of 2011 to include North College Hill Schools.

The MLCF's proudest accomplishments include awarding four-year, $20,000 college scholarships to 41 outstanding high school seniors. Several of these scholars return to volunteer for the Fund whenever their calendar permits.

In 2009, Coach Lewis was the first individual to receive the national Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy, recognizing the impact his work has on the community and the example he sets for all of professional sports.

assistant Dick LeBeau (19).

Alexander is in his 17th straight season as offensive line coach, and he is also the team's assistant head coach, promoted to that position in 2003 when Marvin Lewis took over as head coach.

Alexander's line led a pass protection effort in 2010 that saw the Bengals finish second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed per passing play. Opponents totaled only 28 sacks in 618 passing plays, an average of one every 22.07 plays.

The Bengals did not allow a sack for 100 consecutive passing plays to close the season. The streak of 100 began in the fourth quarter of Game 13 and continued through the final three games. Also in the last three games of the season, the line helped the offense average 34:18 in possession time while posting a 47.8 conversion rate on third downs.

In 2009, the line strongly supported a 10-6 Bengals run to the AFC North Division title. Cincinnati's run blocking helped spring eight rushing games of 100 or more yards by individual backs, breaking the franchise record of six. Three different rushers combined for those eight 100-yarders, only the second time in club history that three rushers had a 100-yard game in a season.

Twice with Alexander's lines, the Bengals have set new franchise records for fewest sacks allowed, led by a record 17 in 2007. In 2005, the total was only 21 sacks allowed. In 2007, as was the case in 2010, the offense allowed no sacks over the final three games. The 2007 total for consecutive passing plays without a sack allowed to close the season was 89.

On Oct. 22, 2000, Alexander's line shared the glory of a 278-yard rushing game by HB Corey Dillon vs. Denver. It was an NFL record at the time, and it still stands fourth in league annals entering the 2011 season. The Bengals' 407 total rushing yards in that game rank as the fifth-highest single-game total in NFL history, and as the most rushing yards in 60 years. The last team to top it was the New York Giants, who gained 423 against Baltimore in 1950.

Alexander began his NFL coaching career in 1992 as tight ends coach of the N.Y. Jets, under head coach Bruce Coslet. When Coslet moved to Cincinnati as offensive coordinator in 1994, Alexander joined him, in the role of Bengals tight ends coach.

But Alexander's first love in football was always the offensive line. He was afforded the chance to take over that job for the Bengals in 1995, and has held it ever since.

Alexander is a product of distinguished teachers. He coached under Joe Paterno at Penn State and Bo Schembechler at Michigan. He also was offensive line coach at Central Michigan, a school whose coach, Herb Deromedi, ranks with Paterno and Schembechler among the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history.

Alexander's birthdate is Feb. 12, 1960. He's a native of Rochester, N.Y., where he attended Cardinal Mooney High School. He was an Academic All-American at Cortland State (N.Y.) and holds a master's degree in exercise physiology from Penn State. Off the field, he is actively involved with the Boy Scouts, the D.A.R.E. program and high school linemen camps.

He and his wife, Kathy, have three daughters — Mary Beth, Carolyn and Emily.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-81: Played offensive tackle at Cortland State. 1983-84: Graduate assistant, Penn State. 1985-86: Graduate assistant, Michigan. 1987-91: Assistant coach (AC), Central Michigan. 1992-93: AC, New York Jets. 1994-2002: AC, Bengals. 2003-present: Assistant head coach/offensive line coach, Bengals.

TV STREAK AT 96

In each of the last 96 Cincinnati TV ratings weeks that have included a Bengals regular-season or postseason broadcast — a period dating back to 2004 — the Bengals have ruled the Cincinnati airwaves. They have been the top-rated show among all programming in the Cincinnati market, and usually by a wide margin.

The streak began on Dec. 5, 2004, when a wild Bengals win at Baltimore outpulled all other programs.

The rating number indicates the percentage of market households tuned to the game — including those not watching TV at the time. The highest Bengals rating during the streak has been 45.5 for the Pittsburgh playoff game on Jan. 8, 2006.

The high rating of Bengals games has occurred despite the fact most games are played in the afternoon, when overall TV viewership is not as high as it is during the evening.

JAY GRUDEN — Offensive Coordinator

Jay Gruden joined the Bengals on Feb. 3 of this year as the club's new offensive coordinator.

Gruden, 44, coached for seven seasons (2002-08) in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring in 2002.

He also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won four league championships as a quarterback and two as a head coach. In 18 AFL seasons as a player and head coach, he never missed the playoffs.

"We are excited to have Jay join us and give us a new direction offensively," said Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "He has proven himself a consistent winner in a variety of positions and has earned tremendous respect in the coaching profession. He's going to provide the energy and attacking style that will best suit our offensive skill players."

"This is something I wanted to get right, to take the time to make the best decision," Lewis said, "The offense is where we need to show improvement. One thing we did in 2010 was to develop a number of very promising new players, particularly on offense, and Jay is a key addition to this process."

In 2010, Gruden was head coach and general manager of the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. He led the Tuskers to the UFL championship game.

"I expect great things with the Bengals," Gruden said. "I intend on bringing a great attitude and work ethic. We'll build off the strength this offense has developed and add a system to challenge everyone in the building."

Gruden played four seasons at QB for the University of Louisville (1985-88), including three years as the starter. He was a two-time team MVP and ranks fourth in Cardinals history in completions (572), passing yards (7024) and touchdown passes (44). He played QB in the Arena League for six seasons (1991-96) with the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and posting numbers as the league's all-time leading passer.

He was head coach for the AFL's Orlando Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08). He led the team to four championship game appearances, with two league titles, while compiling a 93-61 record (.604 winning percentage). During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators, in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's QB, leading two playoff seasons. He was elected in 1999 to the AFL Hall of Fame.

In 2002, Gruden accepted a position as an offensive assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, taking on a dual role as he also continued his AFL exploits during NFL offseasons. He worked for seven seasons (2002-08) under his brother Jon, who was Bucs head coach. He contributed to three division championship seasons, including the 2002 campaign that saw the Bucs defeat Oakland 48-21 for a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

In 2009, Gruden was offensive coordinator for the UFL Tuskers, helping them to an unbeaten regular season with a league-best 30.5 scoring average.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967 in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1985-88: Played QB at University of Louisville. 1990: Played QB for Barcelona Dragons and Sacramento Surge (WLAF). 1991-96: Played QB for Tampa Bay Storm (AFL). 1997: Offensive coordinator, Nashville Kats (AFL). 1998-2001: Head coach, Orlando Predators (AFL). 2002-03: Played QB for Orlando Predators. 2004-08: Head coach, Orlando Predators. 2002-08: Assistant coach, Tampa Bay Buccaneers. 2009: Offensive coordinator, Florida Tuskers (UFL). 2010: Head coach, Florida Tuskers. 2011: Joins Bengals as offensive coordinator.

BENGALS BY THREE IN BATTLE OF OHIO

The Bengals enter this season with a three-game lead in the Battle of Ohio series vs. Cleveland. Cincinnati leads 39-36, having split its 2010 series with Cleveland.

When the teams meet in the 2011 regular-season opener, Sept. 11 at Cleveland, the Bengals will look to tie their largest-ever series advantage at four games. Their only previous four-game lead was 24-20 — established with a win in early 1992.

Starting with the second meeting of '92, the Browns won a series-record seven straight. Win No. 7 was in late 1995, and the streak was one small thing Browns fans could enjoy during the city's 1996-98 hiatus from NFL play. The Bengals would not lead the series again until late 2006. They finally climbed back on top when they gained a 34-33 edge with a two-game sweep in '06.

The Browns have since pulled into a couple of ties, but they have now endured a four-year stretch without a lead in the series, and they cannot lead again until late 2012 at the earliest.

The largest lead in series history has been five games by the Browns, who led 6-1 after the first meeting of 1973.

MIKE ZIMMER — Defensive Coordinator

Mike Zimmer is in his fourth season as Bengals defensive coordinator, coming off a 2010 campaign during which his unit held its own despite a rash of player losses due to injuries.

The Bengals managed a top-half finish (15th) in yards allowed (332.0), despite the fact that among 17 players who went on the Reserve/Injured list, nine were veteran defenders due starting positions or significant playing time when healthy.

"We finished about average, but I'm proud of the effort we got from our guys," Zimmer said. "We can do better this year and I believe we will, just from presumably having more of our top guys available."

The 2010 defense allowed an average of only 73.7 rushing yards over the last three games, and the Cincinnati pass rush was vastly improved as the season wore on. Held to only six sacks in the first seven games (0.86 per outing), the Bengals posted 21 over the last nine games (2.33 per game). The pressure was led by DE Carlos Dunlap, who set a Bengals rookie record with 9.5 sacks.

In 2009, a healthier year for the defense, Zimmer earned NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors from Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers and from CBSSports.com. He also won the assistant of the year award from FOX broadcaster and Hall of Fame quarterback Terry Bradshaw.

Supporting the Bengals' run to the 2009 AFC North championship, the defense ranked No. 4 in the NFL (301.4 yards allowed per game) and led the team to a No. 6 ranking in scoring defense (18.2).

Zimmer is in his 18th season as an NFL coach, and 2011 marks his 12th straight year as a coordinator. He was Dallas defensive coordinator from 2000-06, including four years ('03-06) under head coach Bill Parcells. Zimmer moved to the Atlanta Falcons as coordinator in 2007 and signed with the Bengals on Jan. 15, 2008.

Zimmer joined the NFL with Dallas in 1994, working his first six seasons as secondary coach.

He led top-10 defenses for Dallas in both the 4-3 and 3-4 schemes. His 4-3 defenses finished No. 4 in net yards allowed (287.4) in 2001 and No. 1 in '03 (253.5). And in 2005, Zimmer installed a 3-4 scheme, marking the Cowboys' first departure from the 4-3 since the club was founded in 1960. In that transition year, Dallas finished 10th in the NFL in total defense.

Six times during Zimmer's tenure as secondary coach and coordinator, the Cowboys finished fifth or better in the NFL in scoring defense. The No. 1-ranked yardage defense that he coordinated in 2003 was No. 2 in league scoring defense (16.3). Three of those Dallas defenses led the NFL in fewest passing yards. Also during that tenure, Zimmer guided the careers of eight defensive players who made a combined total of 23 Pro Bowl appearances.

Zimmer earned a Super Bowl ring as secondary coach with the 1995 Cowboys team that defeated Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX. One of Zimmer's players, unheralded CB Larry Brown, won the game's MVP award with a pair of interceptions.

Zimmer coached 15 years in the college ranks before joining the Cowboys, working at Missouri, Weber State and Washington State.

Zimmer was born on June 5, 1956, in Peoria, Ill. He played QB and later LB at Illinois State. He has three children — son Adam and daughters Corri and Marki. Adam Zimmer earned a Super Bowl ring in 2009 as defensive assistant/linebackers coach for the New Orleans Saints. Mike's father, Bill, made the Illinois Hall of Fame as a prep football and wrestling coach.

Vikki Zimmer, Mike's wife of 27 years, passed away in Cincinnati on Oct. 8, 2009. The Pro Football Writers of America recognized Zimmer's ordeal, and the defense's strong 2009 performance, by voting him the organization's '09 Halas Award, which goes annually to the individual in the NFL who overcame the most adversity to succeed.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1974-76: Played QB and later LB at Illinois State. 1979-80: Assistant coach (AC), Missouri. 1981-82: AC, Weber State. 1983-88: Defensive coordinator, Weber State. 1989-93: Defensive coordinator, Washington State. 1994-99: AC, Dallas Cowboys. 2000-06: Defensive coordinator, Dallas Cowboys. 2007: Defensive coordinator, Atlanta Falcons. 2008-present: Defensive coordinator, Bengals.

HOLD THAT LINE

Over Games 5-12 of the 2009 season, the Bengals set a franchise record by holding eight straight opponents under the 100-yard mark in rushing.

Prior to 2009, the franchise record for consecutive games in this category was six, and that spanned two seasons (1981-82). The previous record for one season was five straight games, set in 1983.

JIM ANDERSON — Running Backs

Jim Anderson is in his 28th year as Bengals running backs coach. He is the only Bengal to log even as many as 20 seasons as a position coach, coordinator and/or head coach. This year he ties former strength and conditioning coach Kim Wood for most Bengals seasons in any full coaching staff role.

Anderson has coached a long line of Bengals running backs to outstanding performances, with five earning spots in the Pro Bowl. And over the past three seasons, he guided a notable comeback for Cedric Benson, a high first-round draft pick who had struggled to break through in three seasons with Chicago.

Benson finished 2010 with 13 games of 100 or more rushing yards in 40 career Bengals starts (including postseason). That's a ratio of one 100-yarder for every 3.08 starts, the best mark in franchise history. (Rudi Johnson is second at 3.16). Benson posted his second straight 1000-yard season in 2010, gaining 1111, and he posted career highs in TDs (eight) and receptions (28).

Among current NFL position coaches, Anderson has the most years with his team. He joined the Bengals in 1984, after 13 seasons as a college coach. He has worked under five Bengals head coaches — Sam Wyche, Dave Shula, Bruce Coslet, Dick LeBeau and Marvin Lewis.

Anderson has been the coach in charge of nearly every running back listed in the Bengals record book. The top 14 individual rushing seasons in Bengals history have all been accomplished by backs coached by Anderson, and his roster of Pro Bowl backs includes:

► James Brooks (played 1984-91, four Pro Bowls): Amassed 6447 yards with an average of 4.8 yards per carry, and he was one of the best receiving RBs in NFL history, with 297 catches for 3012 yards as a Bengal.

► Harold Green (played 1990-95, one Pro Bowl): Ranks fifth in Bengals rushing yards (3727) and made the Pro Bowl after the '92 season with 1170 yards and a 4.4 average.

► Corey Dillon (played 1997-2003, three Pro Bowls): Leads Bengals in all-time rushing yards (8061) and held one of the NFL's glamour records when he rushed for then-league best 278 yards vs. Denver in 2000.

► Lorenzo Neal (played 2001-02): Earned his first Pro Bowl berth in '02, as lead blocker for Corey Dillon's 1311 rushing yards.

► Rudi Johnson (played 2001-07, one Pro Bowl): Johnson owns the two top rushing seasons in Bengals history (1458 and 1454 yards), and his 4221 yards over 2004-06 are the most by any Bengal in a three-year span.

Anderson is also one of the coaches behind the NFL's top team rushing performance in the last 60 years. On Oct. 22, 2000, when Corey Dillon rushed for 278 yards vs. Denver, the team gained 407 on the ground. It's the fifth-most rushing yards in NFL history and stands entering 2011 as the most since 1950, when the N.Y. Giants gained 423 against Baltimore.

Anderson also coached Ickey Woods, who was a league-wide sensation as a rookie in 1988 before having his career derailed by a knee injury in '89.

Anderson's troops won NFL rushing titles in 1988 and '89, and won the AFC rushing crown in '86. From 1986-90, the Bengals finished 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing.

Anderson's coaching excellence was recognized following the 2001 season when he was interviewed for the Stanford University head coaching job. Anderson was on the Stanford coaching staff from 1980-83.

Anderson was born March 27, 1948, in Harrisburg, Pa. He graduated from Cal Western with a degree in physical education, and has a lifetime teaching certificate in California. Jim and his wife, Marcia, have a son, Derek.

KYLE CASKEY — Offensive Quality Control

Kyle Caskey is in his second season on the Bengals coaching staff, handling the duties of offensive quality control coach. He also works closely with assistant head coach Paul Alexander in directing the offensive line.

Caskey came to Cincinnati from the University of Mississippi, where he served in 2009 as a defensive assistant working with safeties and quality control. In addition to his on-field work, he handled all opponent offensive breakdowns and scouting report materials.

Caskey entered college coaching in 2004 at Louisiana-Monroe as a graduate assistant. He coached safeties in 2004 and linebackers in '05. In 2005, the Warhawks were Sun Belt Conference co-champions.

From 2006-08, Caskey was at Indiana State. In 2008, he coached the TEs and RBs while also serving as recruiting coordinator. The '08 ISU recruit class was ranked seventh among NCAA FCS teams by Rivals.com. He was TE/WRs coach at Indiana State in 2006, and was defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator in '07.

He has earned a bachelor's degree in industrial distribution from Texas A&M, and he holds master's degrees from both A&M (agribusiness) and Louisiana-Monroe (instructional technology).

Caskey is married (wife Kayla), and his hometown is Daingerfield, Texas. He played tight end at Texas A&M in 1997-98, and while he was on the team, the Aggies won a Big 12 championship (1998) and played in the Cotton and Sugar bowls.

He was a four-year Aggie letterman in track and field from 1999-2002, including 2000 All-Big 12 honors in the discus. He earned Big 12 All-Academic honors three times — in 2000, '01 and '02.

KEVIN COYLE — Defensive Backs

Kevin Coyle returns for his 11th season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2011. He is in his ninth year as defensive backs coach, directing a unit that has proved one of the team's more consistent strengths in recent years.

During the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-10) — coinciding with Coyle's 2003 promotion from cornerbacks coach to secondary coach — the Bengals have snagged 150 interceptions, fifth-most in the NFL. Of those 150 picks, 125 have been collected by defensive backs.

Last season was a particularly challenging one for Coyle, as five veteran defensive backs due for starting jobs or significant reserve roles wound up being placed on the Reserve/Injured list. The five players — S Chris Crocker, CB Adam Jones, S Chinedum Ndukwe, CB Morgan Trent and S Gibril Wilson — missed a combined total of 46 games. Three other DBs saw their seasons ended prematurely by injuries or illness, bringing the total to eight.

Also hampered by injuries, though not placed on a reserve list, were No. 1 LCB Johnathan Joseph and No. 1 SS Roy Williams.

With spots open to fill, Coyle guided solid performances out of newcomers Reggie Nelson (S) and Jonathan Wade (CB), while continuing the development of second-year pro Rico Murray (CB).

The continuing standout in Coyle's stable has been No. 1 RCB Leon Hall, thought by many in the Bengals camp to be long overdue for Pro Bowl recognition. Also last season, Coyle helped guide a productive return to NFL play for CB Adam Jones, prior to Jones' season-ending injury after five games. Jones proved to be an explosive force and a solid team influence after sitting out the 2009 season.

In 2009, working with a healthier unit, Coyle directed a group that helped fuel the team's capture of the AFC North Division title. The Bengals finished sixth in the NFL in net pass defense and fourth in overall defense.

In 2005, Coyle oversaw a 10-INT season by CB Deltha O'Neal, the highest individual total in Bengals history. O'Neal was voted to the Pro Bowl, and Bengals DBs had 23 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 31 INTs on the year. O'Neal was the second DB under Coyle to make the Pro Bowl, as CB Tory James earned the honor in 2004, when he had eight INTs.

This is Coyle's 35th year in coaching, including one in high school, 23 in college and 11 in the NFL. He began his college tenure in 1978 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati. In his last 10 seasons before joining the Bengals, he was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at three Division I college programs — Syracuse, Maryland and Fresno State.

At Fresno State, Coyle's defenses produced three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference players in both '99 and '00, best in the league both years.

At Maryland, Coyle oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Terrapins' defense, steadily guiding a program that had struggled prior to his arrival.

At Syracuse (1991-93), Coyle's '92 defense led the nation in interceptions (24) and set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed (1007) in an 11-game season.

Coyle was at Holy Cross from 1982-90. During his five years as coordinator, Holy Cross was the winningest Division I-AA team in the nation (49-5-1).

Six players from Coyle's Fresno State defenses went on to play in the NFL, including three defensive backs. At Maryland, Coyle coached future NFL cornerbacks Chad Scott and Lewis Sanders. At Syracuse, he coached future NFL standout safety Donovan Darius.

Coyle has been active in the community, speaking to emotionally troubled patients at Cincinnati's Children's Hospital, as well as speaking at schools on behalf of the D.A.R.E. program. He also coordinates the annual Youth Coaches Clinic sponsored by the Marvin Lewis Community Fund.

Coyle was born Jan. 14, 1956, in Staten Island, N.Y. He and his wife, Louise, have a daughter, Jenlain, age 18.

JEFF FITZGERALD — Linebackers

Jeff Fitzgerald, an 18-year veteran in NFL coaching, returns for his fourth season on the Bengals staff in 2011. Over his first three years, Cincinnati's defense has improved notably, and the linebackers have played a key role.

Last season was a "trifecta" year for the linebackers in the team tackling totals, as starters Dhani Jones, Keith Rivers and Rey Maualuga finished 1-2-3 on the squad. FitzGerald has developed some of the club's most crucial young talent while also showing a knack for getting the most from a veteran.

MLB Jones, who played his 11th NFL season in 2010, led the team in tackles (160) for the third straight season.

Also last season, WLB Rivers was second with 95 tackles, despite playing nearly the full year with a painful foot condition (plantar fasciitis). Maualuga, who showed progress at SLB during his second season, will switch to MLB under FitzGerald's guidance in 2011.

FitzGerald's tenure has also coincided with the development of LB Brandon Johnson. Arriving in Cincinnati in 2008 after a sluggish NFL start with Arizona, the former fifth-round draft choice has played every Cincinnati game with 15 starts over three seasons, with productive totals in all areas.

FitzGerald directed Baltimore's talented LB corps from 2004-07, and in '06, he became only the second LB coach in NFL history to have four of his players named to the Pro Bowl in the same season. The four Ravens LBs named to the Pro Bowl for the 2006 season were Ray Lewis, Bart Scott, Terrell Suggs and Adalius Thomas.

FitzGerald has become known on the Bengals practice field for setting an upbeat tempo.

"I like to move around fast at practice," he says. "I like my players to move fast. I like a lot of energy."

FitzGerald's birthdate is April 18, 1960. He is a native of Burbank, Calif. He played LB at Oregon State and became a college coach in 1985 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati. He began his NFL career with Tampa Bay in 1990, spending four seasons during which he worked with defensive backs and special teams. Also at Tampa Bay, he worked in computer and video operations, two areas in which he has become known for his expertise.

FitzGerald has also helped develop and coach the LB drills at the annual NFL Scouting Combine for the last 13 years.

A professionally trained race driver, FitzGerald enjoys spending his time off instructing new drivers throughout the country with the Richard Petty Driving Experience. He also has traveled widely, including Korea, Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, Indonesia and throughout Europe.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY —1980:

FLB at Oregon State before suffering knee injury.

1981-83: Attended Cal State-Northridge (did not play football). 1981-84: Assistant coach (AC) at John Burroughs High School (1981-82) and Burbank (Calif.) High School ('83-84), while completing undergraduate studies at Cal State-Northridge. 1985: Graduate AC, Univ. of Cincinnati. 1986-87: Graduate AC, Univ. of Alabama. 1988-89: AC, Alabama. 1990-93: AC, Tampa Bay Buccaneers. 1994-97: AC, San Diego State. 1998-99: AC, Washington Redskins. 2000-03: AC, Arizona Cardinals. 2004-07: AC, Baltimore Ravens. 2008-present: AC, Bengals.

JEFF FRIDAY – Assistant Strength & Conditioning

Jeff Friday is in his second season as Bengals assistant strength and conditioning coach. He is in his 14th NFL season, including nine seasons (1999-2007) as head S/C coach of the Baltimore Ravens.

His tenure with the Ravens included a Super Bowl championship in the 2000 season, when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by a national vote of his peers.

In Cincinnati, Friday is reunited with Chip Morton, Bengals head strength and conditioning coach since 2003. Morton worked in Baltimore as an assistant under Friday from 1999-2001.

"It's clear Jeff has proven his ability at the NFL level and we are fortunate to have him on board," Morton said. "He knows how to manage and direct players. I've known Jeff since the mid-'90s and I have all the respect in the world for how he does the job."

Marvin Lewis, Bengals head coach, was defensive coordinator in Baltimore during Friday's first three seasons with the Ravens.

Friday began his coaching career in 1990-91 as a graduate assistant S/C coach at Illinois State. He was assistant S/C coach at Northwestern from 1992-95, and in '96, he entered the NFL as assistant S/C coach for the Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings made the playoffs in each of his three seasons.

In 2008, Friday started his own sports training business, and in '09, he was a consultant to the United Football League, supervising the league's strength and conditioning program and assisting in the hiring of head strength coaches.

Friday is a native of Milwaukee, Wis. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a master's degree in exercise science from Illinois State.

He holds numerous professional certifications, including: Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Certified Level 1 Strength Coach by the United States Weightlifting Federation, Certified Practitioner by the National Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork, Certified Active Release Technique (ART) Provider, and Functional Movement Screen (FMS) Certified Specialist.

Jeff and his wife, Jennifer, have two children — daughter Hailey and son Aidan.

PAUL GUENTHER – Asst. Special Teams/Asst. Def. Backs

Paul Guenther is in his seventh season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2011, and this season he takes on a new assignment. While continuing to serve as assistant special teams coach, he will work with defensive backs Kevin Coyle in the secondary.

From 2006-10, in addition to his special teams duties, Guenther assisted with the linebackers.

Guenther also has helped raise the standard of the overall defense in the past three seasons, working with coordinator Mike Zimmer in constructing each week's game plan.

Bengals.com has reported that "Guenther is going to have a big say in how the picture looks on third down, as his role expands in game-planning the passing downs. He had already been doing some of that, working on various blitzes with defensive coordinator Mike Zimmer."

"I like working with Zim because he's so aggressive and likes to be on the cutting edge," Guenther says. "It's important to understand the whole concept. What kind of routes are they running against the pressures? What are the protection schemes against the pressures we run? How does it affect the DBs? Get them to understand how they react as well."

In 2010, Guenther contributed to a "trifecta" year for the linebackers in the team tackling totals, as starters Dhani Jones, Keith Rivers and Rey Maualuga finished 1-2-3 on the squad.

Jones, who played his 11th NFL season in 2010, led the team in tackles (160) for the third straight season. WLB Rivers was second with 95 tackles, despite playing nearly the full year with a painful foot condition (plantar fasciitis). Maualuga, who showed progress at SLB during his second season, will switch to MLB in 2011.

Working with special teams, Guenther helped Cincinnati lead the NFL in punt coverage last season, with an average yield of only 4.8 yards on 26 opponent returns. No foe had a return of longer than 20 yards. The 4.8 mark was third-best in franchise history and the best since the strike-shortened season of 1982, when opponents averaged a record-low 4.0 in only nine games.

Guenther (pronounced "GUN-thur") was offensive assistant on the Washington Redskins staff from 2002-03. Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis was one of his associates in 2002, serving as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator of the Redskins. Guenther's primary position assignment with the Redskins was running backs.

From 1997-2000, Guenther was head coach at Ursinus College, an NCAA Division III school in Collegeville, Pa. He was the youngest head coach in college football in '97, at age 25, and he led the team to the playoffs in '99 and 2000.

His 1999 team finished 10-2, advancing to the second round of the playoffs. The 10 wins was a school record, and the team broke most of the offensive and defensive marks in the school record book.

Guenther began his coaching career from 1994-95 at Western Maryland. He was an assistant at Ursinus in 1996, moved to Jacksonville University as defensive coordinator in '97, and returned to Ursinus that same year.

Guenther was born Nov. 22, 1971. His hometown is Richboro, Pa. He played LB in college at Ursinus, setting a school career tackles record (355) while three times earning all-conference honors.

He received his undergraduate degree in communications from Ursinus in 1994, and a master's degree in sports administration from Western Maryland in '97.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY—1990-93: Played LB at Ursinus College. 1994-95: Assistant coach (AC), Western Maryland. 1996: AC, Ursinus. 1997: Defensive coordinator, Jacksonville Univ. 1997-2001: Head coach, Ursinus. 2002-03: AC, Washington Redskins. 2005-present: AC, Bengals.

COOMBS RETURNS AS COACHING ASSISTANT

Brayden Coombs is in his second season as a coaching assistant with the Bengals. Coombs played WR, DB and kick returner at Miami (Ohio), completing his college career in 2009. He is a Cincinnati native (Colerain High School). He is the son of Kerry Coombs, associate head coach/special team coordinator/defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati.

JAY HAYES — Defensive Line

Jay Hayes, a 23-year veteran of major college and NFL coaching, is in his ninth season as Bengals defensive line coach. In 2010, Hayes weathered some significant injury problems in his unit and guided the development of some of the team's most promising young players.

By season's end, the spotlight was on DE Carlos Dunlap, Cincinnati's second-round draft choice. Dunlap opened the year as the team's youngest player, in need of some NFL maturity, and he was held back in the early going by a knee strain. But he was one of the NFL's top pass rushers in the season's second half, posting a Bengals rookie-record 9.5 sacks in the final eight games, with 8.5 sacks in the final six contests. He finished second among NFL rookies in sacks, just a half-sack behind Detroit DT Ndamukong Suh, who was drafted 52 spots sooner and played considerably more snaps.

Also showing strong potential in 2010 were third-year DT Pat Sims, second-year DE Michael Johnson and rookie DT Geno Atkins. Their contributions were much needed, as the Bengals had four veteran linemen go to the Reserve/Injured list during the season. Starting DE Antwan Odom was limited to four games and starting DT Tank Johnson played only seven. And two veteran DEs due for significant playing time — Jonathan Fanene and Frostee Rucker — missed 19 games between them.

Meanwhile, mainstays Domata Peko at NT and Robert Geathers at LDE made steady contributions, each starting every game.

Hayes works with various options of line combinations, as game situations dictate.

"It's my job to pick somebody to get a spark, so we can have the chemistry and keep it running hot," Hayes says. "We want to keep getting after people and not let them find room to breathe. If we can continue doing that, we can be successful."

Hayes came to the Bengals from the Minnesota Vikings, where he was special teams coach in 2002. The '02 Vikings tied for fifth in the NFL in punt coverage.

Hayes was special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2001. In 1999, under Hayes' direction, Steelers rookie kicker Kris Brown set an NFL record for most consecutive field goals made to start a career (13).

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks with the Steelers, Hayes coached 11 years at the major college level — at Notre Dame, California and Wisconsin.

He began his coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and for the next three seasons, he coached outside linebackers and special teams for the Irish. He moved to California as outside linebackers coach in 1992, and he also held that job in '93 before adding special teams responsibilities in '94.

Hayes' last college assignment before entering the NFL was from 1995-98 at Wisconsin, where he was outside linebackers and special teams coach. Hayes' Badgers were consistently among the top special teams units in the Big Ten.

Hayes played DE at the University of Idaho and earned all-conference honors in 1980 and '81. He spent some time in NFL camps before moving on to play in the USFL, for the Michigan Panthers in 1984 and the Memphis Showboats in '85.

Hayes' younger brother, Jonathan, is Bengals tight ends coach.

Hayes was born March 3, 1960 in Pittsburgh, and attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife have three children. In February of this year, his son Jesse, a defensive end, was awarded a football scholarship at Wisconsin.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1978-81: Played defensive end at Univ. of Idaho. 1984: Def. end, Michigan Panthers (USFL). 1985: Defensive end, Memphis Showboats (USFL). 1988-91: Assistant coach (AC), Notre Dame. 1992-94: AC, California. 1995-98: AC, Wisconsin. 1999-2001: AC, Pittsburgh Steelers. 2002: AC, Minnesota Vikings. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

JONATHAN HAYES — Tight Ends

Jonathan Hayes, an NFL tight end for 12 seasons, returns for his ninth year as Bengals tight ends coach in 2011.

Last season, Hayes was handed a crucial assignment — the development of Cincinnati's No. 1 draft pick Jermaine Gresham. The results were more than encouraging:

► Gresham's 52 catches tied for the lead among AFC rookies and tied for third among NFL rookies. His total was a Bengals rookie TE record, topping the mark of 44 set by Tony McGee in 1993. He tied 2011 teammate Jordan Shipley for the most catches by any Bengals rookie since 1985.

► Gresham's 471 receiving yards were the most by any Bengals TE since 1995.

► His four TD catches tied the most by any Bengals tight end since 1998 and were the most ever by a Bengals rookie playing strictly TE.

► The 260-pounder displayed consistent effort and great potential as an NFL blocker.

Veteran Reggie Kelly returned to the Bengals TE lineup last season, after missing all of 2009 with an injury, and together with Gresham, he helped the offense rank second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed per passing play. Opponents totaled only 28 sacks in 618 passing plays, an average of one every 22.07 plays.

The Bengals did not allow a sack for 100 consecutive passing plays to close the season. The streak of 100 began in the fourth quarter of Game 13 and continued through the final three games.

And twice since 2005, the tight ends' blocking has helped Cincinnati set a club record for fewest sacks allowed. A record of 21 was set in 2005, and that mark was re-written at 17 in '07.

The tight ends' run blocking helped HB Cedric Benson to a second consecutive 1000-yard season in 2010. Benson finished with 1111 yards and scored a career-high eight TDs.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Hayes spent four years (1999-2002) at the University of Oklahoma as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He helped the Sooners to a four-year record of 44-9, including a 13-0 mark in 2000 for the NCAA championship.

Under Hayes' tutelage, tight end Trent Smith finished his Oklahoma career in 2002 as the school's No. 2 all-time receiver, with 148 catches. Also in 2002, Sooners special teams blocked seven kicks and had three punt returns for TDs.

Hayes began his NFL playing career in 1985 with the Kansas City Chiefs, as a second-round draft pick out of Iowa. He played for the Chiefs through 1993, serving as a team captain, and closed his NFL career with three seasons in Pittsburgh ('94-'96). He had 153 career receptions for 1718 yards with 13 TDs.

He saw action in 184 NFL games with 122 starts, and he played all 16 games in each of his final six seasons. He played in three AFC Championship games and a Super Bowl (for Pittsburgh vs. Dallas in SB XXX).

At the University of Iowa, he earned first-team All-America honors as a senior TE and was a team captain. He holds a degree from Iowa in general studies.

Hayes' older brother, Jay, is Bengals defensive line coach.

Hayes' hometown is South Fayette, Pa. He attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife have four children.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1981-84: Played linebacker and tight end at Iowa. 1985-93: NFL tight end, Kansas City Chiefs. 1994-96: NFL tight end, Pittsburgh Steelers. 1999-2002: Assistant coach (AC), Univ. of Oklahoma. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

DAVID LIPPINCOTT — Defensive Quality Control

David Lippincott takes on a Bengals full staff position in 2011, serving as defensive quality control coach. From 2008-10, he was in a support role as a coaching assistant.

In 2011, he will handle video breakdowns and game plan preparation, and he also will have on-field duties with front-seven players.

As a Bengals coaching assistant, his duties included advance scouting and coaching wide receivers, as well as game preparation. His 2009 work contributed to the Bengals' second AFC North Division title during the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis.

Prior to joining the Bengals, he coached in college for three seasons at Bluffton University (2000-02), two seasons at Minnesota (2003-04) and three seasons at Richmond (2005-07). He worked with all three defensive position groups — line, linebackers and defensive backs — over the course of his college seasons.

During his two seasons at Minnesota, when he worked as a graduate assistant on defense, the Gophers posted wins in the Sun and Music City bowls.

At Richmond, where he was assistant defensive line coach, the team won an Atlantic 10 title in 2005 and a Colonial Athletic Association crown in '07. The 2005 team was a quarterfinalist in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, and the '07 team was a semifinalist in the (re-named) FCS division.

Lippincott is a Cincinnati native — a graduate of Moeller High School and the University of Dayton.

COACHING HISTORY — 2000-02: Assistant coach (AC), Bluffton. 2003-04: Graduate assistant, University of Minnesota. 2005-07: AC, Richmond. 2008-10: Coaching assistant, Bengals. 2011: Defensive quality control coach, Bengals.

CHIP MORTON — Strength & Conditioning

Chip Morton is in his ninth season as Bengals strength and conditioning coach. He has established a program that has featured frequent innovations while maintaining fundamental disciplines.

Morton and his staff emphasize a comprehensive and progressive year-round training program for players. Every offseason, they evaluate the previous year's body of work and adjust their plan to help the team reach its goals. In this way, new concepts and techniques are regularly employed to improve the quality and diversity of the program.

At the very core of the Bengals program lies a foundation of traditional training principles, with an emphasis on teaching, effort and accountability. Morton and assistant S/C coach Jeff Friday both have coached on teams that have reached the Super Bowl.

"Under Chip's direction, our strength and conditioning program remains on the cutting edge of training techniques and philosophy," says head coach Marvin Lewis. "I am very pleased with the outcome, using this program to both improve our players' football performances and to increase their resistance to injuries."

Morton was a coaching colleague of Lewis with the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, serving as Ravens assistant strength and conditioning coach, and he was with Lewis in '02 at Washington, serving as head strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins.

Morton is in his 20th NFL season, having also served as strength and conditioning assistant at San Diego from 1992-94 and as head strength and conditioning coach at Carolina from '95-98. He has coached with two Super Bowl teams — the 1994 Chargers and the 2000 World Champion Ravens.

He started his career in the collegiate ranks, serving as assistant strength coach at Ohio State (1985-86) while completing his master's degree in physical education. He moved to Penn State in 1987 as the first-ever full-time strength and conditioning assistant for the Nittany Lions football team. He also worked with 14 other men's and women's sports during his five years (1987-91) at Penn State.

Morton's hometown is Hamden, Conn. He graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1985 with a degree in zoology, where he also earned a varsity letter in swimming.

Continuing education has always been a hallmark of Morton's coaching career. He has been a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (C.S.C.S.) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1990. In 2006, he became the first NFL strength coach to receive the Russian Kettlebell Instructor's Certification (RKC), and in '08, he was certified as a Level I coach in the Baitling Ropes training system.

Chip is married, and he and his wife have seven children.

DARRIN SIMMONS — Special Teams

Darrin Simmons is in his ninth season as Bengals special teams coach. In 2010, he directed the NFL's top punt coverage unit, guided a strong comeback by a veteran placekicker and continued getting positive yardage on punt returns, with no turnovers.

Cincinnati led the NFL in punt coverage for the season's final five weeks and finished with an average yield of only 4.8 yards on 26 opponent returns. No foe had a return of longer than 20 yards. The 4.8 mark was third-best in franchise history and the best since the strike-shortened season of 1982, when opponents averaged a record-low 4.0 in only nine games.

The Bengals were in the market for a new placekicker last season and got maximum dividends from the signing of Mike Nugent from the free agent ranks. Nugent's season ended prematurely, due to a knee injury in Week 9, but he earned an AFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award when he scored all Cincinnati's points in a 15-10 win over Baltimore, and he was AFC Special Teamer of the Month for September.

A two-time 100-point producer for the N.Y. Jets, Nugent had seen his fortunes dip in 2008-09. He was injured for nearly all of 2008, and in '09, he did not stick in stints at Tampa Bay and Arizona.

"I've become a better kicker working with Darrin," Nugent said. "I was open to some ideas, and Darrin led me to change how I position the ball for field goals and PATs. It gave me more consistency."

Quan Cosby, a 2009 undrafted free agent signee, has developed under Simmons into a solid punt returner. He has averaged 10.0 yards over the last two seasons while handling 114 opportunities (70 returns and 44 fair catches) without a turnover via muff or fumble.

Simmons' Bengals special teams have shown a nose for the ball, forcing 22 fumbles in his eight completed seasons. That's nearly three times the total (eight) for the eight seasons prior to his tenure.

Simmons coached all seven of Shayne Graham's seasons as Bengals kicker (2003-09). Graham's 86.8 accuracy percentage on field goals is the franchise career record.

Simmons entered the NFL in the 1998 season on the same Baltimore Ravens staff as Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis, who was Ravens defensive coordinator at the time. Simmons was assistant special teams coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Ravens, and he held that same role for the Carolina Panthers from 1999-2002. He joined the Bengals in 2003.

A former college punter himself, Simmons played an integral role at Carolina in the development of Todd Sauerbrun as one of the NFL's top punters of the time.

Simmons began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kansas University in 1996. He moved to the University of Minnesota in 1997.

Simmons punted in college for Kansas from 1993-95, earning All-Big Eight honors his final year. As a senior, he helped the Jayhawks to a top 10 national ranking and to an Aloha Bowl victory over UCLA. Also as a Kansas senior, he won honors as an academic All-American.

Prior to playing for Kansas, Simmons was a punter and QB for Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. In 1992 at Dodge City, he led the nation's junior colleges in punting and was a first-team JUCO All-American.

Simmons earned a degree in sports management from Kansas in 1996.

Born April 9, 1973, in Elkhart, Kan., he graduated from Elkhart High School. He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter and two sons.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1991-92: Played quarterback and punter at Dodge City (Kan.)

Community College. 1993-95: Punter, University of Kansas. 1996: Graduate assistant coach, Kansas. 1997: Assistant coach (AC), University of Minnesota. 1998: AC, Baltimore Ravens. 1999-2002: AC, Carolina Panthers. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

JAMES URBAN — Wide Receivers

James Urban, quarterbacks coach the last two seasons for the Philadelphia Eagles, joins the Bengals staff in 2011 as wide receivers coach. In Philadelphia in 2009 and '10, Urban helped direct Pro Bowl seasons for high-profile QBs Donovan McNabb and Michael Vick.

Last season, as the Eagles (10-6) won the NFC East championship, Vick earned accolades as the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year and was the NFC starter in the Pro Bowl. Vick ranked fourth in NFL passer rating (100.2), his highest mark by far for a season with significant playing time. His previous high had been 81.6 for Atlanta in 2002.

Despite missing four games for the Eagles last season, Vick posted his first 3000-yard passing season (3018). He achieved career season-highs in completion percentage (62.6), yards per attempt (8.1), TD passes (21) and TD-INT differential (plus-15), and he also led all NFL quarterbacks in rushing yards (676).

In '09, Urban helped integrate three quarterbacks into the Eagles offensive scheme. McNabb posted a 92.9 passer rating en route to the Pro Bowl, and when he missed two games with an injury, Kevin Kolb became the first player in NFL history to pass for 300+ yards in each of his first two career starts. Kolb passed for 391 yards vs. New Orleans and for 327 vs. Kansas City, when he led a 34-14 Eagles win with a 120.6 rating. Also in '09, Urban worked with Vick in situational roles.

"I am very excited to be able to bring James to Cincinnati to work with our receivers," said head coach Marvin Lewis. "He brings us a wealth of knowledge in an offensive system very similar to what (new offensive coordinator) Jay Gruden is installing for us. This is a very good fit for our team."

Last season was Urban's seventh overall with the Eagles. He was assistant to the head coach from 2004-06 and was offensive quality control coach in 2007 and '08. During his seven Philadelphia seasons, the Eagles earned five playoff berths and won three division titles. He first worked with the Eagles in 2003, serving as a coaching intern while employed full-time at the University of Pennsylvania.

A native of Mechanicsburg, Pa., Urban played in college at Washington and Lee (Lexington, Va.) as a wide receiver and kick returner. He worked for seven years in the college ranks — at Clarion (Pa.) University and at Penn — before joining the Eagles.

James and his wife, Patrice, have two daughters, Brielle and Cassidy, and a son, Jameson. He holds a bachelor's degree in English from Washington and Lee and a master's degree in communications from Clarion.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY—1992-95:

Played WR at Washington & Lee. 1997-98: Assistant coach (AC), Clarion. 1999-2003: Director of football administration/operations, Pennsylvania. 2004-10: AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 2011: Joins Bengals as WRs coach.

KEN ZAMPESE — Quarterbacks

Ken Zampese is in his ninth season as Bengals quarterbacks coach. After guiding Carson Palmer to the ranks of the Bengals' all-time top passers, Zampese faces a new assignment in 2011 with rookie Andy Dalton and veteran Bruce Gradkowski as the team's top QB candidates.

Palmer finished 2010 as the Bengals' all-time leader in passer rating (86.9), completion percentage (62.9) and TD-to-INT ratio (1.5-to-1). He also set season records for completions (373), passing yards (4131), TD passes (32) and passer rating (101.1), and he holds the club mark for TD passes in a game (six).

In 2003, his first season with the Bengals, Zampese had success with a veteran starting quarterback in Jon Kitna. The '03 campaign saw Kitna post career highs at that point in completions (324), passing yards (3591), TD passes (26), completion percentage (62.3) and rating (87.4).

Zampese (pronounced "zam-PEE-zee") came to the Bengals following three seasons (2000-02) in St. Louis. With the Rams, he had an expanding role with a passing offense that ranked among the NFL's most prolific.

Zampese joined the Rams in 2000 as an offensive assistant. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2001, and the Rams led the league in passing yards for a second straight year, averaging 291.4. In 2002, he added the title of passing game coach, and the Rams finished second in the league at 259.6 yards per game.

Zampese began his NFL career in 1998 as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles under head coach Ray Rhodes. He moved with Rhodes to Green Bay in 1999 before beginning his stint with the Rams.

Prior to entering the NFL, Zampese coached for nine years in college. He had one Cincinnati-area assignment, as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1996-97 at Miami (Ohio). In 1997, Miami averaged 37.4 points per game.

Zampese played wide receiver and kick returner at the University of San Diego from 1985-88. He was the team's Special Teams Player of the Year as a senior. He earned an undergraduate degree in business from San Diego, and later received a master's degree in adult education from Southern California.

Zampese was born July 19, 1967, in Santa Maria, Calif. He and his wife have two children. Ken's father, Ernie Zampese, was a longtime NFL offensive coordinator who coached on a Super Bowl winner with the 1995 Cowboys, and he also coached for the Chargers, Rams and Patriots.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1985-

88: Played wide receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner at University of San Diego. 1989: Assistant coach (AC), University of San Diego. 1990-91: AC, Southern California. 1992-94: AC, Northern Arizona. 1995: Offensive coordinator, Northern Arizona. 1996-97: AC, Miami (Ohio). 1998: AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 1999: AC, Green Bay Packers. 2000-02: AC, St. Louis Rams. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

TOP SUPERLATIVE? RUN THE BALL!

In 2010, NFL teams with a 100-yard rusher in a game posted an 87-34 record (.719), a winning percentage that rated higher than clubs boasting either a 100-yard receiver (.538; 92-79) or a 300-yard passer (.490; 47-49). It marked the third time in the past four seasons that NFL clubs with 100-yard rushers in a game registered a winning percentage above .700, a mark not reached by teams with 100-yard receivers or 300-yard passers in each of the past five seasons.

CEDRIC BENSON

Halfback

32

Ht: 5-11

Wt: 227

7th year in NFL

College: Texas

2010 Games-Starts: 16-16

Career Games-Starts: 76-51

Acquired: FA'08

Born: 12-28-82

Seventh-year pro is in his fourth Bengals season, having re-signed with Cincinnati from unrestricted free agent ranks on 8-3-11 ... Has led Cincinnati in rushing and in yards from scrimmage in each of his first three campaigns ... Holds Bengals records for most 100-yard rushing games in a season (six, 2009) and most rushing yards in a postseason game (169 in '10 playoffs vs. Jets) ... Started 16 games for the first time in his career last season and led team in rushing yards, with 1111 on career-high 321 carries ... Finished second on team with career-high eight TDs (seven rushing, one receiving) ... Also scored a two-point conversion ... Had career-high 28 receptions, for 178 yards, with first receiving TD of his career ... Was the No. 4 overall selection (by Chicago) in the 2005 draft.

BENSON'S RATIO IS BEST: Benson has 13 games of 100-plus rushing yards in 40 career Bengals starts (including postseason), and his ratio of one 100-yarder for every 3.08 starts is best in Bengals history, topping former leader Rudi Johnson (19-for-60; ratio of 3.16) ... Bengals are 10-3 with Benson rushing for 100, and team is 10-1 when Benson has had 25 carries.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Ran 23-for-78 in win Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore ... Rushed 27-for-81 and scored both Bengals TDs Sept. 26 at Carolina, finding end zone on one-yard rush in second quarter and on seven-yard catch to ice the win midway through the fourth ... His Carolina performance made him the first Bengal with rushing and receiving TDs in same game since Corey Dillon at Detroit on 10-28-01, and the receiving TD was Benson's career first ... Posted his first 100-yard rushing game of the season Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay, gaining 144 on 23 carries

(6.3 avg.) and also running for a two-point conversion in fourth quarter ... On Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo, rushed 25-for-124 (5.0.) with a TD and caught three-for-22 ... Had his first Bengals game of two rushing TDs Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans, scoring from one and four yards as he totaled 19-for-49 (2.6) ... Gained season-high 150 yards on 31 carries Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland (4.8 avg.), with an 18-yard TD run.

STILL THE MOST: On Oct. 25, 2009 vs. Chicago — the team that released him in 2008 — Benson rushed for a career-high 189 yards on 37 carries with one TD. It was, and still is entering 2011, the most rushing yards in NFL history by a player against a former team.

MORE FROM PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005— Drafted by Chicago in first round (fourth overall) ... Played in nine games with one start, missing six games with a knee injury ... Rushed 62-for-272 (4.1 avg.) ... Led team with 79 rushing yards on 14 carries on Nov. 6 at New Orleans ... Made first start the following week, Nov. 13 vs. San Francisco, and rushed 12-for-50 before suffering knee injury in second quarter ... Inactive for Games 10-15, and returned to action in season finale on 1-1-06 at Minnesota. 2006— Played in 15 regular-season games and all three postseason games as Bears won NFC North with 13-3 record and advanced to Super Bowl XLI vs. Indianapolis ... Scored six TDs while rushing for 647 yards and 4.1 avg. ... Scored his first two NFL touchdowns in win Oct. 8 vs. Buffalo ... Had his first 100-yard rushing game (13-for-109) on Dec. 31 vs. Green Bay ... Rushed 38-for-104 in three postseason games, including 24-for-60 with a 12-yard TD in NFC

Clements signed with Bengals as a free agent on 8-1-11, bringing 150 games of NFL experience with 144 starts ... One of the league's most productive corners throughout his career ... Started every game last season for San Francisco, logging 88 tackles, three interceptions, three forced fumbles, a sack and 15 total passes defended ... Has played in every game in eight of his previous 10 seasons ... Career totals include 33 INTs, 131 total passes defended, 20 forced fumbles and nine touchdowns ... A first-round draft choice of Buffalo in 2001, he played six seasons for the Bills before moving to the 49ers as an unrestricted free agent in 2007.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: His three INTs tied for 49ers' team lead, and he led team in passes defended (15) and forced fumbles (three) ... Opened his 10th NFL season with a bang, intercepting a Matt Hasselbeck pass on the first play of Sept. 12 opener at Seattle ... Had seven tackles and a 39-yard INT return on Oct. 3 at Atlanta ... On Oct. 24 at Carolina, forced a DeAngelo Williams fumble that 49ers recovered, and he also had a sack ... Intercepted Seattle's Matt Hasselbeck for the second time on the year in Dec. 12 home game.

HIGH-RANKING PLAYMAKER: Since 2002, Clements ranks sixth among NFL cornerbacks in interceptions (30) ... His 17 forced fumbles since 2004 rank second among CBs and third among all DBs ... His nine TDs since entering NFL in 2001 ranks tied for fifth among all defensive players.

A MEMORABLE FIRST: Clements logged the first of his 33 career interceptions in just his second pro game, and it was anything but routine. The quarterback in the 9-23-01 was game was Peyton Manning of Indianapolis, and Clements returned the pick 48 yards for a TD.

NINE TIMES SIX: Clements' nine career touchdowns have come on five INT returns, two punt returns and two blocked field goal attempts: 2001—48-yard INT return on Sept. 23 at Indianapolis (QB Peyton Manning) and 66-yard punt return on Nov. 4 vs. Indianapolis. 2002—29-yard INT return on Oct. 20 at Miami (QB Ray Lucas). 2003—54-yard INT return on Sept. 21 at Miami (QB Jay Fiedler). 2004—86-yard punt return on Nov. 21 vs. St. Louis and 30-yard INT return on 1-2-05 vs.

Pittsburgh (QB Tommy Maddox). 2006—58-yard INT return on Dec. 10 at N.Y. Jets (QB Chad Pennington). 2008—74-yard blocked FG return on Oct. 19 at N.Y. Giants. 2009—59-yard blocked FG return on Sept. 27 at Minnesota.

MORE FROM PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2001—

Drafted in first round by Buffalo (21st overall) ... Played every game with 11 starts, making first start on Oct. 18 at Jacksonville ... Led team with three INTs, most by a Bills rookie since 1979 ... Selected by Sports Illustrated's Peter King as NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year ... Led team in kickoff returns (30 for 20.9 avg.), and took one of his four punt returns 66 yards for a TD vs. Indianapolis.

2002—Led Bills in INTs for the second straight year, getting six (tied for his full-career high) to tie for second in AFC ... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance Oct. 20 at Miami, when he tied a Bills record with three INTs and returned one 29 yards for a TD ... Had a 42-yard INT and four total passes defended in win Dec. 29 vs. Bengals. 2003—Led Bills for third straight year in INTs (three) ... In season-opening win Sept. 7 vs. New England, he stopped a scoring threat by intercepting a Tom Brady pass in the end zone ... Had two INTs against Jay Fiedler on Sept. 21 at Miami, including a 54-yarder for a TD. 2004—Led Bills for fourth straight year in INTs (tied career high with six), and he earned Pro Bowl honors ... Had career-best five forced fumbles ... Averaged 9.3 yards on 35 punt returns, including an 86-yarder for a TD, longest of his nine career scores, on Nov. 21 vs. St. Louis ... Had 30-yard INT return for a TD in season finale vs. Pittsburgh. 2005—Posted a career-high 127 tackles while starting every Bills game ... Five games of 10 or more tackles ... Contributed an INT and a forced fumble to 20-14 win Oct. 9 vs. Miami.

2006—Logged a career-high 26 passes defended for Bills, including three INTs ... Keyed Nov. 19 win at Houston with an INT, three passes defended and a fumble recover ... Had 58-yard INT for a TD in win Nov. 10 at NY Jets. 2007—Signed March 2 with San Francisco as unrestricted free agent ... Started 16 games for the sixth consecutive season ... Tied for team lead with four INTs ... Led team in passes defended (18) and forced fumbles (three) ... Co-winner with LB Patrick Willis of Bill Walsh Award, given to team MVP ... In first career Monday Night Football appearance, on Sept. 10 vs. Arizona, he helped limit WRs Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald to combined 42 yards. 2008—Started 15 games for 49ers ... His one missed game, on Dec. 7 vs. N.Y. Jets due to thumb injury, snapped his string of 119 consecutive starts ... Seven tackles and a crucial forced fumble in overtime win Sept. 14 at Seattle ... Scored on a 74-yard blocked FG return on Oct. 19 at N.Y. Giants. 2009—Played less than 15 games for the only time in his career, limited to seven contests due to a fractured scapula suffered Nov. 1 at Indianapolis ... Career-high five passes defended on Sept. 20 vs. Seattle ... On Sept. 28 at Minnesota, returned a blocked FG attempt 59 yards for a TD.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (1998-2000) at Ohio State, entering NFL Draft after his junior season ... Saw action in 36 games with 24 starts ... Finished career with 177 tackles, seven INTs and 22 passes defended ... Also averaged 12.0 yards on 58 punt returns ... First-team All-Big Ten choice in 2000.

THE 25TH BUCKEYE?: Clements' first regular-season action with the Bengals will make him the 25th Ohio State player to claim a spot on the Bengals' all-time roster. No other school claims more than 18 Bengals all-time roster members.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Shaker Heights, Ohio (Greater Cleveland) ... Attended Shaker Heights High School, where he was a USA Today prep All-America selection ... Married (wife Melissa) ... General studies major at Ohio State ... Active in community service, he was one of the most frequent attendees in 49ers' Community Tuesdays program.

BENGALS BOAST WINNING MARK IN OVERTIME

The Bengals are 15-11-1 in regular-season overtime games, for a winning percentage of .574. Overtime was put in place for regular-season games in 1974. The Bengals have not played an overtime game in postseason.

Cincinnati's last overtime games was a 23-20 victory at Cleveland in 2009, breaking a four-game OT winless streak. In their previous four OT games, the Bengals had lost three and tied one. Their 13-13 tie in 2008 vs. Philadelphia was the NFL's first deadlocked game since 2002.

Coffman saw his first NFL action last year, playing in six games ... Progressed from his rookie year, when he split the season between inactive status and injured list ... Finished his college career as the all-time NCAA receptions leader (247) among TEs, but has faced a transition in pros due to seeing only limited work in college as a blocker.

2010 RECAP: Played in all five preseason games, with two catches for 32 yards ... Waived on Sept. 4, and signed Sept. 5 to Bengals' practice squad ... On practice squad for Games 1-8 ... Signed to 53-player roster on Nov. 9 and played in Games 9-13 and 16 ... Had his first NFL receptions (three for 30 yards) Jan. 2 at Baltimore ... Inactive for Games 14-15 (coaches' decision) ... Made NFL debut Nov. 14 at Indianapolis, seeing brief action on offense while also playing on special teams.

2009: Drafted by Bengals in third round (98th overall) ... Played in all four preseason games, with a start on Aug. 27 vs. St. Louis, and had two catches for 11 yards

... Made season-opening roster, and was inactive for Games 1-12 ... Placed Dec. 9 on Reserve/Injured list, due to developing aggravation from bone spurs in left ankle.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Missouri, seeing action in 50 games ... In addition to his NCAA-record 247 catches, he posted second-most career yards (2659) and TDs (30) by a TE ... Closed his career with a superlative senior season, catching 90-for-987 with 10 TDs, and he won John Mackey Award as nation's top TE ... Posted his senior numbers despite missing two games and part of another due to injuries.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Peculiar, Mo. ... Attended Raymore-Peculiar High School, where he earned first-team all-state honors for three seasons and led club to 13-0 record and state title season as a senior ... Also earned three prep letters in basketball, and was first-team all-conference as a junior ... Holds degree in business from Missouri, and was an All-Academic Big 12 football selection ... Younger brother, Carson, played QB at Kansas State.

Collins has contended for playing time in each of his three Bengals seasons, with 16 starts among his 32 games played ... Saw action in nine games last season, and was promoted to No. 1 ROT spot for Games 15-16 ... Helped 2010 offense rank second in AFC and sixth in NFL in fewest sacks allowed per passing play ... In 2009, helped division championship club finish ninth in NFL in rushing (128.5 yards per game) and ninth in fewest sacks allowed (29).

2010 PARTICIPATION: Missed last three pre-season games due to foot injury suffered Aug. 15 vs. Denver ... Active-DNP for Games 1-2, played in Game 3, inactive for Games 4-8 and played in Games 9-16.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: In midseason, began sharing ROT duties with Dennis Roland ... Secured No. 1 spot for Games 15-16 ... Played key role in Bengals allowing no sacks in season's final three games ... Supported 371-net yard performance with no sacks allowed in win Dec. 26 vs. San Diego.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2008—Drafted by Bengals in fourth round (112th overall) ... Played in nine games, with starts at LOT in Games 11-16, replacing injured Levi Jones ... Helped team finish year on a three-game win streak, and supported Cincinnati's two best rushing games of the season in the final two contests ... NFL debut was in reserve role on Sept. 14 vs. Tennessee. 2009—Held No. 1 ROT spot for Games 1-5, and was in reserve role for remainder of season; credited with starts in Games 7-8, as offense opened in formations with six offensive linemen ... Was active but not did not play in Wild Card playoff vs.

Jets ... Aided 141-yard rushing game by Cedric Benson on Sept. 20 at Green Bay ... Helped lead fourth-quarter drives of 85 and 71 yards during comeback win Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh ... Helped support a 5.1-yard team rushing average in win Oct. 4 at Cleveland ... In win Oct. 11 at Baltimore, helped limit Ravens defense to one sack while helping Benson (27-for-120) become first player in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against Baltimore.

COLLEGE: Played 32 games over three seasons (2005-07) at Kansas ... Earned multiple first-team All-America honors in '07, starting at LOT as Kansas posted 12-1 record with victory over Virginia Tech in FedEx Orange Bowl ... Redshirted as a freshman in 2004, and left KU following his junior season to enter NFL Draft ... As a junior, credited with 108 knockdowns and 15 touchdown-producing blocks for an offense that averaged 479.8 yards per game, and he was penalized only twice all season.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Beaumont, Texas ... Attended Central High School, where he played football only as a senior and earned Class 4A all-state honors as a DE ... African-American studies major at Kansas.

RECORD ON THE ROAD

From the 2008 road finale at Cleveland through Nov. 15, 2009, the Bengals set a franchise record by compiling five consecutive road wins.

In starting 4-0 on the road in 2009, the Bengals tied the club record for consecutive road wins within a season. The four-game streak put them on equal footing with some of the best clubs in team annals. Other Bengals clubs that won four straight on the road in the same season have been:

- The 1975 team, which finished 11-3, for the best regular-season winning percentage (.786) in franchise history.
- The 1981 club, which finished 12-4 and reached Cincinnati's first Super Bowl.
- The 2005 team, which went 11-5 and claimed the AFC North championship.

Cook started every game in 2009 and '10, one of only six Bengals in that category ... Last season, he helped offense rank second in AFC and sixth in NFL in fewest sacks allowed per passing play ... Opponents totaled only 28 sacks in 618 passing plays, an average of one every 22.07 plays, and offense allowed no sacks for 100 straight passing plays to close the season, including the last three games ... In 2009, helped Bengals finish ninth in NFL rushing (128.5 yards per game), including a team-record of eight games of 100 or more yards by individual backs, and his pass blocking helped Cincinnati finish ninth in league in fewest sacks allowed (29).

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Aided possession time of 36:22 Sept. 26 at Carolina ... Aided offensive outputs of 469 yards Oct. 24 at Atlanta (most by team since Game 2 of 2007), and 413 yards Oct. 3 at Cleveland ... Supported 149 rushing yards, including 144 by Cedric Benson Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay ... Supported 124-yard rushing game by Benson Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo ... Aided 38:03 possession time and 188-yard team rushing output Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland, both 2010 bests ... Supported 371-net yard performance with no sacks allowed Dec. 26 vs. San Diego.

Cosby has played in every game of his Bengals career, establishing himself as a key special teams performer while making strides on offense ... Has averaged 10.0 yards over two seasons as the team's No. 1 punt returner, and having met the required minimum of 50 returns, he enters 2011 as the all-time franchise leader in return avg. ... Started slowly on punt returns last season, but stepped up his production over the last five games, averaging 12.8 yards on 10 returns ... Averaged 11.9 yards on 40 returns as a rookie in 2009, ranking third in AFC ... Also a productive tackler and blocker on special teams ... His 10 special teams tackles last season ranked third on team.

AHEAD BY JUST A HAIR: Cosby's official 10.0-yard career punt return average is the result of standard rounding up from his exact figure — 9.986. He has 699 yards on 70 career returns. He has moved into the club's all-time lead ahead of Mike Martin, whose 9.9 career average is rounded up from an actual figure of 9.864.

SECURITY BY QUAN: Over 2009-10, Cosby has handled 110 punt return opportunities (70 returns and 40 fair catches) without a lost muff or fumble.

MORE 2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Averaged 8.4 yards on five punt returns in win Sept. 26 at Carolina ... Returned two punts with 12.0 avg. Oct. 31 vs. Miami ... Five-yard catch Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo ... Returned two punts with 15.0 avg. Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans, including 19-yarder to Saints' 44 that set up go-ahead FG late in fourth quarter ... Also had two special teams tackles vs. New Orleans ... Averaged 11.5 yards on two punt returns Dec. 12 at Pittsburgh ... Averaged 13.0 yards on two punt returns Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland, and had 11-yard catch to convert third down on second-quarter drive for FG that put Bengals ahead to stay at 10-7 ... Also vs. Cleveland, led team with three special teams tackles and recovered onside kick late in fourth quarter to seal win ... Averaged 12.3 yards on four punt returns Jan. 2 at Baltimore.

2009: Signed May 1 with Bengals as college free agent ... His 11.9 avg. on punt returns earned him the PR spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers All-Rookie team ... His punt return average was Bengals' highest since 1984 (minimum 20 returns) ... His 474 total punt return yards led the NFL and set Bengals season record ... Logged four receptions on offense for 55 yards, and added three-for-26 in Wild Card playoff ... On Sept. 20 at Green Bay, his 60-yard punt return to Packers' six set up a second-quarter TD, and he had a 32-yarder to Packers' 29 in fourth quarter, setting up FG for a two-score lead ... Caught three passes for 47 yards Dec. 20 at San Diego, including a 23-yarder to the San Diego 16 in the fourth quarter to set up FG that tied the score at 24-24 ... Had a 40-yard punt return on Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets.

BLOCK PARTY: Though Cosby has earned most of his NFL notice as a punt returner, he also contributes without the ball in his hands. A play from his 2009 rookie year stands out. On Bernard Scott's 96-yard kickoff return for a TD Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, Cosby made a clearing block near the Bengals' 10-yard line and then sprinted ahead of Scott to make two more key blocks near the Steelers' 20. Special teams coach Darrin Simmons said, "In my years in the NFL, that's the single biggest effort play I've seen."

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Texas, finishing second in Longhorns' career receptions (212), third in receiving yards (2598) and fourth in receiving TDs (19) ... Played 52 games with 35 starts ... Averaged 23.7 yards on 73 kickoff returns and 11.3 yards on 33 punt returns ... Played in every game as a freshman as Texas capped 13-0 national championship season with Rose Bowl win over then-No. 1 USC ... Consensus first-team All-Big 12 as a senior, with 92 catches for 1123 yards and 10 TDs.

LATE FOOTBALL STARTER: Before starting his college football career, Cosby played four years (2001-04) of pro baseball, as an outfielder in the California Angels' farm system. He played two rookie league and two Class A seasons, batting .260 over 340 games.

PERSONAL: Born in Waco, Texas, and grew up in nearby Mart, Texas ... Attended Mart High School, where he was a two-time Class 2A all-state football selection at QB and DB ... Batted .479 as a prep senior in baseball, and won state track titles in 100 and 200 meters ... A social work major at Texas, he earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2008 ... Twin brother, Quincy, played football at Baylor ... First name is pronounced "Kwahn."

THE LONGEST VICTORY

The Bengals' 23-20 win at Cleveland on Oct. 4, 2009 was the longest game the Bengals ever won. Four seconds remained in the overtime period when K Shayne Graham booted a 31-yard field goal to break a 20-all tie.

The previous longest Bengals win was 34-31 in a road game against the Los Angeles Rams on Oct. 7, 1990. Jim Breech's 44-yard field goal ended that game with 3:04 remaining in overtime.

The longest Bengals loss came on Sept. 23, 1979 against the Houston Oilers at Riverfront Stadium. The Oilers won 30-27 on a 29-yard Toni Fritsch field goal with 0:32 left in the extra period.

The only 75-minute game in Bengals history was the 13-13 tie with Philadelphia on Nov. 16, 2008. The only other tie in team history — a 31-31 deadlock in 1969 at Houston — took place before overtime was instituted in the regular season.

Born: 2-28-89

Dunlap enters 2011 as one of Cincinnati's most promising young players ... Second-round 2010 draft pick was one of the NFL's top rookies at any position during a strong finishing stretch ... A Pro Football Weekly all-rookie team selection, he contested Detroit DT Ndamukong Suh for the league's rookie sacks title, losing the crown when Suh went to 10.0 with a zero-yard sack late in fourth quarter in Week 17 ... Dunlap's 9.5 sacks set Bengals rookie record, surpassing 8.5 by DE Justin Smith in 2001 ... All of Dunlap's sacks came in last eight games, including 8.5 in last six games ... Became first rookie to lead the team in sacks for a season since 1990, when LB James Francis led with 8.0 ... Dunlap had 28 total tackles, with five QB pressures, three passes defended and a fumble recovery ... Played the season as Cincinnati's youngest player (age 21).

2010 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in second round (54th overall) ... Played in 12 games (Games 3 and 6-16) ... Came out of preseason with a knee strain and missed regular-season Games 1-2 ... Also inactive for Games 4-5 (coaches' decision).

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Made NFL debut in Game 3, Sept. 26 at Carolina, and had a QB pressure ... On Nov. 14 at Indianapolis, brought down Peyton Manning for first career sack, for four-yard loss in second quarter ... Sacked Mark Sanchez twice on Nov. 25 at N.Y. Jets, including one for 11-yard loss to Jets' one-yard line on a third-down play in third quarter, helping set up a short Bengals FG drive ... His 1.5 sacks of Drew Brees on Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans included 15-yard loss on third down, forcing punt that led to Bengals' go-ahead FG in fourth quarter ... Four tackles (one for loss) and team-best three passes defended Dec. 12 at Pittsburgh, including eight-yard shared sack of Ben Roethlisberger to force Pittsburgh punt ... His two tackles in win Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland were both sacks of Colt McCoy ... First sack vs. Cleveland was for eight-yard loss at Bengals' 39, pushing Browns out of FG range, and second sack was for seven yards on a third down, forcing a punt

... Also had three QB pressures vs. Cleveland ... His three tackles Dec. 26 vs. San Diego included seven-yard sack of Philip Rivers to Chargers' 33 late in fourth quarter ... Closed season with his fourth multiple-sack game of the last six, getting 1.5 against Joe Flacco on Jan. 2 at Baltimore ... His solo sack at Baltimore was an eight-yarder that forced a punt ... Also at Baltimore, recovered Donte' Stallworth fumble in second quarter.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (2007-09) at Florida, with totals of 84 tackles, 19.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss, eight passes defended and four blocked kicks ... Named Defensive MVP of 2008 season BCS national championship win over Oklahoma ... Helped Gators to 13-1 records in each of his last two seasons, including 51-24 Sugar Bowl victory over University of Cincinnati to close 2009 campaign ... Entered NFL Draft following his junior season.

THAT'S NO SCATBACK: In high school, Dunlap's athletic gifts were such that he was a defensive end used periodically as a kickoff returner. Playing at 240 pounds, he had a 95-yard kickoff return for a TD.

PERSONAL: Hometown is North Charleston, S.C. ... Attended Fort Dorchester High School, and closed his career ranked 15th on ESPN's Top 150 recruits list ... Majored at Florida in family, youth and community sciences ... Selected to SEC Academic Honor Roll as a freshman.

2010 SEES NEW NFL PASSING MARKS

The 2010 season produced some record passing numbers in the NFL. The league-wide passer rating (84.1) and touchdown-interception ratio (1.47:1) were both at historic levels, topping the previous records set in 2008 (83.2 passer rating) and '04 (1.40:1 TD:INT ratio).

Touchdown passes (751) were at an all-time high, and games averaged 443.1 passing yards per game, the most in history (441.6 in 1995).

A record 22 quarterbacks passed for over 3,000 yards in 2010, surpassing the previous best of 19 in 2001 and '09.

Eleven quarterbacks threw for 25+ passing touchdowns — the second-most in history (12 in 2009). There were 11 individual 400-yard passing performances, the third-most all-time. Only the 1986 (13) and 2004 (13) seasons had more.

Tom Brady kept alive several NFL-record streaks through the regular season. With a perfect 8-0 record at Gillette Stadium in 2010, Brady has won his past 28 consecutive regular-season home starts, the longest such streak in league history. He also ended the 2010 regular season with a streak of 335 consecutive passes without an interception, an NFL record.

Peyton Manning set a single-season record for pass completions with 450, but Drew Brees was right on his heels with 448, the second-most all-time. Brees is the only player in history to complete 400+ passes in multiple seasons (2007, '08 and '10).

A Bengals fourth-round draft choice in 2004, Geathers has been a significant contributor in all of his Cincinnati seasons ... Started every game at LDE last season, with 55 tackles (second on the line), a sack, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and two passes defended ... Also had nine QB pressures (ranked tied for third) ... Led line in tackles in 2009 as Bengals won AFC North title ... A two-time team leader in sacks, and his 10.5 total from 2006 stands as the most by a Bengal since 1983.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Missed Bengals' final four preseason games with foot injury, but returned to action for regular-season opener ... In win Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore, led line with five tackles ... On Sept. 26 at Carolina, his recovery of a Jonathan Stewart fumble and return to Panthers' 37 set up fourth-quarter drive for TD that iced the game ... Also at Carolina, helped hold Panthers' rushing duo of DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart to 77 net yards ... Four tackles (led line) and two QB pressures Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay ... Season-high seven tackles Oct. 24 at Atlanta, tied for line lead ... Three tackles Nov. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, including sack of Ben Roethlisberger for nine-yard loss in third quarter ... Three tackles Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans, and forced a fumble against RB Chris Ivory (Saints recovered) ... Line-leading six tackles, a QB pressure and a pass defended in Dec. 26 win that knocked San Diego from playoff contention.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2004—Drafted by Bengals in fourth round (117th overall) ... Ranked fourth on team in sacks (3.5) and led line in passes defended (five) ... Made key plays in four wins in season's second half ... On Nov. 7 vs. Dallas, had a sack and forced fumble, a key pass defended, and a QB pressure that led to an intentional grounding penalty ... Had 1.5 sacks in win Nov. 28 vs. Cleveland ... On Dec. 26 vs. N.Y. Giants, his deflection of an Eli Manning pass led to Carl Powell's game-clinching INT with less than a minute to play ... Continued his big-play ways Jan. 2 at Philadelphia, intercepting a Jeff Blake swing pass in the third quarter and returning it 36 yards for TD that gave Bengals a 24-3 lead. 2005—Started every game at RDE, including Wild Card playoff ... His 52 tackles included three sacks ... Had a season-high six tackles

Nov. 6 at Baltimore, including 10-yard sack of Anthony Wright ... In crucial win Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh, forced a Hines Ward fumble in second quarter that Bengals recovered at their 25. 2006—His 10.5 sacks still stand as club's most since Eddie Edwards had 13 in '83 ... Was Bengals' only sacker in double digits since '92, when LB/DE Alfred Williams had 10 ... On Sept. 10 at Kansas City, his six tackles included two sacks for 18 yards against Trent Green ... In win Sept. 24 at Pittsburgh, recorded four tackles, including two sacks of Ben Roethlisberger for eight yards ... Two sacks of Aaron Brooks on Dec. 10 vs. Oakland. 2007—Led team in sacks (3.5) ... Started 12 games at LDE, and started four games (Games 5-8) at SLB, aiding injury-depleted LB corps ... Second on line in tackles (69), and was one of four Bengals to log an entry in every column of defensive stat sheet ... Played dominant role in season-opening win Sept. 10 vs. Baltimore, with line-leading eight tackles, an eight-yard sack, an interception with a 30-yard return, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. 2008—Started Games 1-11 at LDE, but suffered knee injury in Game 11, Nov. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Placed Nov. 24 on Reserve/Injured list, ending streak of 74 straight games played ... Despite missed time, led team in QB hurries (12) and finished second on line in tackles (56) ... On Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, tied for team lead with personal season-high 10 tackles, including two for losses ... On Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia, executed a sack-and-strip against Donovan McNabb in first quarter to set up a Cincinnati FG (Bengals recovered fumble). 2009—Started 15 games plus Wild Card playoff at LDE ... Led D-line in tackles (56), including 3.5 sacks, and for the second straight season, he led team in coaches' compilation of QB pressures (13) ... Inactive for Game 16 at N.Y. Jets, resting a knee strain, but returned to start Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. Jets ... Had line-leading eight tackles in Sept. 27 win vs. Pittsburgh, including a shared sack of Ben Roethlisberger on third down in fourth quarter, forcing Steelers punt that preceded Bengals' game-winning drive ... Helped preserve win Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore with 10-yard sack of Joe Flacco late in fourth quarter ... On Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, had nine-yard sack of Ben Roethlisberger on first-and-goal from Bengals' eight in second quarter, helping hold Steelers to a FG ... Logged six tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

TAKE THE FUMBLE AND RUN: Geathers holds the team record for fumble return yards in a season, with 113 in 2009. He tied Ray Bentley's team record for a single fumble return when he went 75 yards for a TD at Cleveland, and he added a 38-yard return at Oakland.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Geathers has football in his blood. His uncle, Jumpy Geathers, and his father, Robert Sr., were both talented defensive linemen. Jumpy recorded 62 sacks in a 13-year NFL career (1984-96 with New Orleans, Washington, Atlanta and Denver). Robert Sr. starred at South Carolina State and earned a third-round draft selection by Buffalo in 1981 before being hampered by an injury. "My dad gave me a football when I was three years old," Robert Jr. recalls. "That's the first thing I remember, carrying that ball around the house, running from him."

COLLEGE: Entered NFL Draft after his junior season at Georgia ... Started all 14 games in his 2003 senior season as Bulldogs posted 11-3 record ... Played 39 games over three seasons (2001-03), but did not become a full-time starter until '03 ... Had career totals of 81 tackles, five sacks, 10 tackles for loss, 22 QB pressures and two INTs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Georgetown, S.C. ... Attended Carvers Bay High School, where he recorded 100 tackles and nine sacks as a senior and had 130 tackles with 14 sacks as a junior ... Married (wife Adria), with a son, Robert III ... Sports studies major at Georgia ... Last name is pronounced as "gathers."

(96th overall)

Born: 6-6-87

Ghee looks for increased production this season, as injuries held him back in his rookie campaign ... Played in six games, primarily on special teams ... Limited early by a preseason head injury, and his regular season also ended prematurely, due to a groin injury suffered in Game 10 ... A three-year starter at Wake Forest, he was one of the fastest and most athletic corners available in the 2010 draft and has good size at 6-0 and 193 pounds ... Has been clocked at 4.39 seconds for 40-yard dash.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in third round (96th overall) ... Played in Games 5-10 ... Inactive for Games 1-2, after suffering hit to the head while making a tackle in preseason on Aug. 28 at Buffalo ... Active on Sept. 26 at Carolina but did not play ... Inactive for Game 4 ... Made NFL debut Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay, playing on special teams ... Suffered groin injury in Game 10, Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo, and was inactive for Games 11-12 ... Placed Dec. 8 on Reserve/Injured list ... Played in only two of the five preseason games, missing two games 2-3 with quad strain and Game 5 due to head injury.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Had one special teams tackle in each of the six games he played ... Despite limited playing time, tied for fifth on the team for season in special teams stops ... Had one tackle on defense on Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo before leaving with a groin injury ... Six tackles (four solo) in his two preseason appearances.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (2007-09) at Wake Forest, appearing in 36 games with 34 starts ... Had only one career INT, but contributed 25 passes defended, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 12.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and a blocked punt ... Helped Deacons reach and win two bowl games ... Entered Wake Forest program in 2005, but was redshirted (did not play), and did not see action in '06 due to eligibility issues.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Fayetteville, N.C. ... Attended Jack Britt High School, where he earned all-state honors at CB and all-region accolades at WR ... Also lettered in track and field in high school, posting times of 10.5 in 100 meters and 21.47 in 200 meters ... Communications major at Wake Forest ... Last name is pronounced "JEE."

NO-WIN SITUATIONS

In the Bengals' first 43 seasons (1968-2010), two games have resulted in ties — one in 60 minutes of action and the other in a 75-minute contest.

On Nov. 9, 1969, at the Astrodome in Houston, Cincinnati kicker Horst Muhlmann's 18-yard field goal with 22 seconds left in the fourth quarter enabled the Bengals to tie the Oilers at 31-31. That effectively ended the game as regular-season overtime was not in the rules at the time (OT was added in 1974).

The only other tie game in Bengals history came on Nov. 16, 2008 at Paul Brown Stadium. The Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles battled to a 13-13 overtime deadlock for the NFL's first tie since 2002.

6th year in NFL

College: Toledo

2010 Games-Starts: 6-4

Career Games-Starts: 32-20

Acquired: UFA(Oak.) '11

Born: 1-27-83

Sixth-year veteran signed with Bengals as an unrestricted free agent on 7-30-11 ... Mobile signal-caller has 32 career games with 20 starts, with 362 completions in 680 attempts (53.2 percent) for 3883 yards with 20 TDs and 23 INTs ... Played in six games with four starts for Oakland last season but missed 10 games due to an injury to his right (throwing) shoulder ... In 2009, he led an Oakland upset win against the Bengals and later earned an AFC Offensive Player of the Week nod from a win at Pittsburgh ... Entered the NFL with Tampa Bay in 2006 and also played for Bucs in '07 ... Was with Cleveland in 2008 and with Oakland in '09 and '10.

TOUGH ON BENGALS: Playing for Tampa Bay and Oakland, Gradkowski has posted a 2-0 record as a starter against the Bengals, each time with a team that was a significant underdog. He engineered his first NFL win as a starter on Oct. 15, 2006 against the Bengals. Playing for Tampa Bay against visiting Cincinnati, he led a fourth-quarter TD drive for a 14-13 win. Tampa Bay had entered the game with an 0-4 record to Cincinnati's 3-1. Gradkowski completed 25 of 44 passes for 184 yards and passed for both Tampa Bay TDs. At Oakland in 2009, Gradkowski led a 2-7 Raiders team to a 20-17 win over a 7-2 Bengals club. His TD pass capped an 80-yard drive that tied the game with 0:33 to play, and the Raiders won on a FG after a Bengals fumble on the kickoff return.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Played in Games 1-2 ... Started Games 3-5 ... Out with shoulder injury for Games 6-9 ... Played in Game 10 and started Game 11 ... On Reserve/Injured (shoulder) for Games 12-16.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Grabbed Raiders starting QB job with his performance in Game 2, Sept. 19 vs. St. Louis ... Entered Rams game in second half and led 16-14 come-from-behind win, completing 11-of-21 for 162 yards, with a four-yard TD to WR Louis Murphy ... Started the next three games, but had to leave Oct. 10 win vs. San Diego due to shoulder injury ... Returned on Nov. 21 at Pittsburgh, playing in second half, and started Nov. 28 vs. Miami, with season-high 252 passing yards including 44-yard TD to WR Jacoby Ford ... Re-aggravated shoulder in Miami game and placed Dec. 2 on Reserve/Injured list.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2006—Drafted by Tampa Bay in sixth round (194th overall) ... Captured team's

No. 1 job for most of the season, competing against Chris Simms and Tom Rattay, starting 11 of his 13 games played ... His passing yards (1661), TD passes (nine) and completions-attempts (177-328) were all Bucs rookie records ... Had nine INTs, but became only third QB in NFL history to throw only one INT in his first 150 attempts, joining New England's Tom Brady and San Francisco's Rattay ... Set NFL record for most attempts (202) before suffering second INT ... Made NFL debut in fourth quarter Sept. 10 vs. Baltimore ... Made first start Oct. 8 at New Orleans and posted 107.6 rating in a 24-21 loss, passing 20-31 for 225-2-0 ... Claimed first win on Oct. 15 vs. Bengals (detail in earlier item). 2007—Saw action in four games as a Tampa Bay reserve, passing 13-for-24 for 130 yards ... Saw extended action in win 19-13 Nov. 25 vs. Washington, passing 9-19 for 106 and rushing two-for-24. 2008—Waived by Tampa Bay on June 2, and acquired on waivers June 5 by St. Louis ... Waived by St. Louis on Aug. 30 ... Signed as free agent with Cleveland on Dec. 2 and played in two games with one start. 2009—Waived Feb. 10, and acquired on waivers Feb. 13 by Oakland ... Played in seven games with four starts for Oakland, leading team in TD passes (six) ... Posted career-best passer rating (80.6) ... Led comeback win vs. Bengals on Nov. 22 (detail in earlier item) ... The Pittsburgh native was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance Dec. 6 at Steelers, when he led 27-24 win with 20-of-33 passing for career-high 308 yards with three TDs and no INTs ... Posted 121.8 passer rating in Pittsburgh game.

COLLEGE: Played 49 games with 36 starts in a prolific career at Toledo ... Completed 766 of 1123 passes for 9225 yards, with 85 TD passes and only 27 INTs ... Set 19 school records, including marks for most completions, passing yards and TDs ... Rushed for 1018 yards and 14 TDs ... Became first QB in NCAA Division I-A history to complete more than 70 percent of his passes in consecutive seasons ... His career completion percentage of 68.4 broke an NCAA mark formerly held by Kentucky's Tim Couch (67.1).

PERSONAL: Home town is Pittsburgh, Pa. ... Attended Seton-La Salle High School, where he earned all-state honors as a junior and senior ... His prep career passing yardage was most in the 87-year history of a storied conference, as the league also claims Johnny Lujack, George Blanda, Joe Namath, Terry Hanratty, Joe Montana and Dan Marino ... Business marketing major at Toledo.

Gresham fully justified his first-round draft selection last season, taking over Bengals' No. 1 TE spot out of training camp ... Made big impact on the passing game, and has all the tools and attitude to continue development into a top blocker ... His 52 receptions tied for AFC rookie lead and set a Bengals record for a rookie TE ... Had 471 receiving yards and four receiving TDs ... Also caught a two-point conversion ... Caught a TD pass in his NFL debut.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Played in Games 1-15 ... Credited officially with only 10 starts, but was in No. 1 TE role for all games ... Inactive for Game 16 due to knee strain.

GRESHAM'S RANKINGS ROUNDUP: Gresham's rookie receiving totals were notable in a number of respects:

- ▶ His 52 catches tied teammate Jordan Shipley for the AFC rookie lead and tied for third among NFL rookies. He and Shipley were the first Bengals to win or share the AFC rookie receptions title since Carl Pickens in 1992.

- ▶ His catch total was a record for a Bengals rookie TE, breaking the mark of 44 set by Tony McGee in 1995.

- ▶ He and Shipley tied for most catches by any Bengals rookie since 1985, when WR Eddie Brown caught 53.

- ▶ His 471 receiving yards were the most by any Bengals TE since 1995, when Tony McGee had 754.

- ▶ His four TD catches tied for the most by any Bengals TE since 1997, when Tony McGee had six.

- ▶ His TD catch total was the most ever by a Bengals rookie playing strictly TE.

MORE 2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Caught six-for-25 in NFL debut Sept. 12 at New England, including one-yard

TD pass from Carson Palmer in third quarter ... In win Sept. 26 at Carolina, led team in receiving yards (59, on four catches), with 27-yard gain on one Bengals TD drive and 17-yarder on another TD drive ... Caught four-for-24 Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay, and his one-yard TD catch put Bengals in lead early in fourth quarter ... Had personal season bests of nine catches and 85 yards, with 19-yard TD, on Nov. 14 at Indianapolis ... Had prodigious fourth quarter in Colts game, with all nine of his catches in the period, but he fumbled (lost) after the final catch ... Caught three-for-43, plus two-point conversion reception Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans ... Failed to dent receiving column for first time Dec. 12 at Pittsburgh, seeing limited action after missing the entire practice week due to a death in the family ... Caught four-for-56 on Dec. 26 vs. San Diego, including three-yard TD on third-and-goal in first quarter, making the catch despite pass interference by Chargers.

COLLEGE: Played in all 42 Oklahoma games from 2006-08, helping team to 34-8 record, with two Fiesta Bowls and one berth in BCS Championship game ... Did not play in 2009, due to knee injury suffered in preseason practice ... Declined an option to return to OU for 2010 ... In his three seasons, totaled 111 receptions for 1629 yards (14.7 avg.), and his 26 TDs ranked second in Big 12 history for tight ends ... Earned first-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 2008, when he set school records for TEs in TDs (14) and receiving yards (950) ... Scored 25 TDs in his last 28 games.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Ardmore, Okla. ... Attended Ardmore High School, where as a senior he was rated top TE prospect in the nation by PrepStar and Rivals.com ... Also a basketball standout in high school ... Majored at Oklahoma in multidisciplinary studies.

Bengals' first-round pick in 2007 draft has been a key contributor in all four of his pro seasons ... Led Bengals last season in INTs (four, tied for sixth in AFC), and in his four seasons he has led team three times and tied for team lead once ... Led team last season in passes defended (20), and had 52 tackles and two forced fumbles (tied for team lead) ... Over his Bengals tenure, leads team in INTs (18) and passes defended (84) ... Has moved into sixth place in all-time Bengals INTs ... Also one of the most active special teams players among regular starters, he had five special teams tackles in '10.

COUNT ON HIM: Hall has played in every game (65, including postseason) in his Bengals career, the current team's longest streak of having played every game in a career ... Has started the last 57 games (55 at RCB, 2 at LCB).

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: On Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore, intercepted a Joe Flacco pass in third quarter, with 22-yard return ... Recorded INT in second straight game on Sept. 26 at Carolina, picking off Jimmy Clausen in the final minute of first quarter at the Bengals' five, thwarting Carolina scoring threat ... Recorded an INT in his third straight game Oct. 3 at Cleveland, intercepting Seneca Wallace in second quarter at Cleveland 37 ... Six tackles, four passes defended (Bengals game-high for the season) and an INT Oct. 24 at Atlanta ... INT vs. Atlanta was a leaping grab of Matt Ryan pass at Bengals' 38 in the third quarter, which preceded Bengals TD drive ... Four tackles Nov. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, and had two forced fumbles, including FF from Hines Ward at Pittsburgh 39 in second quarter, recovered by Bengals and leading to TD drive.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2007—Drafted by Bengals in first round (18th overall) ... Played in every game, with 10 starts, and led team with five INTs, tying Bengals rookie record set previously by S Tommy Casanova, CB Ray Horton and LB Odell Thurman ... Also tied for NFL's '07 rookie lead in INTs ... Ranked fourth on Bengals in tackles (career-best 85), leading secondary ... Started in NFL debut Sept. 10 vs. Baltimore, subbing for injured RCB Johnathan Joseph, and had five tackles and two passes defended ... Snagged first NFL interception on Sept. 23 at Seattle, against QB Matt Hasselbeck ... On Nov. 11 at Baltimore, intercepted a deflected Steve McNair pass in end zone just before halftime, preserving 6-0 lead in eventual Bengals win. 2008—Posted team-best totals of 26 passes defended and three INTs ... Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for performance Dec. 21 at Cleveland, when made all three of his INTs, tying Bengals game record and scoring on a 50-yard return ... His TD return at Cleveland gave Bengals a 7-0 lead on a cold, blustery day when offensive scores were tough to come by (Bengals went on to win 14-0) ... Led DBs in tackles (84) for the second straight year, and also had a fumble recovery and five special teams tackles ... Four passes defended, including two that forced punts, in win Dec. 14 vs. Washington. 2009—Tied for team lead with career-high six INTs, tied for second in AFC ... Led team in passes defended (career-high 27) and had 73 tackles, ranked sixth on team ... Tied for team lead in forced fumbles on defense (two) ... Had the most special teams tackles (seven) of any regular starter, ranking seventh on the team ... His 11 solo tackles on Oct. 18 vs. Houston were most by a Bengal on the year ... On Oct. 4 at Cleveland, forced a Jerome Harrison fumble that teammate Robert Geathers returned 75 yards for a TD, for 14-0 second-quarter lead ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, intercepted a Joe Flacco pass at Bengals' 17 with four seconds left to end Ravens' last comeback bid ... On Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, had two INTs (48 yards in returns) ... Had seven tackles and an end-zone pass defended to aid a strong performance by secondary Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, when Steelers were held to three-for-15 on third-down conversions ... On Dec. 13 at Minnesota, intercepted a Brett Favre pass ... Logged his sixth INT on Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, with leaping grab at Bengals' 19 to kill Chiefs' last offensive threat ... Posted seven tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: A consensus 2006 All-American for Michigan, Hall played four seasons (2003-06) ... Left Wolverines with school record for career passes defended (43) and ranked tied for fourth in INTs (12) ... Was finalist as a senior for NCAA's Jim Thorpe Award (top defensive back) and Bronko Nagurski Trophy (top defensive player) ... Set UM record with 83-yard fumble return (for TD) as a junior in '05.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Vista, Calif. ... Played CB, WR and QB at Vista High School, earning All-America honors from SuperPrep and PrepStar, and also lettered in track ... Married (wife Jessica) with a son, Leon. Jr. ... General studies major at Michigan.

Four punts on Nov. 14 at Indianapolis, averaging 40.3 yards with 39.0 net, and all four were downed inside Colts' 20 ... Averaged 56.5 yards on two punts on Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans, with both downed inside 20, and a 55.5 net ... His four punts on Dec. 26 vs. San Diego yielded two inside-20s and no touchbacks.

2009: Drafted by Bengals in fifth round (142nd overall) ... His 43.2-yard gross average tied Bengals' second-best since 1999 ... Had a 36.3 net average, and in the 10 previous seasons, only once did a Bengals punter better that mark ... Had 24 inside-20 kicks and only 10 touchbacks ... Made regular-season debut Sept. 13 vs. Denver, averaging 39.7 yards on seven punts, with season-best five pinned inside-20 ... Had two key punts in second half in win Sept. 20 at Green Bay, a 48-yarder that went out of bounds at Green Bay four and a 56-yarder to the Packers' 26 ... On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, successfully kicked away from AFC punt return leader Joshua Cribbs, denying him a return, while averaging 42.0 yards on six punts with four inside-20s (one touchback) ... Averaged 48.0 yards on four punts in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, with a 36.5 net average.

CINCINNATI ALL THE WAY: Huber is only the second player drafted by the Bengals who grew up in Cincinnati and attended both high school and college in the Queen City. He attended McNicholas High School before enrolling at the University of Cincinnati. The first such player was RB Clem Turner, a fourth-round Bengals draftee in 1969 who went to Woodward High and then to UC. Turner played for the Bengals only in 1969. He also played for Denver from 1970-72.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Cincinnati, with 117 of his 124 punts coming in his last two campaigns ... Led the nation in net punting avg. in both 2007 and '08, and as a junior in 2007, his 46.9-yard gross average made him the first UC player to win the official national punting title ... Averaged 45.5 gross yards for his career, becoming eighth player in Division I/FBS history to average 45.0 yards or more for his career ... Had 47 inside-20 kicks for his career, with just 14 touchbacks ... Redshirted (did not play) in 2004.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Cincinnati ... Attended McNicholas High School, where he was a three-time all-league selection ... Finance major at University of Cincinnati, twice earning Commissioner's Honor Roll when Bearcats played in Conference USA ... Later made the Big East All-Academic team ... Single ... Favorite hobby is golf.

NEW NFL RULES FOR 2011

UNNECESSARY ROUGHNESS: Three adjustments were made to the unnecessary roughness rule in the interests of player safety and competitive fairness:

- Existing unnecessary roughness rules have been standardized and protection for defenseless players has been expanded, including additional safeguards for defenseless receivers, players who receive "blindside" blocks and quarterbacks, kickers and punters on changes of possession. All unnecessary roughness violations result in a 15-yard penalty.
- Illegal "launching," which has been defined as a player leaving both feet prior to contact to spring forward and upward into an opponent and delivering a blow with any part of the helmet, has been prohibited.
- Roughing the passer rules have been clarified so hits to the head of a passer by an opponent's hands, arms, or other parts of the body will not result in fouls unless they are forcible blows.

KICKOFFS: Due to an increasing number of injuries on kickoffs, several rules have been changed to make those plays safer for both the kicking and receiving teams. The kicking team's restraining line has been moved to its own 35-yard line. The kicking team formation for kickoffs has also been adjusted so all players other than the kicker must be lined up no more than five yards behind their restraining line. Illegal formation violations result in a five-yard penalty.

INSTANT REPLAY: Two adjustments were made to instant replay procedures in the interest of competitive fairness:

- The replay official will now initiate reviews of all scoring plays throughout the game from the booth, allowing confirmation of all scoring plays and providing more flexibility to coaches in the use of their challenges.
- Teams will now be penalized 15 yards for initiating a challenge after a foul that prevents the next snap. This prevents a team from challenging the previous play if it commits a pre-snap foul.

DEAD BALL PERSONAL FOULS: Dead ball personal fouls by either team at the end of a half will now be enforced on the ensuing kickoff of the third quarter, eliminating the extension of a half after a five- or 15-yard penalty enforcement that includes a dead ball personal foul against the defense. This ensures consistent enforcement for all dead-ball personal fouls on both the offense and defense in these situations.

PLAYING FIELD COLOR: Absent prior approval from NFL, the surface of the entire field must be a league-approved shade of green, preserving the uniform appearance of all NFL games.

Born: 2-7-87

Third-round pick from 2009 draft has had good production in his first two seasons, and shows promise for possible breakout year ... Has played in every game of his two campaigns, seeing action at DE and LB ... Switched from DE to LB for start of last season, but resumed seeing DE action when starters were out with injuries ... Had 10 starts at DE for the year, including the last eight games ... Led team in tackles for loss (eight) ... Second on team in coaches' determination of QB pressures (17), and had 49 tackles, 2.5 sacks, and a special teams fumble recovery ... Tied for front-seven lead in passes defended (four).

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Combined with DT Geno Atkins to sack Joe Flacco for four-yard loss Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore, helping stall Ravens' last comeback bid ... Started at DE Sept. 26 at Carolina, replacing injured Antwan Odom, and had line-leading five tackles, helping hold rushing duo of DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart to 77 net yards ... Recovered a Davone Bess muffed punt at Bengals' 45 in third quarter Oct. 31 vs. Miami ... Five tackles (one for loss) and two QB pressures Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans ... On Dec. 12 at Pittsburgh, led line with eight tackles, including a sack, and his five QB pressures tied Bengals' individual game high for season ... Aided win Dec. 26 vs. San Diego with four tackles (three for loss) and two QB pressures ... His San Diego effort included stop of Ryan Mathews for a one-yard loss on third-and-goal from the one, part of second-quarter goal-line stand ... Seven tackles (tied for team lead) and a QB pressure Jan. 2 at Baltimore, and he sacked Joe Flacco for six-yard loss in third quarter.

2009: Drafted by Bengals in third round (70th overall) ... Increased his role as his rookie season progressed and led D-line in passes defended (five), including key PD in win over Detroit ... Tied for seventh in special teams tackles (seven) ... Had his first sack Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, when he teamed with DE Jonathan Fanene on a fourth-down, fourth-quarter drop of Joe Flacco to seal victory ... In win Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, aided strong pass rush with two QB pressures on Ben Roethlisberger, including one on Pittsburgh's final play to help force an errant pass ... On Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, deflected a Matt Stafford pass that DE Jonathan Fanene intercepted for 45-yard TD, tying score at 7-7 in second quarter ... Also vs. Detroit, had a nine-yard sack in fourth quarter ... In division-clinching win Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, had eight-yard sack of Matt Cassel and a fourth-quarter pass defended to force a punt ... Tied for special teams tackles lead (two) in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: Played 49 games over four seasons (2005-08) at Georgia Tech ... Team captain as a senior, he broke into starting lineup, and his nine sacks helped him earn first-team All-America honors from American Football Coaches Association ... Though he played only one year as a starter, he finished career as a significant playmaker, with 19 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, three blocked field goals and 30.5 tackles for loss ... Posted 17.5 of his tackles for loss as a senior starter.

Eighth-year pro is in his third Bengals season ... Has been a Cincinnati starter when healthy, but had his 2010 season cut short by a knee injury ... Entered NFL in 2004 as a second-round draft choice of Chicago, and started 10 games plus all three playoff games in '06 as Bears advanced to Super Bowl XLI ... Started 13 games in 2009 as Bengals won AFC North championship ... Has 14 career sacks in regular season and 2.5 more in postseason ... Has been on four playoff teams in seven seasons, entering 2011.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Became an unrestricted free agent on March 5, and re-signed with Bengals on March 11 ... Started Games 1-7, but suffered knee injury in Game 7, Oct. 31 vs. Miami ... Inactive due to the injury for Games 8-10, and placed Nov. 23 on Reserve/Injured list.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Had three tackles on Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore ... On Sept. 26 at Carolina, helped defense hold rushing duo of DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart to 77 net yards ... Three tackles Oct. 3 at Cleveland ... Three tackles Oct. 24 at Atlanta ... Two tackles Oct. 31 vs. Miami before leaving game with knee injury.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2004—Drafted by Chicago in second round (47th overall) ... Played in every game, posting 26 tackles with a shared sack. 2005—Had career-best five sacks for Bears team that won NFC North with 11-5 record ... Had a breakout game in 10-6 win Oct. 23 vs. Baltimore, with two sacks and a tackle for loss among his 11 tackles, plus a pass defended ... Five tackles, including two for loss, in Divisional playoff loss on 1-15-06 vs. Carolina. 2006—Had 38 tackles with 3.5 sacks in regular season, as Chicago won NFC North with 13-3 record ... Added 12 tackles with 1.5 sacks while starting all three postseason games, including Super Bowl XLI vs. Colts ... On Sept. 17 vs. Detroit, had forced fumble that led to game's opening TD, and also had a sack ... Seven tackles with two sacks in win Dec. 3 vs. Minnesota ...

Had five tackles and a sack in divisional playoff win vs. Seattle on 1-14-07 ... Five tackles with a shared sack in Super Bowl loss to Indianapolis. 2007—On June 4, NFL announced Johnson would be suspended for Games 1-8 of the regular season, due to violation of league's personal conduct policy ... Released by Chicago on June 25 ... Signed by Dallas on Sept. 18, and played for Cowboys in Games 9-16 after serving suspension ... Made first Dallas start in season finale, Dec. 30 at Washington, and had three tackles and a forced fumble ... Had two tackles, including a sack, in Divisional playoff on 1-13-08 vs. N.Y. Giants.

2008—Played in all 16 Dallas games and recorded 45 tackles while logging nine QB pressures and a sack ... Had a key forced fumble in Cowboys' victory over Bengals, derailing Cincinnati comeback bid as a teammate covered HB Chris Perry's fumble ... Logged five tackles, with one for a loss, as Cowboys won Nov. 16 at Washington, limiting league's No. 4 rush offense to 92 yards ... Posted six tackles including a sack in Thanksgiving win on Nov. 27 vs. Seattle. 2009—An unrestricted free agent, he signed with Cincinnati on April 8 and went on to play 14 games with 13 starts at RDT ... Had 39 tackles with two sacks as Bengals rolled to division title, and he led team in tackles (10) in Wild Card playoff vs. N.Y. Jets ... Four tackles, including a sack, Oct. 18 vs. Houston ... Tied for line lead in tackles (four) on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, aiding defensive yield of just 169 net yards, fewest allowed by Bengals defense since 1983 ... Tied line lead with five tackles Dec. 13 at Minnesota, including seven-yard sack of Brett Favre in third quarter ... Had season-high seven tackles (led D-line) in division-clinching win Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City.

COLLEGE: Spent four seasons (2000-03) at Washington ... Did not see action as a freshman, but played 35 games with 23 starts over his final three seasons ... Scored a TD in each of his final three seasons, highlighted by a 38-yard INT return against Texas' Chris Simms in 2002 Holiday Bowl ... Had 15 career sacks ... Began career as a TE, but switched to defense early in his sophomore year.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Tempe, Ariz. ... Attended McClintock High School, where he played tight end and on defensive line ... Uses the first name "Tank," which he acquired for his aggressive playing style, but his given first name is Terry.

A former first-round NFL draft choice, Jones flashed his trademark playmaking flair in 2010, his first Bengals season ... But he was sidelined after five games by a neck injury ... Underwent offseason surgery, and was not cleared for practice as 2011 training camp began ... In his limited action for Bengals last season, had an INT, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, with a fumble return for a TD ... Though his 2010 kick return results were not outstanding, he has been a dangerous returner for most of his career, with four career punt returns for TDs ... Returned to NFL last season after sitting out 2009 ... Drafted sixth overall by Tennessee in 2005 and later played with Dallas.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Signed with Bengals as free agent on May 10 ... Played in Games 1-2 and 4-6, but suffered neck injury (herniated disc) in Game 6, Oct. 24 at Atlanta ... Placed Oct. 26 on Reserve/Injured list ... Inactive for Game 3 due to shoulder strain.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Averaged 18.5 yards on two kickoff returns in Bengals debut on Sept. 12 at New England, and also had four tackles ... Returned an INT 10 yards on Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore, carrying Joe Flacco pass to Ravens' 35 to set up FG, and also had a key block on 22-yard INT return by Leon Hall ... Two tackles and an end zone pass defended Oct. 3 at Cleveland ... On Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay, recovered Michael Spurlock fumble on kick return at Bucs' 29, setting up a TD drive that gave Cincinnati a 21-14 lead ... On Oct. 24 at Atlanta, stripped ball from WR Roddy White at Bengals' 41 and ran 59 yards after recovery for a TD to give Bengals a 25-24 lead in third quarter.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005—Drafted by Tennessee in first round (sixth overall) ... Primary starter at RCB, he led team in passes defended (12) and logged 53

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING RETURNS

The NFL's "flexible scheduling" format, which debuted in in 2006, will again be utilized this year for Weeks 10-15 and 17.

In Weeks 10-15, the schedule lists the game tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game will be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights.

The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot to conclude the season. The Christmas night game between the Bears and Packers in Week 16 will not be flexed.

A flexible scheduling move will be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the game may be announced six days prior.

A prodigious passer and rusher at Central Michigan, LeFevour was in uniform for every Bengals game last season, as the designated third QB on the inactive list ... Set in 2011 for his first Bengals training camp, as he was acquired just before the start of the '10 regular season ... Was a sixth-round 2010 draft pick by Chicago ... A starter from day one at Central Michigan, he departed as the only player in NCAA major school (FBS) history with more than 12,000 career passing yards and more than 2500 career rushing yards.

2010 RECAP: Drafted by Chicago in sixth round (181st overall) ... Played in all four Bears preseason games and passed 19-for-41 for 204-1-1 ... Rushed for 38 yards on five carries ... Acquired by Bengals on waivers on Sept. 5.

COLLEGE: Had a hand in producing an FBS-record

150 touchdowns, passing for 102 while scoring 48 himself ... Rushed for a school-record 47 TDs and got one as a receiver ... Career passing totals were 1171-of-1763 (66.4 percent) for 12,905 yards, 102 TDs and 35 INTs ... Rushed for 2948 yards on 671 carries (4.4 avg.) ... Earned bachelor of applied arts degree from Central Michigan, posting 3.57 GPA ... Last name is pronounced "le-FEE-ver."

FOND FAREWELL

The Bengals played their final game at Cinergy Field (previously known as Riverfront Stadium) on Dec. 12, 1999, and they made the finale a memorable one.

Before a sellout crowd of 59,972, the Bengals defeated Cleveland, 44-28, as the Cincinnati defense set a team record by allowing only 11 net rushing yards (on 11 carries). The Browns' long rushing gain of the day was three yards. The previous low by a Bengals opponent had been 18 yards on 17 carries by Seattle in an AFC Divisional playoff game on Dec. 31, 1988 at Riverfront Stadium. The previous low in a regular-season game was 26 yards on 17 carries by Pittsburgh on Sept. 19, 1982 at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh.

Offensively, the last game at Cinergy saw the Bengals roll for 279 rushing yards (on 53 carries) — at the time the second-most rushing yards in team history and the most ever in a home game (now the fourth-best in club history and the third-highest figure for a home game). The team record for rushing yards in a game is 407, set on Oct. 22, 2000 vs. Denver at Paul Brown Stadium.

5th year in NFL

College: Rutgers

2010 Games-Starts: 11-0

Career Games-Starts: 43-8

Acquired: T(STL.)'09

Born: 2-3-84

Fifth-year pro in his third Bengals season, Leonard has been valuable situational contributor on offense, particularly on third and fourth downs ... Re-signed with Bengals as unrestricted free agent on 7-30-11 ... Played in 11 games last season, missing five due to injuries ... Had nine rushes for 61 yards, including four fourth-down conversions, and two of those came after taking a direct snap on fake punts ... Caught 20 passes for 137 yards, including first career TD ... In 2009 division title season, he led Bengals RBs in receptions (30) and receiving yards (217) ... Has two career 100-yard rushing games.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Played in Games 3-5 and 7-14 ... Missed Games 1-2 due to rehab from foot sprain suffered in preseason opener ... Missed Game 6 with thigh injury ... Missed Game 15 due to ankle injury suffered Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland, and was placed on Reserve/Injured list on Dec. 28.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Made season debut in win Sept. 26 at Carolina, and his three-for-16 rushing included two fourth-down conversions — a four-yard run on a fake punt and a six-yard run on fourth-and-one ... Caught two-for-11 on Oct. 3 at Cleveland, including first career TD on a three-yard shovel pass in the fourth quarter ... Rushed for 42 yards from Bengals' 24 on a fake punt on Nov. 14 at Indianapolis, keeping alive a drive that produced a TD ... On Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans, had a 12-yard reception on a fourth-and-12 play.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2007—Drafted by St. Louis in second round (52nd overall) ... Saw action at HB, FB and on special teams while playing every game, with seven starts ... Posted 486 yards from scrimmage, including a 100-yard rushing effort ... Started at HB in Games 4-7 as replacement for injured Steven Jackson ... Rushed for 303 yards on the season on 86 carries (3.5 avg.) and was 30-for-183 receiving (6.1) ... Rushed 18-for-102 in starting role Oct. 7 vs. Arizona, with career-long 31-yard rush. 2008—Limited to two games with Rams ... Suffered shoulder injury Aug. 16 vs. San Diego and missed last two preseason games and Games 1-3 of regular season (inactive) ... Played in Games 4-5, but suffered reaggravation of shoulder injury and was placed on Reserve/Injured list on Oct. 13. 2009—Acquired by Bengals on May 7, in trade with St. Louis for DT Orien Harris ... Had 30 receptions for a career-high 217 yards in first Cincinnati season, and rushed 27-for-84 ... Had nine special teams tackles (sixth on team) and a key offensive fumble recovery ... On game-winning drive in the fourth quarter Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh, dove for the first-down marker to convert a fourth-and-10 play to the Steelers' four, and following TD reception by Andre Caldwell, Leonard caught two-point conversion pass to secure the eventual 23-20 final score ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, recovered an aborted shotgun snap to Carson Palmer at Ravens' 30, keeping alive Cincinnati's winning TD drive ... His three catches Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh included 17-yard gain on third-and-five as Bengals drove for go-ahead FG in fourth quarter ... On Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, his eight-yard catch converted third-and-seven on winning TD drive ... Two catches for seven yards in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

DRADDY TROPHY: As a Rutgers senior in 2006, Leonard was the winner of the Draddy Trophy, awarded by the National Football Foundation to the college player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance. Past winners have included NFL standout QBs Peyton Manning (1997) and Chad Pennington (1999). Past Bengals connections to the award include Ohio State QB Craig Krenzel (2003), who was with the Bengals in 2005, and Tennessee OT Michael Muñoz (2004), the son of Bengals Hall of Fame OT Anthony Muñoz.

MORE FROM COLLEGE: Left Rutgers with school records for receptions (207), TDs (45) and rushing attempts (678) and ranked fifth in rushing yards (2775) ... Played four seasons (2003-06), seeing action in 47 games with 45 starts, and set a Big East record for most games played with at least one catch in every contest (47) ... Led Big East in all-purpose yards as a sophomore in 2004, averaging 125.0 per game.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Gouverneur, N.Y. ... Attended Gouverneur High School, where he set New York state career scoring record with 696 points, including 107 TDs, while rushing for 5854 yards ... Holds degree from Rutgers in labor studies.

25 DOES THE TRICK

The Bengals are 30-2 under head coach Marvin Lewis in games with an individual rusher at 25 or more carries, a winning percentage of .938. That mark includes a 10-1 record when HB Cedric Benson has carried 25 or more times.

Cincinnati was 18-1 under Lewis when Rudi Johnson had 25 or more carries (over 2003-07), and the Bengals were 2-0 when Kenny Watson had a pair of 25-plus games (both in '07).

"It's not always the yardage total that's most important," says Lewis. "When your back is carrying 25 times, it means that even though the yardage will vary, you're controlling the ball, controlling the clock, and keeping your defense off the field. As it shows for us, that is very likely going to be a winning combination."

A STAT THAT MATTERS

For the term of coach Marvin Lewis (2003-present), a plus-differential in turnovers reflects a big plus in the win column. The Bengals' record is 40-9-1, a winning percentage of .810. With a minus differential, the record under Lewis is 7-43 (.140).

When the differential has been even, the results have been relatively even, with the Bengals at 13-15 (.464) under Lewis.

10 WINS, NO PLAYOFFS

The best Bengals team to miss out on postseason play was coach Bill Johnson's 1976 club, which went 10-4 but lost a tiebreaker to Pittsburgh for the AFC Central title. Only one Wild Card team made the playoffs from each conference at that time, and the berth went to an 11-3 New England club that lost a tiebreaker in the AFC East. One other Bengals team — the 1986 club — won 10 games (10-6) and failed to make the playoffs.

WLB played through painful foot condition (plantar fasciitis) last season to log career-best 15 games and rank No. 2 in tackles ... But he underwent wrist surgery in early July of this year and was not cleared for practice as 2011 training camp began ... His 85 tackles in 2010 gave him the team's No. 2 rank for the second straight year ... Tied for front-seven lead in passes defended (four), ranked second in tackles for loss (seven) and had one sack.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Played in Games 1 and 3-16 ... Inactive for Game 2, due to missed practice time from foot condition ... On Nov. 14 at Indianapolis, played only on special teams, due to missed practice time due to foot.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Second on team with nine tackles on Sept. 12 at New England, and also had a pass defended ... On Oct. 3 at Cleveland, tied for team lead with personal-high 14 tackles (tied for second-most by any Bengal in a 2010 game) ... Also at Cleveland, had five-yard sack of Seneca Wallace in second quarter, and an end zone pass defended that forced Browns to settle for FG ... Eight tackles on Oct. 24 at Atlanta (tied for team lead), and had one QB pressure ... Seven tackles, a pass defended, and a QB pressure on Oct. 31 vs. Miami ... Eight tackles, including one for loss, on Nov. 8 vs. Pittsburgh ... Led club with 13 tackles Nov. 25 at N.Y. Jets ... Ten tackles Dec. 26 vs. San Diego, including a stop of Ryan Mathews for no gain on first-and-goal from the one, part of a second-quarter goal-line stand that forced Chargers to settle for FG ... Tied for team lead with seven tackles (one for loss) on Jan. 2 at Baltimore.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2008—Drafted by Bengals in first round (ninth overall) ... Signed Aug. 5 ... Started Games 1-7, but suffered jaw fracture in Game 7, Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, in collision with Steelers WR Hines Ward

... Placed on Reserve/Injured list on Oct. 21 ... Ranked second on team in tackles (50) at the point of his injury ... Opened pro career with a pair of 11-tackle games, on Sept. 7 at Baltimore and Sept. 14 vs. Tennessee ... On Oct. 5 at Dallas, forced a Marion Barber fumble and recorded his first INT, returning 39 yards with a Tony Romo pass. 2009—Missed Games 9-11 due to calf injury, but still finished second on team in tackles (101) ... Twice tied the team's season high in tackles for a single game (14)—Oct. 4 at Cleveland and Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets ... Led team with 12 tackles in win Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, his fourth-quarter INT gave Bengals possession at Chargers' 33 ... Also at San Diego, had an eight-yard sack of Philip Rivers in fourth quarter and added two QB pressures, plus a tackle for loss on a rushing play.

COLLEGE: Played from 2004-07 at USC, capped by earning first-team All-America honors in 2007 from Sports Illustrated and Pro Football Weekly ... Played 49 games (36 starts), and helped USC to a 47-5 record over his four seasons ... As a senior, finished second in tackles (78) on a defense that ranked second in nation in fewest points allowed (16.0 avg.) and fewest yards allowed (273.2 avg.) ... Played in all 13 games as a freshman for 2004 club that claimed national championship with a 55-19 dismantling of Oklahoma in FedEx Orange Bowl ... Career totals included 240 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 18.5 tackles for loss, six fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles and two INTs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Lake Mary, Fla. ... Attended Lake Mary High School, where his multiple All-America football honors included nods from USA Today and Parade ... Named Gatorade Florida Football Player of the Year as a senior ... Born in Riverside, Calif., and lived in nearby San Bernardino for eight years before his family moved to Florida ... Majored in public policy, management and planning at Southern Cal.

PRO FOOTBALL: AMERICA'S FAVORITE SPORT BY FAR

America's favorite sport? Once again, professional football claims the top spot.

For more than four decades, according to The Harris Poll, the NFL has been the most popular sport in America. In its most recent survey (released Jan. 25, 2011), Harris — the pioneer in market research — reveals that pro football is the favorite sport of nearly one-third of people (31 percent). That is more than the combined total of the next three professional sports — baseball (17), auto racing (seven) and men's pro basketball (six).

In addition, professional football has gained in popularity more than any other sport since 1985 with a seven percent increase (from 24 to 31 percent).

The third favorite sport in the survey is college football at 12 percent, meaning that football is the favorite sport of 43 percent of America's sports fans.

The five most popular sports according to The Harris Poll 2011 (released Jan. 25, 2011):

Rank	Sport	Percent
1	Pro Football	31
2	Baseball	17
3	College Football	12
4	Auto Racing	7
5	Men's Pro Basketball	6

Ruffin began his rookie 2010 season as college free agent signee with Tampa Bay and closed on Bengals' practice squad ... Signed to Bengals' offseason roster on 1-3-11.

2010 RECAP: Signed April 26 with Tampa Bay as college free agent ... Played in all four Buccaneers preseason games, with two tackles and two QB pressures ... Waived by Tampa Bay on Sept. 5 ... Signed Nov. 2 to Bengals' practice squad, where he finished the season.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year standout at Northern Iowa, with 50 games played and 46 starts ... Totaled 25 sacks, 195 total tackles, 43 tackles for loss, five forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and a blocked kick ... Earned first-team FCS All-America honors as a senior in 2009 ... Earned Defensive Player of the Year honors in Missouri Valley Conference in both 2008 and '09 ... Played in East-West Shrine all-star game following his senior season.

PERSONAL: Born in Newark, N.J., but attended Burnsville (Minn.) High School, where he started in both football and basketball ... Earned degree from Northern Iowa in construction management.

*NOTE: Ruffin did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 2010 because he was not on a 53-player roster, a Reserve/Injured list or a Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a first-year player in 2011.

TWO-POINTERS ARE TOUGH

The Bengals were successful on two of their four two-point conversion attempts in 2010, and their opponents were one-for-one.

Since 1994, when the two-point conversion was added to the NFL rulebook, the Bengals are 17-for-45 (37.8 percent), and opponents are 17-for-40 (42.5 percent).

Scaife signed with Cincinnati as a free agent on 8-5-11 after six seasons with Tennessee ... Averaged 41.9 catches and 397.1 yards per year with the Titans ... Scored a career-best four touchdowns last season, with 36 catches for 318 yards ... His NFL receiving totals are 251 catches for 2383 yards and 12 TDs ... His catch total is the second-most in Titans history for a tight end ... Has played in 90 games, including 14 or more in each season ... Was an immediate success with Tennessee after being drafted in the sixth round in 2005.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Played in 14 Titans games with 13 starts ... His 36 catches ranked fourth on the team ... In win Sept. 12 vs. Oakland, he converted a key third-and-11 play with a 26-yard gain and later had a TD catch ... Led team in receiving yards (53) in win Oct. 18 at Jacksonville, and his two-yard TD catch gave Tennessee at 14-0 lead ... Led team Nov. 14 at Miami in receptions (seven) and receiving yards (51) ... Had first career game of two TD catches on Dec. 9 vs. Indianapolis.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005—Drafted by Tennessee in sixth round (179th overall) ... Played in every game and totaled 37 catches, a franchise rookie record, for 273 yards with two TDs ... Scored first TD on Oct. 2 vs. Indianapolis. 2006—Posted career-best average-per-catch (12.8 on 29-for-370), playing 14 Titans games with 12 starts ... On Nov. 12 vs. Baltimore, caught two-for-48 and scored a 13-yard rushing TD after a pitch from former Texas teammate Vince Young ... On Nov. 26 vs. N.Y. Giants, his TD catch was one of three fourth-quarter scores in a 24-21 comeback win.

2007—Played in every game and made career-high 15 starts, helping Titans to 10-6 record and Wild Card playoff berth ... Missed the playoff game due to lacerated liver suffered in season finale at Indianapolis ... His 46 receptions ranked third on team ... Tied for team receptions lead (five) on Nov. 25 at Bengals. 2008—His career highs of 58 receptions and 561 yards helped Titans to AFC-best 13-3 record ... Played 16 games for the second straight year (seven starts), and he started playoff loss vs. Baltimore, catching four-for-23 ... Had first career 100-yard game (six-for-105) on Sept. 7 vs. Jacksonville, and his career-long 44-yard catch set up game-winning TD in fourth quarter ... Career-best 10 catches in win Nov. 9 at Chicago. 2009—Ranked third on Titans in receptions (45) ... Missed two games with a knee sprain ... In win Nov. 29 vs. Arizona, had a 19-yard catch on game-winning 99-yard TD drive.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Texas (2001-04) ... Finished second among TEs for career receptions (85) and finished third among TEs in receiving yards (997) ... First-team All-Big 12 honors as a senior.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Denver, Colo. ... Attended J.K. Mullen High School, earning two-time first-team Class 5A all-state honors and Parade All-American nod ... Also an all-state baseball player ... Has a daughter, Mia Raye ... Graduated from Texas with degree in education ... Overcame three serious knee injuries (ACL) — one in high school and two in college — to reach the NFL ... As a youth, earned black belts in taekwondo and shotokan ... Last name is pronounced SKAYF (sounds like "safe" with a 'K').

Sixth-round draft choice from NCAA Division II ranks has been a significant contributor in each of his two Bengals seasons ... Has displayed big-play ability as both a rusher and a kickoff returner, with strength to break tackles and excellent instincts in traffic ... Ranked second on the team in rushing last season (61-299) and had 11 receptions for 60 yards ... His 4.9-yard rushing average led team (minimum 10 carries) ... Averaged 22.4 yards on 56 kickoff returns ... As a rookie, had a 100-yard rushing game and a kickoff return for a key TD.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Played in every game ... Averaged 5.8 yards per rush Sept. 12 at New England, carrying six-for-35, and also caught three-for-15 ... In win Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore, his 60-yard kickoff return in fourth quarter set up FG that erased 10-9 Ravens lead ... On Oct. 24 at Atlanta, had personal season-long 25-yard catch to Falcons' eight in fourth quarter, on Cincinnati's final TD drive ... Rushed six-for-43 (7.2 avg.) Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans, and returned five kickoffs for 33.0 avg. ... Season-high 11 carries Dec. 26 vs. San Diego, gaining 50 yards along with first career rushing TD, a 10-yarder late in fourth quarter that extended Bengals lead to 34-13 ... Rushed five-for-32, caught one-for-nine and averaged 25.5 yards on two kickoff returns Jan. 2 at Baltimore.

2009: Played 13 games (Games 1-11 and 15-16), and also played in Wild Card playoff ... Second on team with 321 rushing yards ... His 96-yard KO return was the only TD by either team in 18-12 win Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh that gave Bengals command of AFC North race ... Named

AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance at Pittsburgh, with total of five KORs for a 41.2-yard average ... Filling in for injured Cedric Benson on Nov. 22 at Oakland, he logged 119 rushing yards, including 61-yard gain that stands as Bengals' longest rushing play since 2002 ... His 31.5-yard season KOR average bested the 29.1 mark of NFL leader Clifton Smith of Tampa Bay, but Scott fell four short of the 20 returns needed to qualify for the league rankings ... Rushed 18-for-87 on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, including a 21-yard gain on a first-and-20 play on Cincinnati's only TD drive ... In Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, averaged 37.0 yards on two KOR, including 56-yarder to Jets' 36 on game's opening play.

COLLEGE: Posted mind-boggling numbers in two seasons (2007-08) at Abilene Christian and won the 2008 Harlon Hill Award (the NCAA Division II "Heisman") ... Rushed for 4321 career yards (2165 followed by 2156) and scored 73 touchdowns (63 rushing and 10 receiving) ... Averaged 8.6 yards per rush as a junior and 8.1 yards as a senior ... His season-low game rushing total in 2008 was 116 yards, and he had three games over 250 ... Began his college career at Central Arkansas in 2004 and played at Blinn JC in Brenham, Texas, in '06 ... Did not play football in 2005, due to off-field issues.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Vernon, Texas ... As a junior at Vernon High School in 2001, rushed for 2424 yards and 19 TDs in 13 games, earning Class 3A all-state honors ... Graduated from Wichita Falls (Texas) High School in 2003.

Shipley was a rookie hit last season, leading AFC rookies in receiving yards (600) and tying teammate Jermaine Gresham for AFC rookie lead in receptions (52) ... Ranked second among NFL rookies in receiving yards, and was tied for third in receptions ... First Bengal to lead AFC rookies in receiving yards since 1994 (WR Darnay Scott), and first Bengal to win or share of AFC rookie receptions lead since 1992 (Carl Pickens) ... Scored three TDs ... Continued the productivity that made him all-time receptions leader (248) at University of Texas while ranking second in school annals in receiving yards (3191) and TD catches (33).

2010 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in third round (84th overall) ... His only missed game was Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay, due to concussion suffered Oct. 3 at Cleveland ... Started four games — when offense opened in three-WR formation.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Caught five-for-82 in NFL debut Sept. 12 at New England, including a 51-yarder in traffic on a Hail Mary attempt just short of goal line in second quarter ... Led team with five catches (for 42 yards) on Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore ... Caught two-for-29 on Oct. 3 at Cleveland before suffering fourth-quarter concussion on a hit for which Browns were assessed personal foul penalty ... Returned to action on Oct. 24 at Atlanta and had first 100-yard game, catching six-for-131 including a 64-yard TD ... Caught five-for-71 on Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo, both team bests ... Led team with five catches (for 38 yards) on Nov. 25 at N.Y. Jets, and had five-yard TD catch with 43 seconds left in first half, giving Bengals 7-3 lead ... Caught only one pass on Dec. 26 vs. San Diego, but it was three-yard TD that extended Bengals lead to 10 points early in fourth quarter.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2006-09) at Texas, appearing in all 53 games with 35 starts ... His 248 receptions topped previous UT record of 241 (Roy Williams), and he had 205 of his catches over his last two seasons ... His three TDs on punt returns tied school record, and he also had a kickoff return for a TD ... In addition to his standout special teams work as a returner, he was the holder for field goals and PATs ... Named first-team all-American by Associated Press and Sporting News as a senior, when he set school records for receptions (116) and receiving yards (1485) ... Had 10 catches for 122 yards and two TDs against Alabama in 2009 season national championship game, despite Longhorns' loss of No. 1 QB Colt McCoy to a first-quarter injury ... Entered UT program in 2004, but did not play in '04 (due to knee injury) or '05 (due to hamstring injury).

PERSONAL: Hometown is Burnet, Texas ... Attended Rotan High School as a freshman, then transferred to Burnet High, and was coached by his father (Bob) at both schools ... Earned 2003 Parade All-America honors, and was named '03 Class 3A state Player of the Year by Texas Football magazine ... Earned degree from Texas in kinesiology in 2008, and was in graduate school while playing in '09.

Shirley looks to resume his career in 2011, after being unable to play last season due to Achilles tendon rupture he suffered while playing in charity basketball game in April 2010 ... Will open 2011 at DT — his original Bengals position as well as his position in college ... Was switched by Bengals coaches to offensive line during 2009 preseason, and was on practice squad as an OL for the full '09 campaign ... Played in three Bengals games at DT in 2008.

2010 RECAP: Signed Jan. 11 to Bengals' offseason roster, after closing 2009 on practice squad ... Was not medically cleared to play, due to continuing rehab from knee injury suffered in basketball game in April, and was waived in Non-Football Injury category on July 20 ... After clearing waivers, he reverted on July 21 to Bengals' Reserve/Non-Football Injury List.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2008—Drafted by Bengals in fifth round (145th overall) ... Signed July 15 ... Played in all four preseason games at DT, posting seven tackles and one sack ... Played in Games 12-14 of regular season ... Inactive or DNP for the other 13 games ... Made NFL debut Nov. 30 vs. Baltimore and had two tackles ... Recorded two tackles on Dec. 7 at Indianapolis (one for-loss). 2009—Opened preseason at DT, but was switched early in training camp to offensive line ... Played on O-line in all four preseason games ... Waived Sept. 5, and signed Sept. 6 to practice squad, where he spent the full season.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2004-07) as a defensive lineman at Fresno State ... Played 12 games in 2006, with 20 tackles, two sacks, 4.5 tackles for loss and three blocked kicks ... Redshirted in 2003; did not play.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Fontana, Calif. ... Finished his prep career at Kaiser High School, where as a senior he helped lead team to a 13-0-1 record and the Division III state title ... Prior to attending Kaiser High, he spent his first three seasons at A.B. Miller High School ... African-American studies major at Fresno State.

*NOTE: Shirley did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 2010 because he was not on a 53-player roster, a Reserve/Injured list or a Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a second-year player in 2011.

A 2009 college free agent signer from NCAA Division II ranks, Skuta has contributed significantly in his first two pro seasons ... Led special teams last season in tackles (16) and had a forced fumble, and as a rookie, he finished fifth in special teams stops (10) despite playing in only eight games ... Seeks more action in defensive rotation in 2011, and he also has been used as a blocking back on offense in short-yardage situations ... Chosen by coaches last season as Bengals' special teams coverage player for fan voting for Pro Bowl.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Forced a fumble by Jalen Parmele on kickoff coverage on Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore (Ravens recovered) ... Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles on Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay ... Led team on Oct. 24 at Atlanta with three special teams tackles ... Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles Nov. 14 at Indianapolis ... Led team with three special teams tackles on Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans ... Recorded his first two tackles of the year on defense in win Dec. 26 vs. San Diego.

2009: Signed by Cincinnati on April 30 as college free agent ... Played in all four preseason games and had four tackles on defense, including a shared sack ... Waived Sept. 5, and signed Sept. 6 to Bengals' practice squad ... Signed Oct. 8 to 53-player roster ... Played in eight games, and in that time rose to fifth-place finish on team with 10 special teams tackles ... Made regular-season NFL debut on Oct. 11 at Baltimore, with one special teams tackle ... Had two special teams stops Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, plus key block on Bernard Scott's 96-yard kickoff return for TD ... Had team-leading three special teams tackles Nov. 22 at Oakland, and also led team with three special teams stops Dec. 20 at San Diego.

COLLEGE: Earned first-team All-America honors in NCAA Division II as a senior at Grand Valley State (Allendale, Mich.), and he helped lead his teams to four-year record of 51-2, with two national titles ... Played defensive line and linebacker during his four seasons (2005-08) ... His 33.5 career sacks ranked third in NCAA Division II history, and he posted that total despite limited opportunities, as GVSU's team dominance led starting players to sit out much of the second half in lopsided games ... In nearly half his career games (25 of 53), GVSU won by 24 or more points ... GVSU was 40-0 in his first 40 games, going 13-0, 15-0 and 12-0 before losing in the 2007 playoffs to finish 12-1.

First-round selection from 2009 draft again targets starting ROT spot in 2011, following a pair of seasons partially lost to injury ... Moved into No. 1 ROT role in late October of last season, but was sidelined in November by a foot fracture ... Consensus 2008 All-America selection showed excellent quickness at Alabama as a pass blocker, and he is rated among the most powerful run blockers in Southeastern Conference history.

2010 PARTICIPATION: Played in seven games (Games 1-2 and 4-8) ... Seized No.1 ROT position for Games 6-8 ... Suffered foot fracture (fifth metatarsal) in practice Nov. 10, and placed on Reserve/Injured list Nov. 13 ... Inactive (coaches' decision) for Game 3.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Helped offense rank fifth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed per passing play (one every 22.07 plays) ... Aided offensive outputs of 469 yards on Oct. 24 at Atlanta (the most by the team since Game 2 of 2007), and 413 yards on Oct. 3 at Cleveland ... Supported 149 rushing yards, including 144 by HB Cedric Benson, on Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay.

2009: Drafted by Bengals in first round (sixth overall) ... Missed most of preseason due to contract negotiations ... Signed on Aug. 30, but suffered fracture in left foot in practice on Sept. 1 ... Was on roster exemption for season opener, Sept. 13 vs. Denver ... Added to roster on Sept. 14, and returned to practice the week of Game 7 ... Gameday inactive for Games 2-10 ... Played in Games 11-16, and credited with one start ... Made NFL debut on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland ... Supported three individual 100-yard rushing efforts over season's final six games, and aided a Bengals playoff record of 169 rushing yards by HB Cedric Benson in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (2006-08) at Alabama, entering NFL Draft after his junior year ... Started 38 games at LOT over three seasons, and was credited with 46 TD-producing blocks ... Was only the seventh true freshman in Crimson Tide history to start his first game in the program ... As a junior in 2007, he shared SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy with Arkansas C Jonathan Luigs, who was a Bengal in 2009.

SMITH MAKES IT FIVE: As a junior at Alabama, Smith won the 2008 Outland Trophy, the "Heisman" for linemen. The award currently goes to the player voted as the nation's top offensive lineman or interior defensive lineman. In earlier years, defensive ends were also eligible. Smith is the fifth Bengal to have won the Outland, joining DT Mike Reid (1969, Penn State), DE Ross Browner (1976, Notre Dame), C Dave Rimington (1981 and '82, Nebraska) and DE Jason Buck (1986, Brigham Young). All five Bengals' Outland winners were first-round draft choices by Cincinnati.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Birmingham, Ala. ... Attended Huffman High School, where he was the consensus top-rated offensive lineman in the nation as a senior ... Also as a prep senior, became the first OL to win the state of Alabama's "Mr. Football" award ... General studies major at University of Alabama.

Trent saw a promising 2010 season come to an early close, due to a knee injury ... Played in Games 1-8 (one start), but suffered knee injury in practice on Nov. 11, and was placed Nov. 15 on Reserve/Injured list ... Finished his season with 27 tackles, an INT and a fumble recovery, and through Game 9 ranked tied for third on team in passes defended (five) ... Also recorded three special teams tackles, and downed two punts inside opponent five-yard line.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Posted two tackles, two end zone passes defended and a recovery of a Jimmy Clausen fumble on Sept. 26 at Carolina ... Also at Carolina, downed a punt at Panthers' four ... On Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay, teamed with Reggie Nelson to down punt at Bucs' one ... Five tackles Oct. 24 at Atlanta, and downed Falcons' Eric Weems at Atlanta 17 on kickoff return ... Made first career start Oct. 31 vs. Miami, as injury replacement, and had one INT, picking off Chad Henne at Bengals' 37 in second quarter, with Cincinnati scoring on the next play ... Also vs. Miami, tied team season high for solo tackles (10).

TRENT TRIVIA: Trent led the NFL in the 2010 preseason in INTs (three). He snagged all three in the second half on Aug. 20 vs. Philadelphia, and became only second NFL player with three INTs in a preseason game since 1995, first year of official preseason records. The only other recorded instance of a player with three INTs in a preseason game was on Aug. 17, 2001, when Tennessee's Dainon Sidney had three against St. Louis.

2009: Drafted by Bengals in sixth round (179th overall) ... Played in Games 1-16, and in Wild Card playoff ... His 25 tackles included one sack, and he led secondary in QB pressures (four) ... Saw significant time in nickel CB role ... Made his first key play in win Oct. 4 at Cleveland, when his blitz in overtime helped force an incompleteness by Derek Anderson on third down, forcing a punt ... On Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, his deflection of a Ben Roethlisberger pass led to INT by DE Frostee Rucker ... On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, his four tackles included his first sack—a seven-yarder of Brady Quinn ... Had two tackles and a special teams stop in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Michigan ... In his college career, saw action in 48 games with 41 starts ... Redshirted (did not play) in 2004 ... Michigan career totals include 149 tackles, as well as seven INTs ... His 31 total passes defended ranked seventh in Wolverines history ... As a junior, was co-winner of team's Outstanding Defensive Contributor award.

PERSONAL: Hometown is San Diego, Calif., but moved to Michigan for his high school years ... Attended St. Mary's High School in Orchard Lake, Mich., where he set a school record with 23 INTs and also caught 84 passes on offense for 1533 yards and 16 TDs ... Also in high school, set indoor state track records in the 60-yard dash (6.83) and 200-meter run (21.79) ... Married (wife Lizette) ... Sociology major at Michigan ... Father, Phillip, played football at Nebraska.

6th year in NFL

College: Louisiana State
2010 Games-Starts: 16-16
Career Games-Starts: 74-70

Acquired: D2'06
(55th overall)
Born: 12-12-81

A key player on Bengals line since his rookie season, Whitworth started every 2010 game at LOT ... Helped Cincinnati offense rank second in AFC and sixth in NFL in fewest sacks allowed per passing play ... Opponents totaled only 28 sacks in 618 passing plays, an average of one every 22.07 plays, and offense allowed no sacks for 100 straight passing plays to close the season, including the last three games ... Had one fumble recovery to preserve an offensive possession, the fourth FR of his career ... His 70 career starts include 45 at OT and 25 at G ... Has played in every game in four of his five NFL seasons.

HE SCORES: On Dec. 12 of last season at Pittsburgh, Whitworth had his first career reception — for a one-yard TD after lining up as an eligible receiver. His score gave Cincinnati a 7-0 first-quarter lead. He became the first Bengals offensive lineman to score a TD since OT Melvin Tuten vs. Jacksonville in 1995, also on a pass reception.

MORE 2010 HIGHLIGHTS: Aided possession time of 36:22 in win Sept. 26 at Carolina ... Aided offensive outputs of 469 yards on Oct. 24 at Atlanta (most by the team since Game 2 of 2007), and 413 yards on Oct. 3 at Cleveland ... Supported 144 rushing yards by Cedric Benson on Oct. 10 vs. Tampa Bay ... Supplied 124-yard rushing game by Benson on Nov. 21 vs. Buffalo ... Extended a Bengals possession on Dec. 5 vs. New Orleans with recovery of a Benson fumble ... Aided 38:03 possession time and 188-yard team rushing output on Dec. 19 vs. Cleveland, both season bests ... Supported 371-net yard performance with no sacks allowed on Dec. 26 vs. San Diego.

Bengals in second round (55th overall) ... Veterans' injuries opened the door for him to make 12 starts among his 16 games played ... Made 10 of his 12 starts at LOT, replacing Levi Jones ... Made first pro start in his second game, Sept. 17 vs. Cleveland, starting as at LG ... On Nov. 12 vs. San Diego, helped offense produce season-high 545 yards and career-high 440 yards passing from Carson Palmer. 2007—Played 1041 of team's 1047 offensive snaps (99.4 percent) as Bengals set club record for fewest sacks allowed (17) ... Started at LG in Games 1-3, replacing injured Levi Jones ... When injured ROT Willie Anderson left the starting lineup in Game 4, LG Stacy Andrews replaced Anderson, and Whitworth replaced Andrews at LG, starting Games 4-16 ... Had a fumble recovery to preserve FG drive in victory Nov. 11 at Baltimore, covering a Carson Palmer fumble at Ravens' 17 ... Aided offensive output of 531 yards on Sept. 16 at Cleveland. 2008—Started Games 1-10 at LG, but suffered ankle injury in third quarter of Game 10, Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia ... Game-day inactive for Game 11, and was placed on Reserve/Injured list on Nov. 28. 2009—Voted by teammates as a team captain, and started all 16 games and Wild Card playoff at LOT ... Helped team finish ninth in NFL rushing (128.5 yards per game), including team-record eight games by individual backs of 100 or more yards ... His pass blocking helped Cincinnati finish ninth in league in fewest sacks allowed (29) ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, helped limit Ravens to one sack while helping Benson (27-for-120) become first player in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against Baltimore ... Supported Benson's career-high 189 rushing yards Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, while also aiding a sack-free performance up front ... Supported Benson for

2010 PFWA HONORS

The Cincinnati Chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America named OT Andrew Whitworth as the Bengals' 2010 Most Valuable Player, while HB Cedric Benson was the recipient of the organization's "Good Guy" award. The voters are the beat writers who cover the team on a daily basis.

Whitworth is the second offensive lineman to win the MVP award, joining OT Willie Anderson in 2006. Other past winners were QB Jon Kitna (2002-03), HB Rudi Johnson (2004), QB Carson Palmer (2005), WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh (2007-08) and CBs Leon Hall and Johnathan Joseph (2009).

Past "Good Guy" award winners were FB Lorenzo Neal, OT Willie Anderson, HB Brandon Bennett, LB Brian Simmons, DT John Thornton, WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, DT Bryan Robinson, G Bobbie Williams and QB Carson Palmer.

Anderson, Houshmandzadeh and Palmer are the only players to win both the MVP and Good Guy awards.

Bengals postseason-record 169 rushing yards in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: A pillar of the LSU line from 2002-05, Whitworth never missed a game or a practice due to injury ... Closed career with the second-most starts (52) in NCAA Division I annals ... Played primarily LOT and was credited with no sacks allowed as a senior and only one as a junior ... Earned All-SEC first-team honors as both a junior and senior, including consensus nod as a senior ... Second-team All-America choice by Walter Camp Foundation as a senior, and third-team All-America by Associated Press ... Started every game as a sophomore in 2003 as LSU won BCS national championship with 13-1 mark ... Spent five years at LSU, including 2001 redshirt season.

PERSONAL: Hometown is West Monroe, La. ... At West Monroe High School, was rated by CNNI.com as sixth-best offensive line prospect in the nation ... Led West Monroe to three Class 5A state football titles, as a freshman, sophomore and senior ... Graduated from LSU in December 2005 with a degree in general studies ... Former junior tennis champion in Louisiana, and is also an excellent golfer ... Married (wife Melissa) ... Has launched the BigWhit 77 Foundation to aid in community service efforts ... Hosts a fund-raising golf tournament in Louisiana, and enjoys serving as a motivational speaker to youth groups.

Eagles scored at least one rushing TD in each of his 10 starts. 2004—Signed March 26 with Bengals as unrestricted free agent ...

Part of starting line that fueled three consecutive games of 450-plus offensive yards (Games 11-13), only such streak in franchise history ... Paved the way for Rudi Johnson's club record (since broken) 1454 rushing yards. 2005—Helped offense set team record low of 21 sacks allowed (since surpassed) and aided Rudi Johnson's club-record 1458 rushing yards ... Paved way for offense's 426 net yards in division-clinching win Dec. 18 at Detroit ... Supported offense's 327 yards in Wild Card playoff 1-8-06 vs. Pittsburgh. 2006—Signed a long-term Bengals contract on April 7, replacing his existing deal ... Started Games 1-9 and 13-16 at RG ... Missed Games 10-12, due to rehab from appendectomy that he underwent on Nov. 15 ... On Nov. 12 vs. San Diego, helped offense produce season-high 545 yards, and a career-high 440 yards passing from Carson Palmer. 2007—Part of pass protection unit that ended season with club record for fewest sacks allowed (17) ... Had a fumble recovery to keep alive a TD drive in win Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee ... Aided offensive output of 531 yards on Sept. 16 at Cleveland. 2008—Selected by teammates as one of two season-long offensive captains ... On Sept. 21 at N.Y. Giants, prevented a turnover by recovering Carson Palmer fumble at Bengals' nine-yard line in first quarter ... On Dec. 21 at Cleveland, paved way for 191 rushing yards, including 171 by Cedric Benson. 2009—Helped AFC North champion Bengals finish ninth in NFL rushing (128.5 yards per game), including a team-record of eight games by individual backs of 100 or more yards ... His pass blocking helped Cincinnati finish ninth in league in fewest sacks allowed (29) ... Aided 141-yard rushing game by Cedric Benson on Sept. 20 at Green Bay ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, helped limit Ravens to one sack while helping Benson (27-for-120) become first player in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against Baltimore ... Helped Benson rush for a career-high 189 yards Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, while also aiding a sack-free performance up front ... Supported Benson for Bengals postseason-record 169 rushing yards in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: Started at OT for the last 35 games of his career at Arkansas ... As a senior, earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors, playing on a line that led the SEC in fewest sacks allowed (14), while helping the offense amass 4067 total yards.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Jefferson, Texas ... Attended Jefferson High School, and earned East Texas Lineman of Year honors as a senior ... Was all-district as a prep basketball player; also lettered in track ... Majored in vocational education at Arkansas ... Married (wife Anjeanise), with two children, Brandon and Tiana ... Enjoys playing pool.

THAT'S NO MISPRINT

In Games 3 and 4 of the 2009 season, the Bengals won vs. Pittsburgh and at Cleveland by the same score — 23-20 — and yes, that was unusual. It marked the only time in franchise history for the team to win consecutive games or lose consecutive games by the same score in the same season.

Only once previously had the same score been repeated in a season with different sides winning. In October of 1996, the Bengals followed a 28-21 loss at San Francisco with a 28-21 win vs. Jacksonville.

And only once previously has the same winning or losing score shown up in two straight games spanning two seasons. The 1999 Bengals lost their season finale 24-7 to Jacksonville, and the 2000 club opened with a 24-7 loss to Cleveland.

IN THE BEGINNING

The Bengals' inaugural season was 1968, when they began play in the American Football League (which merged with the NFL in 1970).

Pictured below are the cover from the team's first media guide — then known as the Press-Radio-TV Guide — and the cover of the game program from the first-ever Bengals game, a preseason matchup vs. Kansas City on Aug. 3, 1968 at the University of Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium.

That first Bengals team had a seven-man coaching staff (in contrast to the 2010 club's 17-man staff).

Head coach Paul Brown was joined by Bill Johnson (offensive line coach), Rick Forzano (offensive backfield), Jack Donaldson (defensive line), Tom Bass (defensive backfield), Bill Walsh (offensive ends) and Frank Smouse (linebackers).

The first player acquired by the Bengals was quarterback John Stofa, obtained from the Miami Dolphins in a trade for two draft choices. The Bengals' first draft choice was center Bob Johnson, from the University of Tennessee.

A.J. GREEN

Wide Receiver

Draft Round: 1st
Overall Selection: 4th
College: Georgia

Height: 6-4
Weight: 207

18

Green was a consensus choice as the top college WR in the nation last year, a multi-dimensional talent who earned top grades for all facets of his game ... A lanky, fluid athlete with great hands, he showed natural receiving skills beyond compare in the '11 class ... Also rated highly for speed, toughness, durability and desire ... Specializes in making the contested catch ... A star who has also been a great team player, he says that "staying humble is the only way you can be great" ... Playing on special teams as a junior, he blocked a field goal attempt.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "You have to have things on offense that push people. A.J. is a guy who will push the defense and make them defend him over the top. He stands out for his radius in catching the ball and running after the catch. And he has shown a great attitude and growth in knowing you never stop working hard to get better and better."

COACH JAY GRUDEN SAYS: "On draft day I felt like I just got up on Christmas and opened my favorite present. A.J. is not only a great player but a great person. He has a great attitude, and with his desire to work and ability to make plays, the sky is the limit for him."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played three seasons (2008-10) at Georgia ... In just 32 games, he posted the third-most receptions (166) and third-most receiving yards (2619) in Bulldogs history ... His 23 TD catches ranked second in program annals ... Posted seven games of 100-plus receiving yards ... Named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. 2010—Playing in only nine games, he still earned the team award as Most Valuable Player ... Led team with 57 catches for 848 yards and also led team with a career-best nine TDs ... His receiving TD total tied for second in school history ... Had three 100-yard games — vs. Colorado, Idaho State and Auburn — and scored two TDs in each of those contests ... Suspended for team's first four games due to NCAA rules violation. 2009—Playing in 10 games, led team in catches (53), receiving yards (808) and receiving TDs (six) ... Earned team's Most Valuable Offensive Player award ... Ranked second in Southeastern Conference in receiving yards per game (80.8) ... Blocked a FG attempt vs. Arizona State. 2008—Freshman of the Year in the SEC, he led the team with career-best 963 receiving yards and ranked second in catches (56) ... His catches and receiving yards set school records for a freshman ... Scored eight TDs.

GREEN ON GREEN: "I've been the same guy since day one. No matter how successful I am in life, I'm going to stay true to myself and stay humble and stay grounded. That's where your success comes from. Once you get that big head, it's over."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Summerville (S.C.) High, where he was a four-time all-state selection by Associated Press ... Was the only junior named to USA Today's 2006 All-USA team ... Totaled 269 receptions for 5279 yards (19.3 avg.) with 53 TDs, a per-season average of 67 catches for 1320 yards and 13 TDs ... Also lettered in baseball and track.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Summerville, S.C., same hometown as former Bengals RB Stanford Jennings ... Housing major at Georgia, and earned spot on Athletic Director's academic honor roll ... His full name is Adriel Jeremiah Green

ANDY DALTON

Quarterback

Draft Round: 2nd
Overall Selection: 35th
College: Texas Christian

Height: 6-2
Weight: 220
Born: 10-29-87

Dalton was the key player in TCU's return to football prominence in recent seasons ... His skill set and proven leadership abilities make him a candidate for significant playing time in his rookie NFL season ... A two-time Offensive Player of the Year in the Mountain West Conference, he authored an MWC-record 42 victories ... Arguably the most accurate passer in the 2011 draft, he is particularly adept at the key NFL skill of anticipating receivers' moves and delivering an on-target throw before they make their break, even when he's on the run ... A confident field general who commands respect in the huddle ... Rushed for 1611 career yards and 22 TDs ... As a senior, led TCU to a 13-0 season, capped by Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin, and No. 2 national ranking ... Over his junior and senior seasons, Horned Frogs were 25-1.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "We went through quite a process looking at all the quarterbacks (in the draft), and we were drawn to Andy because he's a guy we believe can come in and contribute immediately if need be. He's mature enough and ready to handle it. What he accomplished at TCU goes without saying."

COACH JAY GRUDEN SAYS: "His accuracy is uncanny — it's not even close among the guys coming out this year. I thought he was also the most poised quarterback. He can move and do a lot of things, a great fit for this offense. He's a winner, he loves football, and he wants to learn it all and be the best."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2007-10) at TCU, seeing action in 50 games with 49 starts ... His record as a starter was 42-7, with four bowl appearances (three wins) ... A strong rusher as well as a fine passer, he set a new Mountain West Conference record for total offense (11,925 yards) ... Set TCU records for pass attempts (1317), completions (812), passing yards (10,314) and TD passes (71) ... His TD/INT differential was plus-41 (71/30) ... Also with the program in 2006 (redshirted and did not play). 2010—Started every game of TCU's 13-0 season ... Named Most Valuable Offensive Player in 21-19 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin, passing for one TD and rushing for another ... Set school records for passing yards (2857), total offense (3292) and completion percentage (66.1) ... Also passed for school-record 27 TDs, and had only six INTs ... Played for South team in 2011 Senior Bowl. 2009—Led TCU to 12-0 regular season prior to Fiesta Bowl loss to Boise State ... Started every game ... His 2756 passing yards were a school record, until he set a new mark in 2010 ... Rushed for career-high 512 yards ... Had nearly three times as many TD passes (23) as INTs (eight). 2008—Led Horned Frogs to 11-2 season, capped by Poinsettia Bowl win over Boise State ... Had lowest INT percentage of his career, with only five thefts in 307 attempts (1.6 pct.) ... Scored career-best eight rushing TDs ... 2007—Started 12 of 13 games as a freshman, as TCU posted 8-5 season capped by Texas Bowl victory over Houston ... Named Texas Bowl Most Valuable Player, posting season-high completion percentage (70.0) on 21-of-30 for 249 yards ... His 2691 yards of total offense set a Western Athletic Conference freshman record.

DALTON ON DALTON: "I just need to keep doing what I've been doing my whole life — working hard, getting around guys and gaining their trust and preparing myself to be the best. I'm a perfectionist when I'm on the field. I don't want any balls to hit the ground in practice. I think I know what pushes guys to get them to respond, and I'm hoping to carry that into the NFL."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Katy (Texas) High School, in Greater Houston ... Led team to a 14-1 record and Texas 5A finals berth as a senior, completing 161 of 254 passes (63.4%) for 2877 yards, 42 TDs and 15 INTs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Katy, Texas ... Marketing major at TCU ... Married in July 2011 (wife Jordan).

DONTAY MOCH

Linebacker

Draft Round: 3rd
Overall Selection: 66th
College: Nevada

Height: 6-2
Weight: 241
Born: 7-19-88

52

Moch was the fastest linebacker prospect selected in the 2011 draft, but at 248 pounds, he also brings plenty of ability to wreak physical havoc ... Few players his size have timed at or below 4.40 seconds in 40-yard dash, but Moch clocked a 4.40 at the Scouting Combine, hit 4.31 at a Nevada pro day and claims an unofficial best of 4.2 ... His strength and speed on the edge give him excellent pro pass rush potential, and he'll be counted on as an immediate contributor on special teams ... Credited with 30 sacks and 63 TFL in his Nevada career, and also forced nine fumbles ... As a junior, became first Nevada player to win Defensive Player of the Year honors in Western Athletic Conference.

COACH MIKE ZIMMER SAYS: "Dontay's production (at Nevada) was excellent. His speed and strength were excellent. Everything he did there was excellent. He played mostly as an end, in a three-point stance, so he's got a challenge converting to linebacker. But he's got the rare qualities you look for — including intelligence — and we as coaches are looking to convert it from there. Because of his production level, you can't say he's just a 'measurables' guy that we're just hoping can play linebacker."

MOCH ON MOCH: "With the speed I have, I try to shock and amaze people. I've got hard work ahead to take that into the NFL, but that's what I want to do with my career."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played in four seasons (2007-10) at Nevada after a redshirt year in '06 ... His 63 tackles for loss shattered the former Western Athletic Conference record of 50.5, and his 30 sacks ranked second in WAC annals, just one short of the record ... His nine forced fumbles set a school record and ranked third in WAC history ... Played in 53 games with 39 starts, starting 39 of 40 games over his final three seasons. 2010—Helped lead Wolf Pack to 13-1 record, including win over then-No.

3 ranked Boise State ... Nevada finished with No. 11 AP final ranking ... Credited with 8.5 sacks, and broke his own school record with 22 tackles for loss, tied for most in WAC history. 2009—Earned WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors, posting 61 tackles, 6.5 sacks, 20.0 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and three passes defended ... Draft Round: 4th
Overall Selection: 101st
College: Georgia

Height: 6-5
Weight: 311
Born: 5-9-89

A coach's dream at one of the nation's top programs, Boling showed talent, versatility, consistency and character during four years as a Georgia starter ... Capped his career by earning first-team All-America honors on the 2010 team selected by Pro Football Weekly ... Played every line position except center while seeing action in 51 games with 49 starts, second-most starts for a non-kicker in Bulldog history ... Has ideal NFL size and good "measurables" ... Brought the same attitude and desire to Georgia's subpar 2010 season that he contributed while starting for a pair of teams with double-digit wins earlier in his career.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "Clint is a big man with strength, and he really is a competitor. He'll be competing for time on the interior line, and he has played tackle in college as well."

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "We didn't coach Clint at the Senior Bowl, because he was on the other team, but we got the opportunity to meet him and interview him and just see what kind of kid he was as he interacted with people through the week. He's a high-quality kid — very smart, competitive and a leader. He has all the intangibles you're looking for."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—The only non-kicker in the Georgia program to top Boling's total of 49 career starts was a QB, David Greene (52) ... Started 19 games at LOT, 19 at RG and 11 at ROT ... Voted to Georgia's 2001-10 Team of the Decade ... Played the 2007-10 seasons. 2010—Served as a team captain and helped the offense produce an average of 385 net yards per game ... First-team All-Southeastern Conference choice by league coaches ... Started every game, logging six at LOT, five at RG and two at ROT ... Named as winner of the team's Leon Farmer Award, given for dedication to the strength and conditioning program. 2009—Started every game for Georgia club that finished 8-5 with Independence Bowl victory over Texas A&M ... Started six games at ROT, six at LOT and one at RG ... Earned first-team All-SEC honors from Sporting News ... Helped Bulldogs lead the SEC and finish sixth nationally in fewest sacks allowed (0.92 per game). 2008—Played and started 12 games as a sophomore on 10-3 Georgia team that closed with Capital One Bowl win over Michigan State ... Helped team rank second in SEC in net offense (426.0 yards per game) ... Earned Sophomore All-America second-team honors from College Football News. 2007—Began his college career by playing 13 games and starting 11 for team that went 11-2 with Sugar Bowl victory over Hawaii ... Started 10 games at RG and one at ROT ... Helped offense allow only 15 sacks, ranked No. 13 in nation.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Chattahoochee (Ga.) High, earning Class AAAAA All-State honors from Atlanta Journal-Constitution and Georgia Sports Writers Association as a senior in 2006 ... Played tight end as a sophomore, and saw action on offensive line and at defensive end as a junior and senior ... Also started for the basketball team.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Alpharetta, Ga. ... Majored at Georgia in management information systems ... In high school, named as school's Academic Athlete of the Year in 2004 and '05.

ROBERT SANDS

Safety

49

Draft Round: 5th
Overall Selection: 134th
College: West Virginia

Height: 6-4
Weight: 209
Born: 11-3-89

Sands is a high-value fifth-round pick for his combination of size and athleticism ... Named a first-team 2010 All-American by The Sporting News ... In three seasons at West Virginia, he earned the reputation of a fearless player who relishes being a physical presence ... Has the speed (4.53 in 40) to be effective in pass coverage, and his power led West Virginia to use him occasionally as a nickel LB and as an edge pass rusher out of a three-point stance ... Projected as a strong safety for the NFL, but he played both safety spots in college.

COACH KEVIN COYLE SAYS: "West Virginia utilized Robert in a lot of places because he's rare athlete — size, speed and wingspan — with very good football instincts. Watching the tape, the thing that impressed us most was his ability to be decisive and attack the line of scrimmage. We're also confident he can contribute right away on all four of the special teams units."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played 39 games with 31 starts in three seasons (2008-10) at West Virginia, entering NFL draft after his junior year ... Helped lead Mountaineers to three consecutive 9-4 seasons ... Totaled 151 tackles, six INTs, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and 1.5 sacks. 2010—In addition to his Sporting News All-America selection, he was a consensus All-Big East first-team choice ... Started all 13 games in helping WVU rank third in FBS in total defense (261.1 yards per game) and scoring defense (13.5) ... Leader of a secondary that led Big East and ranked 13th nationally in pass defense efficiency rating (110.49). 2009—Played in every game and started the last nine, posting career highs in INTs (five), tackles 65 and passes defended (eight) ... Earned first-team All-Big East honors and was named conference Defensive Player of the Week for a dominant performance in win over archrival Pittsburgh ... His five INTs tied for Big East Lead and were the most in a season by a WVU defensive back since 1994. 2008—Played in every game as a freshman, starting the last nine for club that capped its season with win over North Carolina in Meineke Car Care Bowl ... Helped Mountaineers lead Big East and rank 11th nationally in scoring defense (17.0) ... Made Big East All-Freshman team.

SANDS ON SANDS: "This is the beginning for me. It's not where you start, it's where you finish. I'm starting off as a fifth-rounder, but I'm hoping to end up on top. When I step out on that field, my goal is to make sure everybody knows who I am and that they have to account for me."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Carol City (Fla.) High, where he earned second-team all-state honors as a senior ... Named a Dade County Top 25 performer by the Miami Herald ... Also excelled in track and field, finishing third in triple jump at the 2007 state meet.

PERSONAL: Born in Jacksonville, Fla., but grew up in Carol City, Fla., in Greater Miami ... General studies major at West Virginia, earning spot on Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll as a junior.

RYAN WHALEN

Wide Receiver

88

Draft Round: 6th
Overall Selection: 167th
College: Stanford

Height: 6-1
Weight: 202
Born: 7-26-89

Productive and reliable, Whalen was one of the top targets for standout Stanford quarterback Andrew Luck ... Helped lead team to No. 4 national ranking last season ... Tough in traffic, he was regarded as one of the best route runners in the college ranks ... Doesn't earn scouts' raves in speed tests, but has found a way to get open in game action against top defenders ... An excellent blocker, and has high potential to be a big rookie contributor on special teams ... In high school, was an all-state performer in both football and basketball.

COACH JAMES URBAN SAYS: "This is the guy that Stanford was looking for when it was third-and-six in a key game. This kid is a winner. He plays the game the way you want it played. He's tough, he's physical, and he's the kind of guy you want in your meeting room and on your team."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2007-10) at Stanford, appearing in 48 games with 27 starts ... Was the team's leading receiver as a sophomore and as a junior, and finished second overall as a senior, when he missed two games and was limited in several others due to an injury. 2010—An honorable mention All-Pac 10 selection for the second straight year, he was a team captain and had 41 receptions for 439 yards and two TDs ... Key performer in 12-1 Stanford season capped by 40-12 demolition of Virginia Tech in Orange Bowl. 2009—Played in all 13 games with 10 starts, posting career highs in receptions (57), receiving yards (926) and TDs (four) ... Helped team fashion an 8-5 season with berth in Sun Bowl ... Caught nine-for-123 with two TDs vs. Wake Forest, and went six-for-118 vs. UCLA. 2008—Emerged as Stanford's top receiver, following a freshman season in which he had only one catch ... Played in 12 games with seven starts ... Caught 34-for-446 in season's final eight games ... Caught eight-for-91 vs. Notre Dame. 2007—Played in all 12 games ... Had his only reception in the Washington State game.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Monte Vista High in Danville, Calif., where he earned all-state honors as a senior, catching 80 passes and scoring 14 TDs ... Also earned all-state honors in basketball.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Alamo, Calif. ... Majored at Stanford in science, technology and society ... As a college junior, earned second-team Academic All-America honors from ESPN The Magazine.

KOREY LINDSEY

Cornerback

38

Draft Round: 7th
Overall Selection: 207th
College: Southern Illinois

Height: 5-10
Weight: 189
Born: 2-3-89

A shut-down corner in the FCS ranks, Lindsey brings good speed to his bid to crack Bengals roster, and he has the size to match up with NFL receivers ... Had back-to-back seasons of six INTs as a sophomore and junior for Southern Illinois, and his drop to one INT as a senior was seen as largely the result of opponents avoiding his side of field ... Became second player in program history with five or more INTs in consecutive seasons, joining Terry Taylor, who was a first-round Seattle draft choice in 1984 ... Third player in school history to earn first-team All-America honors in consecutive seasons.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "Korey had a very productive career at Southern Illinois. We like his speed and his awareness and ability to play the ball. He has also been a good, physical tackler."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2007-10) at Southern Illinois, appearing in 50 games with 36 starts ... His 14 career INTs rank third in program history ... Helped lead team to two FCS postseason berths ... Credited with allowing only 64 completions on 243 passes into his area, completion percentage of 26.3.

2010—Earned first-team All-America honors from Associated Press and NFL Draft Report, and he became the first Saluki to earn three straight berths on All-Missouri Valley Football Conference first team ... Avoided by opposing offenses all season, he was credited with allowing just 11.9 percent of passes to his area to be completed. 2009—Had six INTs in helping lead Salukis to 11-2 record and quarterfinals berth in FCS playoffs ... Started every game and had career-best 63 tackles ... First-team FCS All-America selection by Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and NFL Draft Report ... Named as co-National Defensive Player of the Week by The Sports Network after leading win over Youngstown State with two INTs, 12 tackles and a sack. 2008—Led the conference and ranked ninth nationally with six INTs ... Helped lead a 9-3 season with berth in FCS playoffs ... Started all 12 games. 2007—As a true freshman, played in every game as SIU went 12-2, reaching semifinals of FCS playoffs ... Shared RCB duties in a three-player rotation.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Scotlandville High in Baton Rouge, La., where he played DB and WR and was a two-time Class 4A all-state selection ... Best two-way season was as a junior, when he had seven INTs, 68 tackles, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 33 receptions for 543 yards and seven TDs, plus 102 rushing yards on just eight carries ... Also played basketball and competed in track and field.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Baton Rouge, La. ... Recreation major at Southern Illinois.

ADDITIONAL STATISTICS: Kickoff Returns—3 returns for 85 yards (28.3 avg., long of 37) in 2007; 1 return for 19 yards in 2010.

Draft Round: 7th
Overall Selection: 246th
College: Baylor

Height: 5-11
Weight: 202
Born: 5-15-88

Following a junior season in which he was limited by an ankle injury, Finley vaulted himself into draft consideration as a senior, setting a Baylor season record with 1218 rushing yards ... On the way to his 1218 total, he set Bears' single game record with 250 yards (on 26 carries) against Kansas State ... Shows good potential as a receiver out of the backfield.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "Jay was very productive for Baylor, except the one year he was injured. He has the ability to catch the ball and get positive yardage in addition to being a fine rusher. What we were looking for at that point in the draft was a guy who would show some versatility to be a good complement in our offense as we move forward."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2007-10) at Baylor, with 46 appearances and 22 starts ... His 2660 rushing yards rank third in school history, his 5.6-yard rushing average ranks second, and his 22 rushing TDs rank fourth. 2010—Averaged 6.2 yards per rush, compiling his school-record 1218 yards on just 195 attempts ... His 12 rushing TDs ranked third in Baylor annals ... Started all 12 games and earned honorable mention All-America honors from Sports Illustrated ... Did his best work in Big 12 conference games, averaging 114.5 rushing yards ... Had three straight games of 100-plus rushing yards, against Kansas State, Texas and Texas A&M ... His 82-yard rush vs. Kansas State was second-longest in school history. 2009—Battling an ankle injury for much of the season, he was limited to nine games played and three starts ... His 370 rushing yards led the team, and he had a 72-yard scoring run vs. Connecticut. 2008—Played 12 games with six starts as a sophomore ... Averaged 5.8 yards per rush (149-865) ... Rushed for seven TDs and scored two more on receptions ... Had the first of his eight 100-plus rushing games with a 10-for-119 performance vs. Washington State. 2007—Played 12 games with one start as a freshman ... His 207 rushing yards ranked second on team, and he had a career-high 18 receptions (for 152 yards). 2006—Redshirted (did not play) as a true freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Corsicana (Texas) High, where in two seasons he totaled 2148 rushing yards with 7.2-yard avg. ... Earned Honorable Mention All-State honors as a senior from Texas Sports Writers Association, rushing 206-for-1404 (6.8) with 12 TDs ... Committed to Baylor prior to the start of his senior season.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Corsicana, Texas ... Majored at Baylor in general studies, and earned bachelor's degree in May 2010 ... Two-time member of Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll.

2010 BENGALS GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1 Patriots 38, Bengals 24

Sunday, Sept. 12, at Gillette Stadium

The Bengals racked up 428 net offensive yards, outgaining New England by more than 50 yards, but most of them came too late to affect the decision. The Patriots rolled to a 24-3 halftime lead and made it 31-3 on WR Brandon Tate's 97-yard kickoff return to open the second half. Bengals QB Carson Palmer passed for 345 yards, his most since Game 2 of 2007, but his TD passes to TE Jermaine Gresham and WR Chad Ochocinco were offset by a 59-yard INT return for a TD by New England LB Gary Guyton. With 53 receiving yards, Bengals WR Terrell Owens became the third receiver in NFL history to pass 15,000 career yards. Ochocinco had 12 receptions (tying his career high) for 159 yards and he became the first Bengal to pass the 10,000 mark in career receiving yards.

Game 2 Bengals 15, Ravens 10

Sunday, Sept. 19, at Paul Brown Stadium

For the fifth time in franchise history, the Bengals won a game without scoring a TD. K Mike Nugent, a sixth-year NFL vet playing just his second contest with Cincinnati, was five-for-five on field goals. He connected from 36 and 30 yards in the second quarter, from 46 yards in the third quarter, and from 38 and 25 yards in the fourth quarter. His third field goal erased a 7-6 Ravens lead, and his fourth field goal wiped out a 10-9 Ravens advantage. The Bengals held Baltimore to 259 net yards and had four INTs, their most since getting four on Dec. 23, 2007 vs. Cleveland. WR Chad Ochocinco's four receptions put him at 700 for his NFL career, as he became the 30th player to reach that mark. Nugent's performance earned him the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award. The Bengals won their franchise-record eighth straight division game, with the streak dating back to the final division contest of 2008. The Bengals improved to 1-1 while Baltimore fell to 1-1.

Game 3 Bengals 20, Panthers 7Sunday, Sept. 26, at Bank of America Stadium

The Bengals recovered three fumbles, their most in a span of 42 games, and also had an interception by CB Leon Hall as they held off winless Carolina to win their second straight game. On a rainy day, Cincinnati's pass offense struggled for much of the game, including two first-half INTs, but QB Carson Palmer hit three consecutive completions on a fourth-quarter drive, including a seven-yard TD to HB Cedric Benson, to essentially ice the game at 20-7. Benson had scored the first Bengals TD on a one-yard run in the first quarter, and with the TD catch, he became the first Bengal to score a rushing and a receiving TD in the same game since HB Corey Dillon in 2001. The TD reception was the first of Benson's NFL career. The Bengals improved to 2-1, and Carolina fell to 0-3.

Game 4 Browns 23, Bengals 20Sunday, Oct. 3, at Cleveland Browns Stadium

The Bengals rolled for a 413 net yards on offense but could not overcome a minus-one turnover differential and a subpar performance in the red zone. Cincinnati had to settle for FGs on two of three drives which penetrated the Browns' 20-yard line, scoring just one red-zone TD. The Bengals made up an early 10-0 deficit, tying the score at 10-10 with 3:30 left in the second quarter, but the Browns counterpunched for a 23-10 lead before Cincinnati launched a comeback that fell short. Trailing 23-20, the Bengals reached the Cleveland 31 with 5:20 to play, but an offensive pass interference penalty against WR Chad Ochocinco and a sack of QB Carson Palmer pushed the Bengals out of FG range, and the Browns ran out the clock after a Bengals punt. WR Terrell Owens caught 10 passes for 222 yards for the Bengals and moved past Isaac Bruce into second place all-time in NFL receiving yards (15,325). Owens' 78-yard TD connection with Palmer in the second quarter was the longest completion of Palmer's career, and the 222 yards were the second-most in a game in Owens' 15-season career. The Bengals fell to 2-2 and the Browns improved to 1-3.

Game 5 Buccaneers 24, Bengals 21

Sunday, Oct. 10, at Paul Brown Stadium

Tampa Bay delivered a late gut punch to the Bengals as the team's 55th consecutive sellout crowd looked on at Paul Brown Stadium. The Bucs made two INTs in the final 2:28 of play, rising from a 21-14 deficit to a 24-21 win on Connor Barth's 31-yard FG with :01 remaining. The Bucs tied the score at 21-21 on a 20-yard pass from QB Josh Freeman to WR Mike Williams with 1:26 to play. QB Carson Palmer threw for TDs to WR Terrell Owens and TE Jermaine Gresham, but his three INTs were his most in a game since he allowed a career-high four on Nov. 18, 2007 vs. Arizona. Bengals HB Cedric Benson had his first 100-yard rushing game of the season (23 carries for 144 yards) and totaled 163 yards from scrimmage. Owens had his second straight game of more than 100 receiving yards, recording seven receptions for 102 yards with a 43-yard TD. The Bengals fell to 2-3 while Tampa Bay, a 3-13 team in 2009, improved to 3-1.

Sunday, Oct. 24, at Georgia Dome

The Bengals staged an exciting comeback, but in the end did not win. Down 24-3 at halftime, they struck for a FG and three TDs in the third quarter and entered the final period with a 25-24 lead. The go-ahead TD was provided by CB Adam Jones, who forced a fumble by WR Roddy White and returned it 59 yards for a TD. But the Falcons responded to Jones' TD by driving 74 yards in eight plays, with White scoring on an 11-yard pass. Following CB Brian Williams' recovery of a fumble by HB Cedric Benson, the Falcons drove 48 yards for another score and a 39-25 lead. The Bengals closed to 39-32 on WR Chad Ochocinco's eight-yard TD catch with 1:33 remaining, but Cincinnati did not get the ball back again until it took over on its own four-yard line with only 28 seconds to play. Ochocinco's TD catch was the 64th of his Bengals career, pushing him out of a tie with former WR Carl Pickens for the franchise all-time lead. Bengals WR Terrell Owens scored his 150th NFL TD on a 19-yard reception. Bengals QB Carson Palmer's 412 passing yards were the second-most of his career. But Atlanta's White had 201 receiving yards, most against the Bengals since 1991. The Bengals fell to 2-4, while the Falcons improved to 5-2.

Game 7 Dolphins 22, Bengals 14

Sunday, Oct. 31, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals held leads of 7-0 and 14-6 in the first half, but finished the day with their fourth straight loss as Miami posted a 16-0 run to end the game. Cincinnati managed only 78 yards net offense in the second half and finished only six-for-16 on third-down conversions after going four-for-four on a game-opening TD drive. The Dolphins had no TDs and only a 15-14 lead (on five Dan Carpenter FGs) through three quarters, but they took full control by moving 96 yards in six plays for a TD on their first possession of the fourth quarter. WR Terrell Owens scored both Bengals TDs, on catches of seven and 37 yards, moving his fifth-ranked all-time NFL TD total to 152. Cincinnati fell to 2-5, while Miami improved to 4-3.

Game 8 Steelers 27, Bengals 21

Monday night, Nov. 8, at Paul Brown Stadium

For the second time in three games, the Bengals dug an early hole and lost despite an impressive second-half rally. Against the Steelers, Cincinnati trailed 27-7 early in the fourth quarter but rallied to within 27-21 with more than nine minutes to play. Following a missed Pittsburgh FG try, the Bengals drove from their 36 to the Pittsburgh 12, but fell short of a possible game-winning TD when Pittsburgh broke up a fourth-down pass inside its five with 34 seconds left. It was the Bengals' fifth straight loss, all of them by one-score margins. Cincinnati lost despite the second straight two-TD game by WR Terrell Owens, who led all receivers in catches (10) and yards (141). The Steelers had a 99-yard rushing day by RB Rashard Mendenhall and a 110-yard receiving game by WR Mike Wallace. The Bengals fell to 2-6, while the Steelers rose to 6-2, remaining tied with Baltimore for the AFC North lead.

Game 9 Colts 23, Bengals 17
Sunday, Nov. 14, at Lucas Oil Stadium

The Bengals went down early against Indianapolis, trailing 17-0 just two plays into the second quarter. The Colts scored both TDs off Cincinnati turnovers, as CB Kelvin Hayden scored on a 31-yard INT return and the second TD was set up by a lost fumble by HB Cedric Benson. Cincinnati battled hard for the rest of the game, but its comeback bid was scuttled by a turnover differential that reached minus-five by game's end (five giveaways, no takeaways). The Bengals closed a 23-10 deficit to 23-17 on a 19-yard TD reception by rookie TE Jermaine Gresham with 2:35 to play, and then Cincinnati recovered an onside kickoff to get in position for a potential game-winning drive. But on the first play of the march, Colts Pro Bowl DE Dwight Freeney forced a fumble by Gresham following a reception, and Freeney recovered to essentially end the contest. Bengals K Mike Nugent suffered a season-ending knee injury on the successful onside kick. The Bengals fell to 0-7 in games against Colts QB Peyton Manning, though Manning did not manage a TD pass. Cincinnati fell to 2-7 while the Colts improved to 6-3.

Game 10 Bills 49, Bengals 31
Sunday, Nov. 21, at Paul Brown Stadium

Cincinnati was outscored 42-3 after mounting a 28-7 second-quarter lead, and the Bills' 35-0 second half marked the first time in history the Bengals were blanked in a half while giving up 35 or more points. The Bengals led 31-14 at halftime and allowed the Bills to become the first team in NFL history to win by 18 or more after trailing by 17 or more at halftime. The Bills had a 300-yard passer, a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver. Still leading 31-28 in the third quarter, the Bengals moved to the Buffalo five-yard line, but on third down, S.George Wilson intercepted a Carson Palmer pass five yards deep in the end zone and returned it 56 yards, setting up a TD drive that put the Bills ahead for good. Buffalo WR Steve Johnson tied a Bengals opponents' record with three TD receptions. The Bengals fell to 2-8 while the Bills improved to 2-8. The Bills defeated Cincinnati for the 10th straight time, a new record streak for a Bengals opponent.

Game 11 Jets 26, Bengals 10

Thursday night, Nov. 25,
at New Meadowlands Stadium

The Bengals lost for the second straight week after leading at halftime. QB Carson Palmer's five-yard TD pass to rookie WR Jordan Shipley gave Cincinnati a 7-3 lead at the break, rewarding a consistent first-half defensive effort. But the Jets wiped out the lead early in the third quarter when WR Brad Smith scored on a 53-yard run on a reverse, and two special teams plays led to the Jets pulling away. The Bengals muffed a punt later in the third quarter, with the Jets recovering at the Cincinnati 14 and scoring two plays later. And after the Bengals pulled to within 17-10 on an Aaron Pettrey 28-yard FG, the Jets applied the finishing blow with an 89-yard Smith kickoff return for a score and a 24-10 edge. The Bengals were held to a season-low 163 net yards on offense. Cincinnati fell for the eighth game in a row and dropped to 2-9, while the Jets improved to 9-2.

Game 12 Saints 34, Bengals 30

Sunday, Dec. 5, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals temporarily overcame a 20-6 lead by the defending NFL champions, rallying to go ahead 30-27 when rookie K Clint Stitser, playing his first NFL game, nailed a 47-yard FG with 4:25 left. But the Saints, who thrived on big plays all day, used a 42-yard Drew Brees-to-Robert Meacham completion to spark a 68-yard drive for a game-winning TD with 0:31 remaining. The Saints gained 244 of their 436 yards on the day on five plays — a 55-yard rush and passes of 42, 43, 52 and 52 yards. On its final drive, New Orleans faced a fourth-and-two from the Bengals' seven, but got a first down when Cincinnati DT Pat Sims was called for an offside penalty. The Saints scored on the next play, on a three-yard pass from Brees to WR Marques Colston. The Bengals lost for the ninth straight game and fell to 2-10. The Saints won their fifth in a row and improved to 9-3.

Game 13 Steelers 23, Bengals 7Sunday, Dec. 12, at Heinz Field

The Bengals drove 69 yards with the game's opening possession and took a 7-0 lead against the division-leading Steelers on a one-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to OT Andrew Whitworth, who had lined up as an eligible receiver. For the second straight week, the Steelers did not score an offensive TD at home against the Bengals. But the Steelers returned two INTs for TDs — one by S Troy Polamalu and one by LB LaMarr Woodley — and the Bengals managed only 131 net offensive yards after their opening TD drive. The Steelers managed 354 yards net offense and scored three FGs. The Bengals fell to 2-11, losing for the 10th straight game, matching their longest one-season losing streak in franchise history. The Steelers improved to 10-3 and held on to the AFC North Division lead.

Game 14 Bengals 19, Browns 17Sunday, Dec. 19, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals overcame an early 7-0 deficit, taking the lead for good at 10-7 on the first of rookie K Clint Stitser's four FGs, with 4:19 remaining in the second quarter. Cincinnati snapped a 10-game losing streak and regained a three-game lead (39-36) in the "Battle of Ohio" series against the Browns. HB Cedric Benson scored Cincinnati's only TD, on an 18-yard run to tie the game 7-7 in the second quarter, and Benson finished with season highs in rushing yards (150) and carries (31). The Bengals' offensive line led a pass protection effort of no sacks allowed and spearheaded season highs in team rushing yards (188) and possession time (38:03). Cincinnati's defense had four sacks for the second straight week and held the Browns to 278 net yards. Cleveland provided some late excitement with a 46-yard TD pass, pulling to within 19-17 with 2:13 still to play. But the Browns elected to try an onside kick, although they had two timeouts plus the two-minute warning, and WR Quan Cosby recovered the try for the Bengals. Three Benson rushes gave Cincinnati a crucial first down, and Bengals QB Carson Palmer then took a knee twice to run out the clock. Cincinnati improved to 3-11 while the Browns fell to 5-9.

Game 15 Bengals 34, Chargers 20

Sunday, Dec. 26, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals won their second straight game following a 10-game losing streak, and in so doing, eliminated San Diego from playoff contention. QB Carson Palmer led the way with a career-high 157.2 passer rating, completing 16 of 21 passes for 269 yards with four TDs and no INTs. Third-year WR Jerome Simpson, a second-round Bengals draft pick in 2008, had a long-awaited breakout game with six catches for 124 yards and two TDs. The Bengals never trailed, but they saw San Diego pull within 13-10 in the third quarter and then gain possession for a possible go-ahead score. But on a first-down play from the Chargers' 47, Bengals LB Rey Mauluga intercepted a Philip Rivers pass at the Bengals' 32 and returned it 47 yards, setting up a 21-yard Cincinnati TD drive for a 20-10 edge. The Bengals would extend that lead to 34-13 before the Chargers added a TD with 1:27 to play. The Bengals improved to 4-11 while San Diego fell to 8-7.

Game 16 Ravens 13, Bengals 7

Sunday, Jan. 2, at M&T Bank Stadium

Looking to close a disappointing season with a third straight win, the Bengals were denied in a fourth-quarter comeback bid against a playoff-bound Ravens team that played all its starters because it remained in contention for the AFC North title. Cincinnati closed a 13-0 deficit to 13-7 on an 11-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Jerome Simpson early in the final period, but a late Bengals drive for a potential winning score died when the Ravens forced an incompletion on a fourth-and-one play from the Baltimore two-yard line with just 10 seconds to play. Simpson tied for the second most catches in a game in Bengals history (12), and he gained 123 yards. Palmer's 45 pass attempts lifted him to a Bengals record 586 for the season. Rookie Bengals DE Carlos Dunlap had 1.5 sacks and finished with 9.5, setting a team rookie sacks record and finishing second in sacks in the NFL among rookies. The Bengals closed the season with a 4-12 record, and Baltimore finished 12-4.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

December 26	at Baltimore Colts	L	0-17	51,127	Memorial/Saturday afternoon
-------------	--------------------	---	------	--------	-----------------------------

A RARE RUNNER

The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970.

The game was the first Bengals-Browns match in Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field), and marked Cincinnati's first victory (14-10) over its Ohio rival.

GET THE POINT?

Only three times in the Bengals' first 43 seasons has a non-kicker led the team in scoring. In 1979, FB Pete Johnson was the team's leading scorer with 90 points (15 TDs). FB Ickey Woods led the 1988 Bengals with 90 points (15 TDs), and in 2001, HB Corey Dillon scored a team-high 78 points (13 TDs).

The Bengals' single-season scoring record was set in 2005 by K Shayne Graham, who scored 131 points (28 FGs, 47 PATs). He broke the previous mark of 122 points that he set in 2004.

A SPECIAL EXPLOSION

The Bengals record for most points in a game by the special teams is 31, from a 43-14 victory at Buffalo on Nov. 8, 1970.

CB Lemar Parrish scored two special teams touchdowns, one on a 95-yard kickoff return and another on an 83-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt. K Horst Muhlmann added 15 points on five field goals, and four PATs by Muhlmann completed the special teams onslaught.

The offense scored only one TD, on a one-yard run by RB Jess Phillips. The defense scored a TD on an eight-yard fumble return by DE Royce Berry.

PERFECTION AT HOME

The Bengals have gone undefeated (and untied) at home during the regular season three times in team history:

- 8-0 in the Super Bowl season of 1988
- 7-0 in the 1973 playoff season
- 4-0 in the strike-shortened 1982 campaign

BENGALS QBS AS LEAGUE MVPs

Two Bengals, both quarterbacks from the club's Super Bowl teams, have been named by nationwide panels of media as winners of the Associated Press NFL Most Valuable Player Award.

Ken Anderson was the winner in 1981, leading the NFL with a 98.4 passer rating. He completed 300 of 479 passes (62.6%) for 3754 yards, with a then-club record 29 TD passes against 10 interceptions.

Boomer Esiason was the 1988 winner, leading the league with a 97.4 rating and tying for the AFC lead in TDs with 28. He completed 223 of 388 passes (57.5%) for 3572 yards, with 14 interceptions.

Both QBs led their teams to 12-4 records in the regular season.

DOUBLE WHAMMY

Twice in Bengals history, two Cincinnati players have broken the 100-yard rushing mark in the same game.

On Oct. 29, 1972, in a 30-7 win vs. Houston, RB Doug Dressler gained 110 yards and HB Essex Johnson ran for 103 yards.

On Dec. 7, 1986, in a 31-7 victory at New England, HB James Brooks rushed for 163 yards and FB Stanley Wilson gained 120 yards.

THE LONGEST SHOTS

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster for a regular-season game was K-P Dave Green of Ohio University. Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in 1972, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati. Green played for the Bengals from 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and stayed in the NFL through '79.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was LB Larry Ely of Iowa. Ely was the 397th selection in 1970, a 16th-round pick. He played for Cincinnati in 1970 and '71.

RILEY REIGNS SUPREME

In the Bengals record book, the most dominant lead in a major career category belongs to CB Ken Riley. His 65 interceptions nearly double the total (33) of second-place CB Louis Breeden.

1979

Cincinnati traded CB Lemar Parrish and DE Coy Bacon to Washington on June 26, 1978 for the Redskins' first-round pick in '79 (which ended up being No. 12 overall).

BENGALS TAP THE BUCKEYE PIPELINE

Ohio State is the top supplier of college talent to the Bengals, with 24 former Buckeyes having qualified for the team's official all-time roster.

The list is headlined by former Pro Bowl FB Pete Johnson (1977-83), the No. 4 rusher in Bengals history, as well as by RB Archie Griffin (1976-83), CB Ray Griffin (1978-84), OT Rufus Mayes (1970-78) and DT Dan Wilkinson (1994-97).

Florida is second with 18 Bengals alumni, followed by Michigan with 16. The University of Cincinnati, Penn State and West Virginia are tied for fourth place with 15 each.

BENGALS ALL-TIME ROSTER

To be eligible for the all-time roster, a player must have been in uniform for at least one regular-season or postseason game, or spent a minimum of four games on the roster (including inactive status). A player who qualifies under these guidelines will also be credited for seasons in which he was on a reserve list but did not play or dress for a game. Players who spend time on a reserve list but have never played or dressed for a game do not qualify for the all-time roster. The Practice Squad does not qualify.

BENGALS ALL-TIME UNIFORM NUMBERS

This all-time uniform numbers list is organized in chronological order for each number.

Generally, this list credits a player for having ownership of a uniform number for an entire season, even if he was with the team for only part of that season. However, game-by-game breakdowns within seasons are provided if (1) a player changed his uniform number during a season, or (2) more than one player wore the same number in the same season.

Numbers in parentheses behind players' names denote other uniform numbers worn by those players during their careers with the Bengals.

ANTHONY MUÑOZ PUTS BENGALS STAMP ON PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Anthony Muñoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted on Aug. 1, 1998 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Muñoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. Including Marshall Faulk and Deion Sanders from the 2011 class, Muñoz is one of only 71 players elected in their first year of eligibility.

Muñoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the third overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Muñoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history. He also earned All-Pro honors (full NFL) every season from 1981-91.

Muñoz is the only player who performed primarily for the Bengals to gain entry to the Hall. One other Hall of Fame player, wide receiver Charlie Joiner, was a Bengal from 1972-75, but he played the majority of his career with San Diego. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, also is in the Hall of Fame, but was inducted before the Bengals' first season.

Though there are Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Muñoz is generally considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to gain entry to the Hall. Muñoz was born in Ontario, Calif. His parents also are native Californians, and his grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico.

PARRISH HITS PAYDIRT

The only Bengals player ever to score two touchdowns in a game on returns and/or recoveries is Lemar Parrish — and he did it three times.

Parrish, a Bengals cornerback and kick returner from 1970-77, scored two TDs on Nov. 8, 1970 at Buffalo (95-yard kickoff return and 83-yard return of a blocked FG attempt); on Dec. 17, 1972 at Houston (25-yard interception return and 33-yard interception return); and on Oct. 6, 1974 vs. Washington (90-yard punt return and 47-yard fumble return).

Bengals' Total W-L Record at Paul Brown Stadium (Regular Season): 44-43-1 (.506)

Largest Crowd at Paul Brown Stadium: 66,188 on Oct. 28, 2007 — Pittsburgh 24, Bengals 13

Paul Brown, who left the Cleveland Browns following the 1962 season with an NFL record of 115-49-6, seven conference titles, and three NFL championships, had the urge to get back into football. His son Mike did a study on pro football expansion and recommended Cincinnati as a potential site. In 1965, Brown met with Ohio Governor James Rhodes and the two agreed the state could accommodate a second pro football team.

1966 Fearful the Reds baseball team would leave town and feeling pressure from local businessmen pushing for a pro football franchise, Cincinnati's city council approved the construction of Riverfront Stadium.

1967 Brown's group was awarded an AFL expansion franchise. Brown called the team the Bengals, the name of Cincinnati's pro teams in the old AFL of the late 1930s. The Bengals acquired their first player late in the year when they traded two draft picks to Miami for QB John Stofa.

1968 The Bengals were awarded 40 veteran players in the allocation draft. In the college draft, they selected Tennessee center Bob Johnson as their first pick. The Bengals lost their first preseason game, 38-14, to Kansas City, before 21,682 fans at Nippert Stadium. The Bengals upset Denver, 24-10, and Buffalo, 34-23, in their first two regular-season home games. Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing with 1,023 yards and he was named Rookie of the Year.

1969 Brown drafted quarterback Greg Cook of the University of Cincinnati in the first round. The same draft also produced linebacker Bill Bergey. The Bengals jumped out to a 3-0 record, but finished 4-9-1. Brown was named AFL Coach of the Year. Bergey was honored as the AFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, and Cook won the AFL passing title.

1970 The NFL-AFL merger took place before the season, and the Bengals made their first NFL campaign a memorable one. After losing 6 of their first 7 games, they rallied to finish 8-6 and win the new AFC Central Division. In their first playoff game, they lost, 17-0, to eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore. QB Greg Cook was forced to the Injured Reserve list in training camp with a shoulder injury that would end his career, and Virgil Carter took over as the starter.

1971 The Bengals drafted QB Ken Anderson in the third round. Anderson would go on to play 16 seasons for the club and set numerous team passing records.

1972 Anderson unseated Carter as the starting QB and the Bengals won three of the last four games to finish 8-6. DT Mike Reid and WR Chip Myers were selected for the Pro Bowl.

1973 The Bengals split their first eight games, then swept their last six and won their second AFC Central Division title. Cincinnati lost to Miami, 34-16, in the AFC playoffs. Rookie Boobie Clark, who finished the year with 988 yards rushing and 45 pass receptions, was named AFC Rookie of the Year. Essex Johnson led Cincinnati with a career-high 997 yards rushing and rookie Isaac Curtis caught 45 passes.

1974 Cincinnati traded Bill Bergey to Philadelphia for two first-round draft choices and a third-round pick in 1977. Jim LeClair replaced Bergey at middle linebacker. Anderson won the NFL passing championship and completed a then club-record 64.9 percent of his attempts. Cornerback Lemar Parrish led the NFL in punt returns.

1975 The Bengals opened with six straight wins and went on to post an 11-3 record, their best regular-season mark. The Bengals qualified as the AFC wild card team for the playoffs, but they lost to Oakland, 31-28, in the playoffs. Anderson won his second NFL passing championship. A serious blow was the loss of defensive tackle Mike Reid, who retired at age 26 to pursue a career in music.

1976 Brown announced his retirement after 41 seasons of coaching and named Bill Johnson, his long-time assistant, as the successor. Brown continued to serve as the club's general manager and vice president. The Bengals acquired defensive end Coy Bacon in a trade with San Diego and drafted halfback Archie Griffin, the two-time Heisman Trophy winner from Ohio State. The Bengals won nine of their first 11 games and finished 10-4, but did not make the playoffs. Cornerback Ken Riley led the AFC with nine interceptions.

1977 A loss to Houston in the final game cost the Bengals a spot in the playoffs. The team finished with an 8-6 record.

1978 QB Ken Anderson missed the first four games with a broken bone in his right hand, and Homer Rice replaced Bill Johnson as head coach after the Bengals started 0-5. The team dipped to marks of 0-8 and 1-12 before rebounding under Rice to win the last three games. In the season finale, the Bengals blasted Cleveland, 48-16, setting series records for points and victory margin.

1979 Fullback Pete Johnson powered his way to 15 touchdowns, but the Bengals struggled to their second straight 4-12 record. After the season, former Cleveland coach Forrest Gregg was named to replace Homer Rice as Bengals head coach.

1980 The Bengals went 6-10 and managed only 244 points, lowest in the AFC. They did upset defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh twice. First-round draft choice Anthony Muñoz began his Hall of Fame career.

1981 The Bengals unveiled new uniforms with tiger-striped helmets, jerseys and pants. They had at least a share of the AFC Central lead the entire season and, on Dec. 13, Anderson threw two touchdown passes as the Bengals clinched the division with a 17-10 win over the Steelers. Anderson led the NFL in passing with a 98.5 rating. On Jan. 3, the Bengals beat Buffalo, 28-21, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. A week later, playing in their first AFC Championship Game, the Bengals defeated San Diego, 27-7, at Riverfront Stadium in a temperature of nine degrees below zero with a wind-chill factor of minus-59. In Super Bowl XVI on Jan. 24 in Pontiac, Mich., the Bengals trailed 20-0 at halftime and lost to San Francisco, 26-21.

1982 The Bengals posted a 7-2 record in a strike-shortened season to earn a postseason berth, but lost to the Jets in the first round of the playoffs, 44-17. Anderson led the AFC in passing for the fourth time as the Bengals boasted the second-best offense in the NFL.

1983 The Bengals started the season by losing six of their first seven games and finished 7-9. Despite the losing record, the Bengals claimed the top overall defense in the NFL. In the offseason, Gregg resigned as head coach and Sam Wyche was named as his replacement.

1984 Pete Johnson was traded to San Diego for running back James Brooks. The Bengals lost their first five games, then bounced back to win eight of the last 11 and force the AFC Central Division championship race into the final week of the season, only to fall a game short of Pittsburgh. Cincinnati finished 8-8.

1985 Wide receiver Isaac Curtis, a premier Bengal for 12 years, retired shortly before training camp opened. Second-year QB Boomer Esiason replaced Ken Anderson. The Bengals set a club scoring record with 441 points.

1986 Boomer Esiason passed for a then team-record 3959 yards and James Brooks rushed for 1087 yards as the Bengals went 10-6, narrowly missing a playoff berth. LB Reggie Williams was selected NFL Man of the Year for his efforts with charity and the community.

1987 The Bengals posted a 4-11 record in a strike-interrupted season. Individual bright spots included Jim Breech leading the AFC in scoring with 97 points, Anthony Muñoz being voted to his seventh straight Pro Bowl, and nose tackle Tim Krumrie making his first Pro Bowl.

1988 The Bengals brought about one of the biggest turnarounds in NFL history by rising from their 4-11 finish of 1987 to a 12-4 regular-season record. They won the AFC Central Division title, and defeated Buffalo, 21-10, for the AFC Championship on Jan. 8 (1989). On Jan. 22 (1989), they appeared in their second Super Bowl and lost, 20-16, to San Francisco when the 49ers scored a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Coach Sam Wyche's team posted a 14-5 mark in regular and postseason play, best in the NFL. Wyche received numerous honors for his brilliant coaching and nine Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — QB Boomer Esiason, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Muñoz, G Max Montoya, TE Rodney Holman, WR Eddie Brown, RB James Brooks, S David Fulcher and CB Eric Thomas. Esiason was voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player. In January of '88, LB Reggie Williams received the "Sportsman of the Year" award from Sports Illustrated. Rookie "Ickey" Woods led the Bengals in rushing with 1,066 yards.

1989 The Bengals traded their first round draft choice to Atlanta for three later selections. Hit hard by injuries throughout the season, the Bengals went 8-8 and narrowly missed a spot in the playoffs, despite outscoring the opposition 404-285.

1990 The Bengals posted a 9-7 regular-season record to win the AFC Central Division and move into the playoffs, where they defeated the Houston Oilers, 41-14, before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders, 20-10, in the second round.

1991 Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died on Aug. 5. The Bengals had a 3-13 season record. Dave Shula replaced Sam Wyche as head coach following the season.

1992 The Bengals had a 5-11 record, but Harold Green rushed for 1,170 yards and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl. All-Pro OT Anthony Muñoz played his final game.

1993 Quarterback Boomer Esiason was traded to the New York Jets for a third-round draft choice. The young Bengals lost their first 10 games before defeating the Raiders. Cincinnati then had wins over the Rams and Falcons in the final weeks of the season to finish 3-13.

1994 The Bengals lost their first eight games of the season. With quarterbacks David Klingler and Erik Wilhelm sidelined with injuries, third-string QB Jeff Blake started in Game 8 against two-time defending Super Bowl champion Dallas and nearly pulled off an upset before losing, 23-20. Blake kept his starting role for the rest of the season, passing for 2154 yards and 14 TDs. The Bengals finished 3-13.

1995 The Bengals traded up in the draft's first round for the first time, and selected Penn State RB Ki-Jana Carter with the No. 1 overall pick, obtained from Carolina. Carter suffered a knee injury in the third preseason game and missed his entire rookie season. Nonetheless, the Bengals made a dramatic improvement over the previous four years, going 7-9 with five losses by just three points each. QB Jeff Blake, WR Carl Pickens and PK Doug Pelfrey posted record Bengal seasons, and Blake and Pickens went on to start in the Pro Bowl.

1996 On March 19, Hamilton County voters approved a half-cent sales tax increase to fund two new stadiums, taking a major step to ensure the Bengals' future in Cincinnati. The team lost six of its first seven games, but Cincinnati's fortunes took a U-turn after offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet was promoted to head coach on Oct. 21, replacing Dave Shula. Coslet directed the team to a 7-2 finish, including a 5-0 mark at Cinergy Field, and the final 8-8 record was Cincinnati's first .500-or-better season since 1990. The defense set a team record with 34 interceptions, and CB Ashley Ambrose was named a Pro Bowl starter along with WR Carl Pickens, who caught 100 passes to break his own team receptions record.

1997 The Bengals and Hamilton County officials reached agreement on a western riverfront site for a new football stadium and, on May 29, team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team through 2026. The team and the county declined to sell naming rights, christening the facility Paul Brown Stadium in honor of the Bengals' founder. The team held training camp in a new complex at Georgetown (Ky.) College, ending its 29-year arrangement at Wilmington (Ohio) College. On the field, the team suffered a 1-7 start but rallied to go 6-2 in the second half and finish 7-9. Rookie HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1129 yards, third-most in club history (at the time), and his 246-yard effort vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 broke Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL single-game rookie record. Boomer Esiason started the last five games at QB and posted a 106.9 passer rating for the season.

1998 Demolition work for Paul Brown Stadium began early in the year, and official groundbreaking for the new facility was held April 25. HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1130 yards, then third-most in team history, and became the first Bengal to top the 1000-yard rushing mark in each of his first two seasons.

1999 Throughout the year, work continued on Paul Brown Stadium, the team's new, state-of-the-art home on the Cincinnati riverfront. But the final season at Cinergy Field was not a success, as the team endured a 1-10 start before rallying to win three of its last five for a 4-12 finish. Corey Dillon rushed his way to the Pro Bowl with 1200 yards, then the second-most in team history. Kickoff returner Tremain Mack also made the Pro Bowl, leading the AFC with a club-record average of 27.1 yards per return.

2000 The Paul Brown Stadium era began on Aug. 19, as the Bengals christened Cincinnati's new football showplace with a 24-20 preseason win over the Chicago Bears. WR Peter Warrick scored the first Bengals points in PBS on a 14-yard end-around run in the first quarter. In the stadium's Grand Opening regular-season game

Sept. 10 vs. Cleveland, a Cincinnati sports record crowd of 64,006 turned out (since surpassed), but the Browns won the game, 24-7. Rookie WR Ron Dugans scored the first Bengals regular-season points in PBS on a four-yard TD pass from Akili Smith. The Bengals drew four other crowds which exceeded the pre-PBS record for a sports crowd in Cincinnati, but the Browns game stood as the new record. On Sept. 25, following an 0-3 start to the season, Bruce Coslet resigned as head coach and was replaced by assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau. The team finished 4-9 under LeBeau, including 4-6 in the final 10 games and a 2-2 mark in the final four. On Dec. 20, LeBeau signed a multi-year contract to begin in 2001. LeBeau's first victory, on Oct. 22 vs. Denver, featured a then NFL-record 278 rushing yards by Corey Dillon, who went on to set a Bengals record (since broken) of 1435 yards for the season, earning his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl.

2001 In his first full season as Bengals head coach, Dick LeBeau fashioned a two-game improvement over the previous season with a 6-10 record. It was the Bengals' most wins since 1997. The team displayed a foundation for the future in a young defense that ranked No. 9 in the NFL, the club's highest rank since 1989. HB Corey Dillon led the offense with 1315 rushing yards, and moved to within 238 yards of James Brooks for the all-time team rushing lead. Security procedures at Paul Brown Stadium were significantly increased in response to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks, but the full home schedule was played without incident. On Oct. 14, the Bengals re-set their own record for the largest crowd ever at a Cincinnati sports event, as 64,217 fans watched Cincinnati defeat Cleveland, 24-14. Due to the terrorist attacks, the Bengals' Sept. 16 game at Tennessee was postponed, and the season was extended a week to allow postponed games to be played the weekend of Jan. 6 (2002).

2002 The Bengals entered the season with high hopes after an encouraging 2001 finish. But despite some noteworthy individual performances, the team sunk to the worst record (2-14) in franchise history. The team was hit hard by injuries, losing the league's second-highest number of games by starters. The offense got off to a very slow start with free agent signee Gus Frerotte at QB, and Cincinnati was outscored 119-23 in the first four games. The offense perked up noticeably after 2001 starter, Jon Kitna, returned to the No. 1 QB role. For the first time since 1989, Cincinnati had a 3000-yard passer (Kitna), a 1000-yard rusher (Corey Dillon) and a 1000-yard receiver (Chad Ochocinco). The Bengals set a team record for pass completions with 350 (since surpassed). But the team was 0-7 before getting a win at Houston. The defense was inconsistent, and with nine touchdowns allowed on special teams or by the offense, the Bengals as a team allowed the second-most points (456) in club history. On Dec. 30, it was announced that head coach Dick LeBeau would not be retained for 2003.

2003 The Bengals launched a new era on Jan. 14, when Marvin Lewis was hired as the ninth head coach in franchise history. The results wound up being nationally noted, as the club drew a then-record regular-season attendance of 479,488 to watch Lewis' first team finish 8-8, six games better than the 2-14 Bengals of 2002. Architect of the Baltimore Ravens' record-setting Super Bowl defense in 2000, Lewis received a broad mandate from ownership to implement his program. Though the Bengals missed the playoffs — eliminated on the final weekend of the season — their six-game improvement was the biggest of any NFL team from '02 to '03. It was also the second-biggest one-year improvement in Bengals history. Lewis finished second to Bill Belichick, coach of the World Champion New England Patriots, in Associated Press voting for NFL Coach of the Year. The season included the four largest pro sports crowds in Cincinnati history (to that time), topped by 65,362 on Dec. 28 vs. Cleveland, and the highlight game was a 24-19 win on Nov. 16 over an unbeaten (9-0) Kansas City team. WR Chad Ochocinco led the AFC with 1355 receiving yards, and LOT Willie Anderson joined Johnson in the Pro Bowl. Prior to the season, the Bengals had the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft for the third time in team history, and chose Southern California QB Carson Palmer. Palmer did not play as a rookie, as veteran Jon Kitna was the only NFL QB to play every offensive snap for his team.

2004 In their second season under head coach Marvin Lewis, the Bengals attracted record home attendance. All eight regular-season games at Paul Brown Stadium were sellouts — the first sold-out regular season since 1992 at Riverfront Stadium — and the total regular-season attendance of 524,248 put the team over the half-million mark for the first time. A record home crowd of 65,806 (later topped) saw the Bengals host Denver on Monday night, Oct. 25. The team finished 8-8 on the field, a creditable performance given that injuries were severe (18 players were placed on season-ending medical reserve lists) and that QB Carson Palmer was seeing his first NFL playing time. HB Rudi Johnson rushed for a club-record 1454 yards (since broken), and the team had four players named to the Pro Bowl, its highest total since 1990. The Pro Bowl quartet was HB Rudi Johnson, WR Chad Ochocinco, OT Willie Anderson and CB Tory James. K Shayne Graham set a club record with 122 points (a mark he later broke). Home games were played on a new, synthetic FieldTurf surface, on which installation was complete in early July. The team also made its first significant uniform change since 1981. The signature striped helmet was not changed, but the jersey design was modernized, black pants were added as a regular option to white pants, and a special-occasion orange jersey was added for up to two games per year.

2005 In head coach Marvin Lewis' third season, the Bengals returned to the playoffs, winning the AFC North Division title with an 11-5 record. Cincinnati lost 31-17 to Pittsburgh in a Wild Card round playoff game at Paul Brown Stadium, losing QB Carson Palmer to a serious knee injury on the club's second offensive snap. Palmer was among five Bengals voted to the Pro Bowl, the largest Bengals contingent since the 1989 team placed six. The other 2005 season Pro Bowlers were OT Willie Anderson, K Shayne Graham, WR Chad Ochocinco and CB Delta O'Neal. On Dec. 29, just before the end of the regular season, Palmer signed a new agreement with the club, extending his contract through 2014. A number of club individual single-season records were set, including 32 TD passes by Palmer; 1432 receiving yards by Chad Ochocinco (since broken); 1458 rushing yards by Rudi Johnson; 10 INTs by O'Neal; and 131 points by Graham. The club posted a record regular-season attendance of 526,469 (later surpassed), and another sellout for the playoff game vs. Pittsburgh pushed to 20 the team's streak of consecutive regular and postseason home sellouts. The season's home crowds included the top four attendance figures in franchise history (to that time), headed by 66,104 for the Bengals-Steelers game on Oct. 23.

2006 For the first time since 1992, the Bengals sold out all games before the season began, and a waiting list was established for new season ticket buyers. The regular-season attendance mark was 527,870, as the club set a record for the third straight year. It was also announced prior to the season that head coach Marvin Lewis signed a contract extension through 2010. Lewis completed his fourth season by joining Paul Brown as the only Bengals head coaches to go four straight seasons without a losing record, but though the team remained in contention until the final weekend, it missed the playoffs with an 8-8 mark. QB Carson Palmer set a club record with 4035 passing yards (since surpassed), and he boldfaced his status as the cornerstone of the roster by winning the Most Valuable Player Award in the Pro Bowl on Feb. 10, 2007. He was the first Bengal to win the award. Other individual Bengals achievements in '06 included an NFL receiving yards title for Chad Ochocinco (1369), the first such crown in Bengals history, and Ochocinco also became the first NFL player to lead the AFC or NFC in receiving yards for a fourth consecutive season. Palmer, Ochocinco and OT Willie Anderson each were named to the Pro Bowl.

2007 In a Harris Interactive survey released in February, Paul Brown Stadium was the only football stadium to make a list of "America's favorite 150 buildings and structures." PBS ranked 101st on the list, whose range included all manner of major structures (the Empire State Building ranking first). Among all sports venues, only Wrigley Field (31) and the old Yankee Stadium (84) ranked higher than PBS. For the second straight season, the Bengals sold out all games before the season began, and the team ran to 36 its streak of consecutive home sellouts (regular and postseason). The team entered the season with high expectations, with its first two home games selected for ESPN Monday Night Football. But the season's first half ended with a disappointing 2-6 record, and a second-half rally lifted the club only to 7-9, the first losing season for head coach Marvin Lewis. WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh tied for the league receptions title (112) — becoming the first Bengal ever to lead or share the league lead. Other notable statistical accomplishments included Chad Ochocinco breaking his own team record with 1440 receiving yards, Carson Palmer re-setting two of his own marks with 4131 passing yards and 373 completions, and Shayne Graham kicking a club-record 31 field goals while re-setting his own mark for season field goal accuracy (91.2 percent). Houshmandzadeh and Chad Ochocinco earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

2008 With a club-record 23 players sent to the Reserve/Injured list, the Bengals struggled to a 4-11-1 finish. That list of 23 did not include the biggest missing name, QB Carson Palmer, who stayed on the roster all season but played in only four games due to an elbow injury. Ryan Fitzpatrick replaced Palmer at QB. The team partly salvaged the season, going 4-3-1 in the campaign's second half, but that was after an 0-8 start. Though the offense was near record lows in many statistical categories, the defense was promising under new coordinator Mike Zimmer, rising to a No. 12 NFL yardage ranking, the team's best since 2001. All home games were declared sold out before the season began. The Bengals' 13-13 tie on Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia was the NFL's first deadlock since 2002.

2009 The Bengals won their second division championship under head coach Marvin Lewis, finishing with a 10-6 record. Their march to the AFC North title included a 6-0 mark in division games, marking the first time in franchise history for Cincinnati to sweep its divisional opponents. The club was led by its defense, which continued rapid improvement under second-year coordinator Mike Zimmer. The Bengals finished fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game). The Bengals were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 24-14 to the visiting New York Jets, who went on to reach the AFC Championship Game. All nine home games (regular season and postseason) were sellouts, extending the club's franchise-record sellout streak to 53.

2010 Marvin Lewis directed his eighth season as Bengals head coach, tying Paul Brown (1968-75) and Sam Wyche (1984-91) for the longest head coaching tenure in club history. The '10 club won two of the first three games, but finished the season with a 4-12 mark. Injuries played a part, as the Bengals were forced to place 17 players on the Reserve/Injured list, and nine were veteran defensive players who would have started or seen significant action if healthy. The club recorded a franchise-record 57th consecutive sellout (regular and postseason) for a Monday night game on Nov. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, but the streak ended when the Nov. 21 Buffalo game failed to sell out. Still intact at season's end was the club's dominance since December of 2004 in local television ratings. The Nielsen rating for the Jan. 2 season finale at Baltimore meant that for the last 96 TV ratings weeks which included a Bengals regular season or postseason broadcast, the Bengals game was the top-rated show among all programming in the Cincinnati market. The 2010 Bengals played five preseason games, their most since 1988, as the club was selected to open the NFL preseason against Dallas in the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game on Aug. 8 at Canton, Ohio.

NO TDS; NO PROBLEM

Five times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

- On Sept. 24, 1972, K Horst Muhlmann's five field goals (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field).
- On Oct. 21, 1984, K Jim Breech kicked four field goals (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the Bengals' points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.
- On Nov. 6, 1994, K Doug Pelfrey booted six field goals (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) and LB-DE Alfred Williams scored on a safety as the Bengals posted a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.
- On Nov. 11, 2007, K Shayne Graham kicked a team-record seven field goals (34, 19, 22, 35, 35, 21, 33) for all of Cincinnati's points in a 21-7 victory at Baltimore.
- On Sept. 19, 2010, K Mike Nugent kicked five field goals (36, 30, 46, 38, 25) for all the Bengals' points in a 15-10 win over Baltimore at Paul Brown Stadium.

BENGALS PRO BOWL HISTORY

Former Bengals tackle Anthony Muñoz was selected to play in 11 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl games. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history.

BENGALS FRANCHISE FIRSTS

FIRST HEAD COACH: Paul Brown, who coached the team from 1968 through '75.

FIRST PLAYER: QB John Stofa, who was acquired in December, 1967, from the Miami Dolphins in a trade for two draft choices. Stofa played for the Bengals in 1968 and '69.

FIRST DRAFT CHOICE: Center Bob Johnson, from the University of Tennessee, was the Bengals' No. 1 draft choice in their inaugural season of 1968.

FIRST GAME: Aug. 3, 1968 — a preseason home game against the Kansas City Chiefs at Nippert Stadium. The Chiefs won, 38-14, in front of 21,682 fans.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME: On Friday night, Sept. 6, 1968, in San Diego, the Bengals began play in the American Football League. They lost to the Chargers, 29-13.

FIRST BENGALS REGULAR-SEASON SCORING PLAY: On the Bengals' first possession of their first regular-season game — Sept. 6, 1968 at San Diego — RB Paul Robinson scored a touchdown on a 2-yard run. Dale Livingston kicked the extra point for a 7-0 Cincinnati lead. The Chargers came back to win, 29-13.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY: On Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968, the Bengals won their home opener, defeating the Denver Broncos, 24-10. A crowd of 25,049 watched at Nippert Stadium.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME: On Saturday, Dec. 26, 1970, the Bengals lost to the Baltimore Colts, 17-0, at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. The Bengals reached the playoffs in just the franchise's third season by winning the AFC Central Division title with an 8-6 regular-season record.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME VICTORY: On Jan. 3, 1982, the Bengals defeated the Buffalo Bills, 28-21, at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. A week later, the Bengals beat San Diego in the AFC Championship Game to earn a trip to Super Bowl XVI.

The Bengals selected Univ. of Tennessee center Bob Johnson with their first choice in the 1968 NFL-AFL draft. Johnson played 12 seasons for the Bengals, from 1968-79.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XVI

San Francisco 26, Bengals 21

Jan. 24, 1982, at Pontiac Silverdome (Pontiac, Mich.)

Cincinnati outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in Super Bowl history the losing team led in scrimmage yardage. Bengals QB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and his 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by 49ers QB Joe Montana, the game's MVP. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission.

Leading 20-7, San Francisco staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping Cincinnati for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with a four-yard TD pass from Anderson to TE Dan Ross with 10:06 left, but the 49ers added FGs of 40 and 23 yards by K Ray Wersching to pull away. Cincinnati crept to within 26-21 with 16 seconds left on a second Anderson-to-Ross TD pass, but San Francisco recovered the Bengals' ensuing onside kick to seal the victory. Wersching's four FGs tied a Super Bowl record (still tied) and Ross' 11 receptions set a Super Bowl record (since tied).

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XXIII

San Francisco 20, Bengals 16

Jan. 22, 1989, at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, Fla.)

NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four contests by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for head coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard FG before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. WR John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD catch from Montana came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game.

Cincinnati played without FB Stanley Wilson, who was suspended for a substance abuse violation that occurred the night before the game. In addition, the Bengals played almost the entire contest without All-Pro NT Tim Krumrie, who suffered a severe broken leg early in the first quarter.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped TDs in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati's Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three FGs gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for the 49ers. San Francisco WR Jerry Rice tied a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions (still tied); originally set by Bengals TE Dan Ross in Super Bowl XVI) for 215 yards and one TD, earning the game's MVP award. Montana completed 23 of 36 passes for 357 yards, two TDs and no INTs. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

CINCINNATI PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

Cincinnati was home to two other football teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL — then known as the American Professional Football Association — in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in its only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL — that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team called the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's nickname which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears, 17-13, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, 38-0, and tied the Chicago Cardinals, 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and '41, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World War II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later, in 1967, when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modern-era American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati."

Hundreds of names were suggested by fans in an effort to name the new Cincinnati team, the most popular being Buckeyes. It was rejected to avoid confusion with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970.

DOUBLING UP

Twice in Bengals history, a Cincinnati player has managed 100-plus yards both rushing and receiving on the same day. HB Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on two receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. He stood alone in the category until Dec. 7, 1986, when HB James Brooks burned the Patriots at New England for 163 yards on 18 rushes and 101 yards on six receptions. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games. On Nov. 23, 1975, Cleveland HB Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on seven receptions vs. Cincinnati at Cleveland Stadium. On Sept. 22, 1985, San Diego RB Lionel James became the only NFL player to record dual 100s at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field). James had 127 yards on 12 rushes and 118 yards on five receptions.

1968-79 — THE ORIGINAL

The original Bengals uniform pictured here debuted when the team began play in the modern-era American Football League in 1968, and it defined the team's appearance well beyond the AFL's merger with the National Football League in 1970. Except for its socks and shoes, this uniform remained unchanged for 12 seasons through 1979.

The helmet was orange with a gray facemask. Simple in design, it had "Bengals" arched across both sides in block letters. The letters were black with a thin white outline.

This original uniform had both a black jersey and a white jersey. The black jersey had one orange stripe surrounded by two white stripes on each sleeve. Its uniform numbers were white block numerals, appearing on both the front and back. Likewise, its nameplate had white block letters. The white jersey had an orange stripe surrounded by black stripes on each sleeve, its uniform numbers were black block numerals on the front and back, and it had black block letters on the nameplate.

The team wore the same white pants with both the black and white jerseys of this uniform. The pants had one orange stripe surrounded by two black stripes on the side of each leg. The stripes ran the full length of the legs.

For its first seven seasons, the team wore two sock designs, based on whether it was wearing a black or a white jersey. With black jerseys, the team wore black-topped socks — white socks with a black top from the rim to the bottom of the calf. In the middle of the black top appeared one orange stripe surrounded by two white stripes, matching the striping pattern on the black jersey's sleeves. With white jerseys, the team wore white socks with mid-calf striping that matched the pants and the white jersey's sleeves — one orange stripe surrounded by two black stripes.

The team wore the socks pictured here through 1974. In 1975, the team began wearing only one sock design, regardless of whether it was wearing a black or a white jersey. That sock, pictured with the 1980 uniform illustration on the following page, was white, and at its mid-calf had one black stripe surrounded by two orange stripes.

The team primarily wore black shoes through 1973, and white shoes in 1974 and thereafter.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

- Black shoes were in — then out of — style, and now they're back again: During this time period, neither the AFL nor the NFL had rules requiring players on the same teams to wear shoes of the same color. In the franchise's first six seasons through 1973, most Bengals players chose to wear black shoes. In 1974, the team's dominant shoe color shifted to white. Not until 1990 did the NFL begin to regulate shoe colors. To help standardize uniforms, the league required each team to select a primary shoe color. The Bengals chose white, since that was still the players' color of choice at the time. The white shoes continued to remain in place through 2003. At the players' request, the team switched back to black shoes with its 2004 uniform redesign.

- Incorrect stripes were placed on cold-weather jersey: For the entire run of this uniform, the stripes on the sleeves of the official Bengals jersey were slightly separated, while the stripes on the sides of the legs and around the calves of the socks were joined together. However, in wintry conditions throughout this time period, the team often wore special cold-weather versions of its jersey that had long sleeves extending to mid-forearm. Due to an oversight in the designing process at the manufacturer, the stripes on the cold-weather jersey were joined, just like the striping on the pants and the socks. The discrepancy was never corrected. The cold-weather jersey was worn as needed through the late-1970s. When the uniform was changed in 1980 — and again in '81 — the team chose not to create another cold-weather jersey. In wintry conditions from that point on, players instead wore jerseys with normal-length sleeves on top of long-sleeve undershirts.

NOTE: The socks pictured here were worn from 1968-74 only.

1980 — THE CHANGE BEFORE THE STRIPES

While the overall original appearance remained intact, the Bengals' uniform underwent four alterations in 1980 to constitute a subtle — yet noticeable — uniform change.

On the helmet, the team made two alterations — it switched facemask colors from gray to black, and added black uniform numbers on the back. On the jersey, the team added uniform numbers to the sides of the sleeves, just above the existing stripes. And on the pants, the orange stripe was widened to about twice its original thickness, though the width of the surrounding black stripes remained the same.

The socks pictured here — white, with one black stripe surrounded by two orange stripes at its mid-calf — had actually been the team's lone sock design since 1975.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

• Television changed football, including the uniforms: The popularity of professional football grew immensely from the 1960s through the '80s, and much of the NFL's progress throughout that era was attributed to significant television exposure. Television changed the game in many ways, both substantially and minutely. When the Bengals added uniform numbers to the sides of their jersey sleeves in 1980, they were following a slow, evolving uniform design trend that started in the mid-1960s as a result of the league's desire to become more viewer-friendly on television. In fact, uniform numbers that were added to sleeves or shoulders were referred to as "TV numbers," since their placement was intended to aid broadcast announcers and viewers in quickly identifying players from various camera angles. The league did not have a rule requiring teams to place TV numbers on uniforms until 1991, though by that time nearly all uniforms already had them. Also in 1980, the Bengals added uniform numbers to the team's helmet. Those numbers, however, were affixed for the purpose of quickly identifying which player a helmet belonged to if it was taken off and set down during a game. There still is no league rule requiring teams to place uniform numbers on helmets.

• The new pants were official in 1980, but debuted in '79: While the Bengals did not officially add the pants with the widened orange stripe to their uniform until 1980, that design actually appeared on a limited trial basis in 1979. The 1979 trials were not team-wide, with only a few players wearing the new design during select games that season.

NOTE: The socks pictured here were worn from 1975-80.

1981-96 — THE STRIPES

In 1981, the Bengals introduced a bold new uniform which was dramatically different than the relatively conservative designs the team had used since 1968.

Perhaps the most eye-catching distinction of the complete makeover was the team's new helmet. The helmet remained orange and retained its black facemask, but replacing the block-letter "Bengals" logotype were the team's new signature tiger stripes. Six black tiger stripes were placed on the helmet, extending from one side to the other.

Paul Brown, the team's founder who then held the title of Vice President and General Manager, said the team wanted a helmet that would be instantly identifiable with the Cincinnati franchise, something akin to the Baltimore Colts' horseshoe helmet and the San Diego Chargers' lightning bolt helmet.

"You couldn't read 'Bengals' on our helmet from a distance," Brown said at the time. "When you were far away, it looked like Cleveland's helmet."

The black jersey, the white jersey and the white pants of the new uniform featured a black tiger-stripe pattern on top of a wide orange stripe. On the jerseys, the pattern appeared on the shoulders. On the pants, it extended straight down the full length of each leg.

In addition, the uniform numbers on the front and back, as well as those on sides of the sleeves, were given orange outlines. The letters on the players' nameplates, however, remained solid color — white on the black jersey, and black on the white jersey — and were not given outlines.

The new uniform was assigned orange-topped socks — white socks with an orange top from the rim to the bottom of the calf. The team's primary shoe color remained white.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

- Sleeves became shorter over time: From when the Bengals began play in 1968 through the mid-'80s, the sleeve length of the jersey was somewhat long by today's standards, reaching to just above the elbow. In the mid-'80s, sleeves began shortening over time to the current-day length, reaching only to the lower shoulder or upper biceps. By 1991, all of the team's jerseys were made with the shorter sleeves, and the original elbow-length sleeves were never produced again.

- NFL marks were added in 1991: Not pictured here, small NFL shield logos were added to the Bengals' helmets, jerseys and pants in 1991. All NFL teams added the logos as part of a minor league-wide alteration. On the helmets, the shields appeared in the rear left area. On the jerseys, it appeared on the front center of the collar. And on the pants, it was placed on the front left area just below the waist. In 2002, the NFL Equipment logo replaced the shield logos on the jerseys and the pants, though the shield remained on the helmet. Though they are not included on these 1981-96 uniform illustrations, the shield and equipment logos are incorporated into the 1997-2003 and '04-present illustrations on the following two pages, respectively.

- The stripes did not remain entirely the same: The black tiger-stripe patterns on the shoulders of the jersey and the legs of the pants during this era did not always perfectly match those on the illustrations pictured here. Though hardly noticeable, the patterns differed slightly from one uniform manufacturer to the next. In most cases, the stripes were less wide and more numerous. At the time, minor variations of this nature were considered acceptable as long as they were negligible and did not change the overall appearance of the uniform design.

1997-2003 — THE UPDATED STRIPES

In 1997, the Bengals introduced alterations to their uniform which were termed “evolutionary, not revolutionary.” While the helmet remained unchanged and the general look of the uniform remained intact, several modifications were made on the jerseys, pants and socks.

Perhaps the most notable of the changes was the addition of the team’s new leaping tiger logo on the sleeves of the jersey. Because the new logo was placed where uniform numbers previously had been, the numbers on the sleeves were moved to the tops of the shoulders.

Also on the jersey, the black tiger-stripe patterns on the shoulders were simplified with wider stripes. The white jersey was altered further to include black trim on the sleeves and collar. And the letters on the nameplates of both the black jersey and white jersey were given orange outlines to match the jersey numbers, which had been given orange outlines in the uniform’s 1981 redesign.

On the pants, the black tiger-stripe patterns on the sides of the legs were simplified with wider stripes to match the new jersey stripes. And, the orange-topped socks the team had been wearing since 1981 were replaced by black-topped socks.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

- Another not so noticeable change was made in 1997: There was another alteration made with this Bengals uniform change — not in design, but in makeup. All of the jersey numbers and the letters of the nameplates were converted from printed images to stitched fabric. The stitched fabric process — called “tackle twill” — produced more vivid colors, and the result was much more durable. With the nameplate letters and the jersey numerals altered to tackle twill, the black tiger-stripe pattern on the shoulders and pants were the only remaining printed items. The tiger stripes were not changed because the additional stitching required for tackle twill would have significantly reduced the elasticity of the ends of the shoulders and the sides of the pants. And, since those were considered high-stretch areas, the print process remained the better choice for the tiger stripes.

- Incorrect stripes were placed on 1999 pants: Two years after the Bengals made the 1997 alterations, a new manufacturer of the uniforms mistakenly produced pants with the previous tiger-stripe pattern that was used from 1981-96. The discrepancy was considered minor, since most of the 1997 alterations had occurred on the jersey. In fact, the mistake wasn’t even noticed until after the 1999 season had started. Thus, the team wore the incorrectly-striped pants for the rest of the season, and the error was corrected for the following year.

NOTE: These black pants were worn in two games in 2003 only (see 2004-present interesting fact on the following page).

2004-PRESENT — THE NEW STRIPES

For the first time in 23 years and just the second time in team history, the Bengals' uniform underwent a complete redesign in 2004.

The team's signature tiger-striped helmet, widely considered among the most distinctive in football since its introduction in 1981, was not altered. The changes to the rest of the new uniform, however, were numerous.

The most noticeable differences from the previous design were the additions of a third jersey, a second pant and a second sock. To supplement its regular black and white jerseys, the team added a special-occasion orange jersey which could be worn in up to two games per year. Black pants were added to the lineup, marking the first time in team history that pants of a color other than white were officially part of the team's uniform. And, the orange-topped sock — worn in the 1981-96 uniform era — returned to the lineup as a mix-and-match option, joining the black-topped sock introduced in '97.

All three jerseys displayed a new tiger-stripe pattern on the shoulders. The black jersey featured orange sleeves, and orange trim on the sleeves and collar. The white and orange jerseys had black sleeves, with black sleeve and collar trim. The sleeves of all three jerseys were given white undersides. On the black and orange jerseys, the white undersides on the sleeves continued as wide stripes down the sides.

Modern, more rounded numerals replaced the block-letter uniform numbers that had adorned Bengals jerseys of the past, and the orange outline on the new numbers was given a shadow effect. In addition, the leaping tiger logo was removed from the sleeve, while the team's new striped "B" logo was placed in the center of the chest area, just below the neckline.

Both pants featured a new tiger-stripe pattern on the sides of the legs. However, unlike the old stripes, the new stripes did not extend straight down the full length of the legs. Instead, the new stripes curved slightly forward to a point just above the knees.

Lastly, the team chose to revert its shoe color from white to black, which had been the primary shoe color from 1968-73.

Interesting fact from this uniform era:

- 2004 black pants were the first to be official, but not the first to be worn: The Bengals' uniform officially included black pants for the first time in team history in 2004. However, 2004 did not mark the first time the team had worn black pants in a game. A year before, in 2003, the team was granted by the NFL the option to use black pants in two games as part of the redesign process that resulted in the new 2004 uniform. The team exercised that option, wearing black pants on a temporary trial basis for both their 2003 regular-season opener and finale. Those 2003 black pants, however, possessed the team's older tiger-stripe pattern of that era (see 1997-2003 illustrations on previous page), and were never worn again. The black pants that were permanently added to the lineup in 2004 were updated with the new tiger-stripe pattern.

2004-PRESENT

BENGALS LOGOS — THEN & NOW

1967-69 — RUNNING TIGER

The Cincinnati Bengals franchise was founded in 1967, a year before it began play in the modern-era American Football League. For its first logo, the team chose a caricature of a tiger, running with a football under its right arm. Flying off the tiger's head was a white helmet with another tiger's head painted on its side.

The team used this logo while they were members of the AFL through the 1969 season, though the logo never appeared on the team's uniform.

1970-80 — BLOCK-LETTERED HELMET

When the AFL merged with the NFL in 1970 — the same year the Bengals began play in the new Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field) — the team's logo shifted from the running tiger to a representation of the helmet the players had been wearing since the team began play in 1968.

The helmet representation, which like the real helmet was orange with "Bengals" arched across both sides in block letters, remained the team's logo through the 1980 season. The helmet logo, however, used much larger letters for "Bengals" than what actually appeared on the real helmets.

1981-96 — STRIPED HELMET

Prior to the Bengals' 1981 season — the season of their first Super Bowl appearance — the team introduced a bold new uniform that featured a distinctive, eye-catching new helmet that was orange with six black tiger stripes extending from one side to the other. With the uniform redesign, the team's logo changed from a representation of the block-lettered helmet to a representation of the new striped helmet.

When it was first introduced, the striped helmet logo was a two-dimensional side view with a two-barred face mask. By the end of the 1980s, the logo evolved into the image pictured here — a three-dimensional angled view with a multi-barred face mask. As a result of the angled view, only five of the six stripes are visible in this striped helmet logo.

1997-2003 — LEAPING TIGER

In 1997, the Bengals made subtle alterations to their uniforms. With the alterations, the team unveiled a new logo of a leaping tiger which adorned the sleeves of the uniform's new jersey. That new leaping tiger replaced the striped helmet as the team's primary logo.

The leaping tiger logo, pictured here with the team's logotype of that era, was an illustration of an aggressive-looking orange tiger with black stripes that matched those on the team's helmet and white facial accents. The leaping tiger's head by itself was the team's secondary logo. In addition, the striped helmet logo also was still commonly used.

2004-PRESENT — STRIPED "B"

The Bengals' uniform underwent a complete redesign in 2004. As part of the change, the team introduced a new striped "B" logo and created a new team font. Simple in design, the logo was the new font's letter B, colored orange with three black tiger stripes.

The striped B was placed in the center of the team's new jersey, just below the neckline, while the Bengals font was used to create the team's new logotype. The striped B replaced the leaping tiger as the team's primary mark, though the leaping tiger and the leaping tiger's head were kept as secondary marks and are still used frequently.

P.B. AND THE HALL OF FAME

Paul Brown, founder of the Cincinnati Bengals, was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and numerous other Hall of Fame members played and/or coached under Brown.

The most recent addition to P.B.'s disciples in the Hall of Fame was Bengals tackle Anthony Muñoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history. Muñoz, a 1998 inductee, played his entire 13-year pro career (1980-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought he was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Muñoz with the No. 3 overall pick.

The 1997 Hall of Fame class included Don Shula, winningest coach in NFL history, who played defensive back in the NFL and was a rookie on Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the 1996 class of inductees. Also, 15 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. These players, and the years Brown coached them in Cleveland, are: Doug Atkins, DE, 1953-54; Jim Brown, FB, 1957-62; Willie Davis, DE, 1958-59; Len Dawson, QB, 1960-61; Len Ford, WR, 1950-57; Frank Gatski, C, 1946-56; Otto Graham, QB, 1946-55; Lou Groza, T/PK, 1946-59, 1961-62; Gene Hickerson, G (1958-60, 1962); Henry Jordan, DT, 1957-58; Dante Lavelli, WR, 1946-56; Mike McCormack, T, 1954-62; Bobby Mitchell, RB/WR, 1958-61; Marion Motley, FB/LB, 1946-53; and Bill Willis, G, 1946-53.

Former assistant coaches under Paul Brown who are in the Hall of Fame are Weeb Ewbank and Bill Walsh. Also in the Hall of Fame are Forrest Gregg, hired by Brown as Bengals head coach in 1980, and 2010 Hall inductee Dick LeBeau, whose assistant coaching tenure with the Bengals began in 1980, when Brown was the team's general manager.

STADIUM, NFL & MEDIA

Paul Brown Stadium, home of the Bengals on Cincinnati's downtown riverfront, plays host to its 12th NFL season in 2011. PBS, as it's known for short, opened in 2000. The first game was a preseason contest on Aug. 19 vs. the Chicago Bears, won 24-20 by the Bengals. The first regular-season game was on Sept. 10, when Cleveland posted a 24-7 win over Cincinnati.

The stadium has won numerous honors and has helped keep Cincinnati in the national sports spotlight. Over the last five seasons (2006-10), PBS has hosted eight nationally televised prime-time Bengals games.

From 2003-10, the Bengals sold out a franchise-record 57 consecutive home games (regular and postseason).

The stadium features a sleek design and blends seamlessly with the city, open to views of downtown to the north and the riverfront to the south.

National recognition for PBS has come in various modes. In 2007, PBS was the only football stadium to make a Harris Interactive list of "America's favorite 150 buildings and structures." PBS ranked 101st on a list whose range included all manner of major structures — skyscrapers, museums, churches, hotels, bridges, national memorials and more. No other football stadium was voted among the top 150, and among all sports venues, only two historic baseball parks — Wrigley Field and the old Yankee Stadium — ranked higher than PBS.

In 2002, in an industry rarity, the stadium was singled out by both of the nation's premier architecture magazines, Architectural Record and Architecture. The two stories came on the heels of PBS receiving the 2001 Merit Award from the American Institute of Architects (California Council). It marked the first time an NFL stadium received the award from the prestigious AIA.

And in May of 1998, well before its completion, studies of the stadium's design led to it being among 15 winners from a field of more than 300 projects for an American Architecture Award.

Named for the Pro Football Hall of Fame legend who founded both the Cleveland Browns and Bengals franchises, Paul Brown Stadium includes 132 suites and 7600 club seats.

Additional facts and figures on PBS:

SEATING CAPACITY: 65,515.

DIMENSIONS: The stadium site covers approximately 22 acres, and Paul Brown Stadium itself reaches a height of 157 feet.

PLAYING SURFACE: FieldTurf.

PAUL BROWN

Paul Brown Stadium honors not only the founder and first coach of the Bengals, but a man who was also one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .665 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State University to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in Major League Baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

Bengals players reported July 28 to training camp at Georgetown (Ky.) College, marking the team's 15th year at the site.

The training camp facility, anchored by 5000-seat Toyota Stadium, is one of the finest in use by an NFL team. Athletic Management, a national sports management magazine, has recognized the complex with its "Excellence in Outdoor Facilities" award.

The Bengals moved their training camp to Georgetown in 1997 after 29 seasons of training at Wilmington (Ohio) College. Georgetown's commitment to meet state-of-the-art standards has brought unprecedented media attention to training camp and has helped the Bengals develop their Central Kentucky fan base.

The facility is an hour's drive south of downtown Cincinnati.

DIRECTIONS: From downtown Cincinnati, take I-75 South approximately 70 miles to Exit 126 (Georgetown). Turn right off ramp onto Cherry Blossom Way (US 460 Bypass). Stay on this main thoroughfare for approximately two miles and turn right at the sixth traffic light, Lemons Mill Rd. (Route 1962 West). Pass the Johnson Controls plant on the right and turn right onto Crawford Drive, which leads directly to the training camp facility.

POSTSEASON OVERTIME

Prior to last season, NFL owners voted at the Annual Meeting in March to amend overtime rules for the postseason to a new-and-improved modified sudden death format. Teams will now have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once in the extra period unless the team that receives the overtime kickoff scores a touchdown on its first possession.

After four consecutive NFL postseasons that featured at least one overtime game, the 2010 playoffs ended that streak. The new postseason overtime rules have yet to be tested, but the changes are sure to aid competitive fairness while adding a wrinkle of additional strategy for NFL head coaches.

"We felt this proposal gave us the opportunity to make a pretty good rule even better," said NFL Competition Committee Chairman and Atlanta Falcons President Rich McKay upon passage of the proposal last year. "I really believe the more you talk about the issue, the more you understand the statistics, the more you say there must be a change."

The sudden-death overtime system that has been in place since 1974 is still used for preseason and regular-season NFL games.

Bengals in the community

Reaching out to help others

The Bengals organization is committed to improving lives in Greater Cincinnati and the surrounding region.

Bengals players, coaches and staff acknowledge their unique public role and are devoted to working with non-profit organizations, schools and civic groups to make positive contributions and change. The club promotes an understanding of how team involvement can bring a voice to critical issues. The Bengals welcome the opportunity to give back to a community that has unconditionally supported the team for more than 40 years.

Non-profit organizations throughout Greater Cincinnati and the surrounding region look to the Bengals for assistance. Beneficiaries may receive money, food, toys, clothing, autographed items, tours, training camp visits, or something as simple as a smile brought about by a visit from a player or coach.

Community involvement takes many forms. The Bengals sponsor fund-raising events, make donations to many charitable organizations, make personal appearances, and provide vital community information on the team's Web site (bengals.com). Staff, players and coaches also serve on various community boards and commissions.

The Bengals provide support to the annual United Way of Greater Cincinnati campaign through both corporate and individual gifts by coaches, players and administrative employees.

Head coach Marvin Lewis continues to use his voice, doing public service announcements for a range of non-profit organizations in the region.

Running backs coach Jim Anderson has been a member on the steering committee of United Way's African-American Leadership Initiative — The Herbert R. Brown Society. Assistant head coach Paul Alexander and defensive backs coach Kevin Coyle have both worked for the D.A.R.E. drug resistance program in schools. Alexander gives time to the Boy Scouts, and Coyle has spoken to emotionally troubled youth at Cincinnati's Children's Hospital, assisted the Boys & Girls Club and aided non-profit initiatives to interest high school students in technology-based careers.

Tight ends coach Jonathan Hayes is a board member of the Greater Cincinnati chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, and Jeff Berding — Bengals director of sales and public affairs — graduated from his leadership service with the United Way to serve on Cincinnati City Council.

Today's children face an array of challenges and decisions, which makes community role models and leaders more important than ever. With this in mind,

Coach Lewis and his wife, Peggy, launched the Marvin Lewis Community Fund in 2003 with an initial $10,000 donation from the Bengals. Since its inception, the MLCF has donated more than $6 million, touched the lives of over 350,000 individuals, and is proud to invest 93 cents of every dollar back into the community.

The mission of the MLCF is to empower, educate and inspire individuals in the Cincinnati region. More than just using Coach Lewis' celebrity voice to raise awareness, the MLCF executes a number of programs aimed at enriching the Tri-State. In 2009, Coach Lewis was the first coach to receive the national Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy, recognizing the impact his work has on the community and the example he sets for all of professional athletes and coaches. To learn more, visit www.marvinlewis.org.

The MLCF annually hosts three major fundraisers: the Marvin Lewis Golf Classic (third weekend in May); Football 101 (Thursday night of Bengals bye week); and the Cincinnati Scurry (April). The 2011 Golf Classic raised more than $300,000 and enabled the awarding of four $20,000 college scholarships to deserving high school seniors. Through proceeds from the second annual Pink Out at Paul Brown Stadium on April 1, 2011, one more $20,000 scholarship was awarded in memory of Sharon Thomas, the Fund's late executive director.

Football 101 sells out rapidly every year and brings nearly 450 women to Paul Brown Stadium to learn about football in a relaxed and entertaining atmosphere. Last year's event raised more than $180,000 with all the proceeds going directly to the MLCF. At the event, the annual Pink Football Award is presented to a breast cancer survivor, honoring her strength, courage and perseverance.

The Cincinnati Scurry challenges corporations to give back through a fun event based on the CBS hit reality show "The Amazing Race." On April 22, 2011, 24 corporate teams of four people were dispatched from Newport on the Levee to scurry around the city, performing various tasks testing their speed, teamwork, problem-solving, trivia and their knowledge of Greater Cincinnati. For more information visit www.thescurry.com.

Football Coaching Clinic, Marvin Lewis Football Camp, Marvin Lewis Coach of the Year Award, Hometown Huddle, and the "Learning Is Cool" program.

The Marvin Lewis Scholarship Fund annually recognizes and rewards outstanding male and female students from our region. Candidates are evaluated based on a 1000 word essay, established criteria of a minimum 2.75 grade point average, a proven commitment to the community, financial need and a varsity letter in any sport.

The Coaching Clinic features the Bengals coaching staff instructing nearly 150 youth, middle school and high school football coaches. The curriculum includes the seven essential areas needed to properly train coaches in teaching the game to young people, while running a successful and safe program in a positive learning environment.

The Coach of the Year Award is presented to the top high school football coach in the Tri-State area. Over 200 area schools are invited to nominate a coach for this award. The winner is chosen based on his teaching skills, sportsmanship, dedication to players, and commitment to their community and education.

Learning Is Cool is an educational incentive program that rewards students for strong academic performance. The program is designed to encourage all 20,000 1st-8th grade students in Cincinnati and Covington (Ky.) public schools to make the "A" honor roll each quarter. Students who reach that goal two quarters of the year are invited to the Academic Achievement Ceremony at Paul Brown Stadium. The program has seen great success, witnessing an 85% increase in the number of students making the "A" honor roll.

In recent years, Bengals players have continued to increase their level of involvement in the community. Last season, they made more than 300 community appearances to schools, youth groups and teams and charity events.

Many Bengals players have their own foundations or sponsor charitable fund-raising activities dedicated to improving the community. Those players in recent years have included Cedric Benson, Quan Cosby, Jonathan Fanene, Michael Johnson, Leon Hall, Chinedum Ndukwe, Chad Ochocinco, Antwan Odom, Carson Palmer, Frosee Rucker, Pat Sims, Andre Smith, Andrew Whitworth and Roy Williams.

Other team programs include:

NFL GRASSROOTS GRANT PROGRAM: The Bengals and the NFL have teamed up to support youth sports by contributing to local efforts to improve football fields throughout the region. Most recently, Cincinnati's Woodward High School was granted $200,000 toward the completion of a new synthetic field. More than $1 million has been contributed in past years to Withrow, Oak Hills, Lockland and Clinton-Massie high schools to install these state-of-the-art synthetic fields. In addition to boosting football programs, these multi-use fields serve as valuable assets for the entire community.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE: The NFL/United Way "Hometown Huddle" is a day of service that provides NFL players, coaches, wives, and staff from each team, along with volunteers from their communities, the opportunity to create a lasting impression in the city in which they work. In 2010, the Bengals led the way in the renewal of a park in the city community of Evanston. Improvements included construction of a Parcourse FitCircuit, creation of a walking path, a complete refurbishment of the basketball court, and creation of a practice field for American Bantam youth football teams. Additionally, the space was beautified with the addition of native trees, shrubs, mulch and flowers.

COACH OF THE WEEK: A league-wide program that is designed to give the recognition that high school football coaches deserve for molding the lives of young adults. Each winner's school receives a $1000 donation to the school's football program.

PLAY 60: Bengals players have enthusiastically supported this NFL program that encourages kids to enjoy at least 60 minutes of vigorous outdoor activity per day, and also to adopt a proper diet. Some players have reached the 10-15 range in number of school visits.

CINCINNATI BENGALS TASTE OF THE NFL: Bengals players, coaches and alumni join with benefactors of the Freestore Foodbank while dining on samples from over 40 of Cincinnati's finest restaurants. The Bengals Taste of the NFL has been held each year since 2003, and in 2010, with over 900 guests in attendance, the event raised more than $120,000, helping the Freestore Foodbank to provide more than 400,000 meals during the year to our neighbors in need.

HOXWORTH BLOOD DRIVE: Bengals coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders and staff are present annually at Paul Brown Stadium to help the Hoxworth Blood Center collect donations before the busy holiday season. In 2005, the drive earned the Bengals a Special Recognition Award from America's Blood Centers, an organization based in Washington, D.C. The drive, entering its 10th year in 2011, has set numerous records for largest single-day blood drive in Greater Cincinnati.

CANNED FOOD DRIVE: For more than a decade, the Bengals have conducted a canned food drive to benefit Cincinnati's FreeStore/FoodBank. In 2010, more than 7000 pounds of non-perishable and canned goods were collected, and fans with no food to offer contributed more than $11,000 in cash. During the drive's history, an estimated 110,000 pounds of food and $93,000 in donations have been secured.

— BENGALS PRESEASON TELEVISION —

Brad Johansen and Anthony Muñoz team up in the broadcast booth for this season's games on the Bengals Preseason TV Network. Johansen does play-by-play, with Muñoz as the analyst. Mike Valpredo returns for his seventh season as sideline reporter.

For the 23rd time in the past 24 years, Cincinnati's WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) is the flagship station of the network. Also on the network are WKEF-TV (Ch. 22) and WRGT-TV (Ch. 45) in Dayton, Ohio; WSYX-TV (Ch. 6) in Columbus, Ohio; WLIO-TV (Ch. 35) and WOHL-TV (Ch. 8) in Lima, Ohio; and WDRB-TV (Ch. 41) in Louisville, Ky.

Johansen is sports anchor at Cincinnati's WKRC-TV. Muñoz, Bengals' Hall of Fame offensive tackle, is in his 14th season as preseason analyst. Valpredo has worked as a sports anchor in Columbus, Ohio, and is currently an anchor and reporter for the TVG Network in Los Angeles.

— BENGALS WEEKLY TV SHOW —

The Bengals produce a weekly television show — Bengals Weekly with Marvin Lewis, presented by Time Warner Cable — that will air every Sunday morning during the 2011 NFL regular season at 11:30 a.m. on WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) in Cincinnati. The show will also air (day and time TBD) on WKEF-TV (Ch. 22) in Dayton and WTTE-TV (Ch. 28) in Columbus.

— BENGALS RADIO NETWORK —

Bengals games will be aired this season on three Clear Channel flagship radio stations in the Cincinnati market. All games will be carried by Cincinnati's ESPN 1530 (WCKY-AM) and 102.7 FM WEBN. Also, once the Major League Baseball season is over, games will also be aired on 700 WLW-AM.

Dan Hoard, a former sports director and broadcaster on Cincinnati's WXIX-TV (FOX 19), makes his debut this season as the radio play-by-play voice of the Bengals. He is also the radio voice of University of Cincinnati football and basketball. Prior to joining Bengals radio, he worked as Bengals preseason TV play-by-play voice.

Dave Lapham, a Bengals offensive lineman from 1974-83, is in his 26th consecutive season as the analyst on Bengals radio broadcasts. He also is an analyst for Big 12 college games on TV's FOX Sports Net, as well as working on FOX Sports Ohio's Cincinnati area high school games of the week. In past years, he broadcast NFL games for NBC and FOX and worked the NFL Europe League's World Bowl game for Sporting News Radio.

— BENGALS ON THE INTERNET —

The club's official Web site, bengals.com, offers a variety of features, including up-to-the-down live coverage of every game, complete with news stories, sidebars, and analysis. During the season, the site provides breaking news, daily team updates and notes, and extensive multimedia offerings, including weekly press conferences as well as one-on-one video interviews with players and coaches throughout the week and following each game. Geoff Hobson, former Bengals beat reporter for The Cincinnati Post and later for The Cincinnati Enquirer, is the Web site editor. Also available on bengals.com are the club's roster, depth chart, biographies of coaches and players, as well as information regarding tickets, cheerleaders and Paul Brown Stadium.

Fans and media may also follow the Bengals on Facebook (facebook.com/bengals) and Twitter (twitter.com/Bengals).

— GAME DAYS —

CREDENTIALS FOR HOME GAMES: To receive a media credential for a Bengals game, one must be a member of an accredited news organization with a legitimate working function that requires access to the stadium. No one under 18 years old may use a credential. Interns of news organizations are not permitted to use credentials (unless prior clearance from the Bengals' public relations department is sought and granted). Media are not permitted to have guests of any kind (executives, sponsors, advertisers, friends, family, etc.) in secured areas of the stadium (in the press box/booth area, on the field, in the locker rooms, etc.) at any time. Credential privileges can and will be revoked if any of these or the following policies are not honored. Credential use is monitored. All credential requests for home games should be made in writing on company letterhead by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals public relations director Jack Brennan. All requests should be faxed (513-621-3570) or e-mailed (jack.brennan@bengals.nfl.net) by 5 p.m. on the Mondays preceding the games. Please specify the types of credentials requested — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Also note whether you wish to pick up the credentials in person or have them left at will call. All credentials are nontransferable.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE: Will call is located on the plaza on north side of the stadium (the downtown side) between Gates B and C. Media must enter the media entrance next to Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium. The media entrance opens five hours prior to kickoff (at 8 a.m. for a 1 p.m. game). In order to enter the stadium, each reporter or photographer must meet the following three conditions (if any of the three conditions are not met, he/she will not be permitted to enter the stadium): (1) He/she must have the proper credential; (2) he/she must present a photo ID (i.e., driver's license); and (3) his/her name must be on the media list (names should be provided to the Bengals' public relations department by your sports editor/director prior to each home game). All equipment and baggage is subject to visual search.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS BOX/BOOTH: Option No. 1: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium. Take the escalator just inside the gate entrance. The escalator terminates one level above the press box. Take a right at the end of the escalator, and descend one flight of stairs and turn right. The press box will be straight ahead inside the glass doors. Option No. 2: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to CS (Club Suite) Level. The press box is adjacent to the elevators.

DIRECTIONS TO PHOTOGRAPHERS' WORK AREA: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to FL (Field Level) and follow the signage for "Photographer Check-In".

TELEPHONES/WI-FI ACCESS: There are four general-use telephones (analog only) located in the media work room behind the third row of the press box. They provide free local calls, but require an 800 number for long distance service. In addition, high-speed wireless internet access is available in the press box and in the photographers' work area on field level. The service is free.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS/LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: For media with locker room access, the locker rooms are opened for interviews with players and coaches within 12 minutes after the conclusion of a game. Both the Bengals' locker room and the visitors' locker room have news conference rooms for the head coaches' postgame news conferences and any star players' postgame news conferences. Both news conference rooms include built-in multi-box systems for television and radio reporters, as well as proper lighting and audio amplification. TV/radio media may access the rooms before games to set up equipment for use after games.

CREDENTIALS FOR AWAY GAMES: All credential requests for away games should be made in writing on company letterhead by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals public relations director Jack Brennan. All requests should be faxed (513-621-3570) or e-mailed (jack.brennan@bengals.nfl.net) no later than 10 days before the game. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Media from outside the Greater Cincinnati region should submit requests to the home team.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR AWAY GAMES: Place all requests to Bengals business manager Bill Connelly (513-455-8333 or william.connelly@bengals.nfl.net) no later than 5 p.m. on the Tuesdays before the games. Please note the types of accommodations required.

— DURING THE WEEK —

MEDIA ROOM: The Bengals have a media workroom at Paul Brown Stadium that is available for media use during business hours. Countertop space, electrical outlets and high-speed wireless internet access are available.

PRACTICES: Most practices after training camp are partially open to the media. Call the Bengals' public relations department for information.

HEAD COACH INTERVIEWS: The Bengals' head coach is available for interviews in a news conference setting at scheduled times during the week. Call the Bengals' public relations department for times.

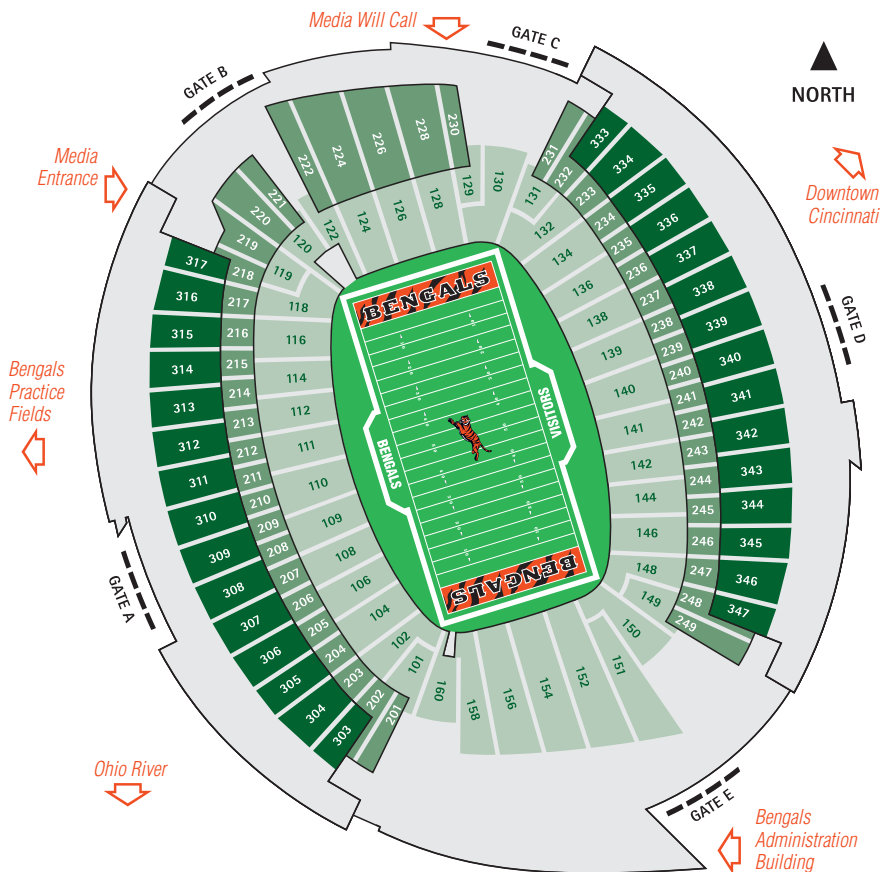

LOCKER ROOM/PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The team's locker room at Paul Brown Stadium is open to the media at scheduled times during the week. Call the Bengals' public relations department for times.

TV INTERVIEW ROOM: Space for television reporters to conduct interviews is available upon request. Chairs and electrical outlets for lighting are available, but background materials and lights are not provided.
